Dear Parishioners,

After a quiet Easter week, the parish returned to its normally busy schedule this past week. As I was returning to the rectory this past Wednesday night, I noticed all the parked cars in the lot and on the street. 75 eighth grade Confirmation candidates were just finishing the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for Confirmation on April 18. Seventy grade students were in classes on the second floor. The Knights of Columbus were meeting in the cafeteria. The parish choir was practicing in the music room. All this after a school day that now begins at 7:00am with the arrival of the principal and extends till 6:00pm when the last of the school faculty and students return home after the after school care program.

Our after school care program is a great success and provides a much needed service to our school families. And in fact, it has stretched the school day till 6:00pm. Our parish school ministry now operates eleven hours a day. I remember back 20 years ago when Catholic elementary schools began after school care programs to help meet the needs of families where often both parents were working outside the home. These programs provided supervision for the kids. Back then, a small population of children were served by these kinds of programs.

That has changed dramatically. The more than 60 students in our after care program now love it. They get their homework done. They can get faculty assistance. They recreate with their school friends. They get a snack. They love everything about it. Our teachers who provide the supervision do a great job. Because the parish offices are in the basement of the school, I get to see this program everyday. I see the happiness of the children and am most grateful to our teachers for the great job they do.

RECTORY PROGRESS

After lots of meetings and changes of plans, it’s full steam ahead with rectory re-build. Just this Thursday morning as I write this column, five different crews are working throughout the building. Electricians are completing the wiring on the bedroom floor. Plumbers are completing the installation of pipes on the same floor. Carpenters are laying new floorboards on the first floor. Heating and air conditioning crews are finishing the attic installation. Alarm people are planning the installation of their systems that will begin next week. The rectory is noisy, dusty, and has been very cold with the late arrival of spring. But the progress and the promise of a completed building for July 1 is very exciting.

The renovated rectory will include a completely re-furbished bedroom floor and basement. Basement rooms will be re-configured with one enhanced meeting room. The first floor of the rectory will remain mostly as is with strengthened flooring and enhanced lighting. We can look forward to a much improved rectory. I am very grateful to the many parishioners who have given all kinds of support during this difficult period. There is light at the end of the tunnel.

We continue to look at the parish’s need for increased meeting and ministry space. We are looking to use property from the former convent site for this purpose. Plans for anything that is built on this land include primary consideration of how the construction will complement and be appropriate for the neighborhood and the present rectory. As possibilities become more clear, they will be shared with the parish. One of my responsibilities is to keep you informed as to what is happening.

SUNDAY READINGS

Today’s gospel focuses on the character of Peter as does the reading from the Acts of the Apostles. Peter has captured my interest and attention this Easter season. The gospel of Easter Sunday recounted the sense of urgency that surrounds the Easter story as we heard about Peter and John running to the tomb. Also, the various stories of the Acts of the Apostles involving Peter present a man who has discovered a new strength and boldness. What is striking is that this is the same Peter who denied Jesus three times in the story of Jesus’ Passion. His denial of Jesus seems to have stemmed from his own fear and cowardice. So I ask, “What happened to Peter in these days and weeks” between his threefold denial and his bold proclamations of his faith and belief in the Risen Lord? What changed and transformed Peter?

Today’s gospel and others about the appearance of the Risen Lord give us the answer. The Risen Lord encountered Peter and these meetings brought Peter to a new experience of who he was and brought to him a new relationship with the Lord. Peter realized he could be more than the person who three times in the courtyard denied knowing Jesus. Peter found new strength so that he no longer needed to hide behind locked doors but could now proclaim in the public square his faith and belief in the Risen Lord. Peter who felt he must have so disappointed Jesus now could see that the Risen Lord still had tremendous confidence in him. Peter who was deeply concerned for his own safety could now accept Jesus’ words about his own death and still accept the Risen Lord’s invitation, “Follow me.”

Peter learned that the acceptance and admission of the Risen Lord into his life could change Peter’s life and make it so much better. I propose you and I can experience the same. Of course, ours is a different experience than that of Peter’s. We are not Galilean fishermen; we won’t share a beach breakfast with Jesus; ours will not be death by crucifixion. Yet, if we accept and admit the Lord and the Holy Spirit into our lives, we will be changed. We will discover new strength; fear will diminish; a new sense of mission will be given to us; past mistakes and guilt will fade; life will be better!

Continued Easter Blessings and Joy,

Fr. Tom

Saint Anne’s Is Here For You…
If you’re struggling with something and not sure where to turn, Saint Anne’s Parish provides confidential support and assistance. Serious illness, economic problems, marital difficulties, mental health concerns and coping with caring for those who are ill or elderly are issues we may all face at different times in our lives. If you would like to know more, please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.
“Jesus said to him a third time, ‘Simon, son of John, do you love me?’ Peter was distressed that Jesus said to him a third time, ‘Do you love me?’ and he said to him, ‘Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Feed my sheep.’” ~John 21: 17

Three times Jesus asks Peter this all important question and, in frustration, Peter replies that Jesus knows this as He knows all. Do we make the same mistake as Peter in assuming that Jesus knows that we love Him. Do we miss opportunities to tell Jesus of our love or show Jesus our love in our care for His sheep? In this Easter season, let us try to pray to Jesus more often and to attend Mass with our family and our parish family. Let’s also try to reflect Pope Francis’s encouragement to mercy in all we do and say.

Faith Formation Students Practice Mercy

Posted on a wall in St. Anne’s basement, just past the cafeteria, is a display of student writing in response to Pope Francis’s call to look for works of mercy around them and within themselves. The students have shared some wonderful insights and we invite you to view them as well. Here are examples of four students’ observations:

Nina, grade 5 – “I observed an act of mercy when my friend Catherine told us about her cousin who is a teacher and has students that wear summer clothes in the winter because they cannot afford warm clothing. She started a warm clothing drive, where she collected coats, hats, scarves and gloves for them. This helped a lot because now they have warm clothes to stay warm in the winter.”

Julia, grade 6 – “I observed an act of mercy when I donated toys for tots...made a travel bag for foster kids...made a box with different things that soldiers would need and sent it to them...donated clothes for kids that needed them...participated in the food drive...donated money to St. Jude’s to help sick kids.”

Joseph, grade 6 – “I observed an act of mercy when I gave money to St. Jude’s, I got inspired by all the St. Jude’s commercials. After a few days my school started fund raisers for St. Jude’s. Later that day I went on their website and got signed up. Me, with help from my family, donated $300.”

Shane, grade 8 – “I recently attended a wake in which my friend’s younger cousin died at the age of 13. This is a very sad tragedy for someone such a young age. My friend was happy that my mom and I came along with his parents. This showed mercy because many people showed up to this funeral, which shows that they are all nice, respectful, and caring people. There are many nice people in the world.”
LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Third Sunday of Easter

“Come, have breakfast!”

Have you heard the saying, “Breakfast is the most important meal”? A nutritious breakfast gives our metabolism a jolt giving us energy. After the resurrection the disciples surely needed a “jolt”. They could not go back to their former way of life. They need to be jolted out of their familiar routine and transformed. They journeyed with Jesus throughout his ministry, they met the risen Jesus on the road, in the upper room and are invited to share in his ongoing ministry. Today’s gospel shows us how this transformation is made possible by the risen Christ. The disciples net a full catch of fish after a catch-less night, Peter three times declares his love for Jesus. The disciples are fortified by the gift of breakfast bread and fish but even more so by this encounter with the Risen Jesus. Let us be open to transformation in our own lives. Fed by the Eucharist, let us be transformed into disciples who heed Jesus’ call to “Follow me!” Have a wonderful breakfast today!

Little Boy

There will be two opportunities for you to view the film “Little Boy”. This movie was produced in 2015 starring Kevin James and Emily Watson. It is a parable of the Works of Mercy, a heartwarming story of a little boy who is willing to do whatever it takes to bring his dad home from World War II alive, even if that means a miracle. Join us in the school cafeteria and as always to make sure we have enough chairs and popcorn call the parish office 352-5904 or email sruudy@stannesgc.org.

Virtus Training at St. Anne’s

Tuesday, April 19th at 7:30PM—cafeteria

Friday, April 29th at 9:30AM—chapel

In all we do, the safety of our parishioners and most especially our children is a top priority. To ensure a safe environment is provided, the diocese requires all parish and school volunteers comply with the following four requirements:

- Complete a Volunteer Application
- Sign a Release for a Background Check
- Review and Sign the Code of Conduct
- Attend Virtus Training

Registration, Release and Code of Conduct forms are available at the rectory or on our website. If you have not yet attended Virtus training, please register for an upcoming session on the diocesan website, drvc.org. Click on Virtus Online on the homepage. Whether you choose to attend Virtus training at St. Anne’s or elsewhere, you must register online. If you have any questions, please call Susanne Blum at 352-5904.

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

The best way to protect our children and our church is for adults to learn red flag behaviors and to report concerns to supervisors. This creates a culture of protection. Sign up for a safe environment (Virtus) training.

Be part of the solution to protect children. Attendance at Virtus is a one-time requirement and your certification is good at any parish where you may live or volunteer.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Every day throughout our Diocese I see the many ways that we are working together to show mercy in this extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Through your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal we continue, as one faith, family and community, to serve thousands of people on Long Island with compassion, generosity and God’s love.

We can bring comfort and care to the needy in our community through programs that feed the hunger, minister to the incarcerated, shelter the disadvantaged and protect the lives of the unborn. The Appeal also supports our seminarians’ education and faith formation opportunities, along with resources to children and adults, as we help to promote strong faith-filled families. We continue to be leaders in Faith Formation and Respect Life initiatives.

Please join with me to support the Catholic Ministries Appeal which gives each of us a remarkable opportunity to show mercy to others and touch the lives of so many of our neighbors. As always, 100% of your gift will be used to sustain more than 60 essential programs and ministries.

Thank you again for all that you do. I am very grateful for your continued generosity and support of your Parish and of the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please know that I keep you and your family in my prayers and thoughts.

With my gratitude and prayers, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre
