Confirmation

On Tuesday, April 19th, Bishop Andrzej anointed 192 young men and women with chrism as they received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Bishop Andrzej told the Confirmation students that they should follow Nike’s advice in their Nike swoosh ads – “We make tools for the champions; just do it. You are the champions on the front lines of being close to God; your tools are the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Use the gifts you have received, Just do it.”

Please see page 6 to read more of Bishop Andrzej’s inspirational message. Our thanks to Bishop Andrzej for a wonderful celebration and uplifting message for all.

Please see page 11 for more photos and visit our website, stannesgc.org.
Dear Parishioners,

During this past year, I have often reflected on how our faith is often about moving forward. First, in the gospel stories, Jesus’ encounters with the people who appear in the narratives almost always challenges them to move forward in their faith. This might mean drawing closer to the Father; it even means for some, such as the blind roadside beggar, to move physically. In that miracle story Jesus not only heals him by giving him his sight, he challenges the roadside beggar to arise and follow. When the Risen Lord appears to Mary Magdalene and other disciples, he consistently challenges them to go and bring the news of his resurrection to others. Ours is not a faith of standing still or “standing pat”. Our faith has a dynamic movement to it of always drawing closer to the Lord.

Each of today's readings conveys that dynamic. The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles describes the travels of Paul and Barnabas to the Greek towns of Pisidia, Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch. Their travels are not wanderings. They have a clear sense of mission and direction to bring the gospel to places that have never before heard the message. The early Church was on the move.

From the middle reading, the imagery of the Book of Revelation is filled with a sense of movement. “Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.” The reading is filled with a sense of vision for the future. The spoken words all use the future tense. There is a clear sense of moving forward.

The words in today’s gospel continue that tone of moving forward. Jesus says to the Apostles in the context of the Last Supper, “My children, I will be with you only a little while longer.” What will soon follow these words for Jesus is his going forward in obedience to the Father which will lead to his Passion and Crucifixion. But even then, Jesus will move beyond death, and in so doing, overcome and conquer death with the Resurrection which we continue to celebrate these fifty days of the Easter Season.

These fifty days of the Easter Season also suggest the moving forward dynamic of our faith. The first eight days of the Easter Octave we spent listening to the stories of the appearances of the Risen Lord. In the middle of the Easter Season, the readings from the Acts of the Apostles on Sundays and weekdays recalled for us the first movements and spread of the Christian faith. Now, we begin to approach the Solemnity of the Ascension, celebrated this year on May 5, the event of Jesus rising to heaven. Ten days later we conclude the Easter Season with the Solemnity of Pentecost, the sending of the Holy Spirit as tongues of fire and rushing wind.

A key symbolic element of our liturgies is the use of procession. At every Mass, we process to Holy Communioon. We not only go to receive Jesus as individuals, we go in a procession line, reflecting our shared faith, our shared desire to receive Jesus. When we arrive at the “top” of the procession to receive the host, we are all receiving the same gift of the Body of Christ; we receive without distinction among ourselves. These days of Easter and spring bring many other processions, most notably the processions of the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion.

Last Monday, we had a marvelous celebration of Confirmation led by Bishop Andrzej Zglejszewski. We began with a procession of the candidates who later processed to the Bishop for their individual anointing with holy chrism. Bishop Andrzej stressed four words in his homily and comments to the confirmandi. He spoke of the Spirit, of Sunday Mass, of joy, and about smiling. He urged the students to open themselves to the Spirit. He enlightened them about the joy of the day. He asked them often to smile and to smile often. He received their promise to attend Sunday Mass. It was a great celebration for everybody present. In no way was Confirmation to be understood as an end of anything. Now the newly confirmed are to move forward, to move ahead in their faith journey, to draw closer to the Lord having received fully the gift of the Holy Spirit to guide them on their way.

On the first three Saturdays of May, we will celebrate First Holy Communion. These days will begin with the beautiful processions of second graders ready to receive Jesus for the first time. They will process with their parents at communion time to receive the Body of Christ. It will be a special moment for everybody. Still, it will be the first of many times as they are invited to receive Jesus every Sunday for the rest of their lives. How important, that moving forward, their parents continue to accompany them in this great procession of receiving Jesus. The gift of the Eucharist is given to us to strengthen us as we move forward in our faith journey all through the years.

RETREAT

I will be travelling to the Abbey of the Genesee for an annual retreat. From this Wednesday to next Tuesday, I will be the guest of the Benedictine monks at Genesee and will be with them in their newly re-furbished monastic chapel. It will be a silent retreat with much time for prayer, reading, and resting. Bishop Andrzej will assist with Masses next weekend at the 10:00 and 11:45. I look forward to being with you the following weekend for Mother’s Day and the beginning of First Communions. The parish will be in my prayers during this retreat time.

Peace to you,

Fa. Tom

This past Monday, Bishop Andrzej confirmed 192 St. Anne’s candidates. With the words above, he invited each Confirmandi, and all present, to strengthen their faith by attendance at Mass.

Bishop Andrzej stated we become what we learn in life; we become as smart as the things we learn in life from parents, families, teachers, coaches, and other mentors. Bishop Andrzej encouraged everyone to come to Mass every Sunday to listen, read, and learn about God from scripture.

The Bishop also stated that we become who we are with. Coming to church on Sunday puts us in the presence of Jesus and of others who hold similar beliefs and values. The more each of us are in the presence of Jesus, the more we become like Him and the more we become blessings to others: our parents, our communities, and ourselves.

Perhaps you enjoyed reading some of the Confirmation candidates’ written reflections in last week’s bulletin. We are blessed by these young men and women in our parish. Their love for one another is shown in their many acts of service and worship, and in the manner in which they share their talents with all of us. Let us celebrate with these disciples and their families.

Classes for this Faith Formation year are over. Thank you to students, families, and catechists for a wonderful year of faith development. Looking forward to seeing you at Sunday Mass.

Thank you to all who helped to set-up and all who visited our displays during Faith Formation Sunday. Our first and third grade singers were inspiring during the 8:30 Mass.

Registration for next year’s classes will begin in late May. An e-mail will be sent to families presently registered and it will also be announced in the bulletin.

Second Grade Parents and Students: Please check the rehearsal schedule to make sure your child and a parent are in attendance for practice on their assigned night. Should you have any questions, please contact the Faith Formation office (488-1032 or lbeck@stannesgc.org). What an exciting time for our second grade students and their families; please keep them in your prayers.
“I give you a new commandment: love one another.”

Probably the best description of who God is comes to us from St. John, “God is love!” Jesus’ whole ministry was to show how this is lived out. He showed us how much God is love by giving his whole self on the cross. Today’s gospel shows us how not to love and how to love. Judas betrays Jesus and Jesus pours out his love on the cross. We have been called to the Year of Mercy – “Merciful like the Father!” Love and mercy go hand in hand. The middle door at the entrance of church has the logo for the Year of Mercy. It was blessed last Advent and each time we pass through that door we are reminded of the love and mercy that our God extends to each one of us. Who can you extend love and mercy to this week?

Mercy Question of the Week
How in your family and community have you loved one another in the face of abuse or brokenness?
How does prayer to a merciful and compassionate God help you deal with this?
How do you feel loved by Jesus?
How do you share this love with others?
©Pastoral Planning

The movie “Little Boy” was produced in 2015 starring Kevin James and Emily Watson. It is a parable of the Works of Mercy, a heartwarming story of a little boy who is willing to do whatever it takes to bring his dad home from World War II alive, even if that means a miracle. In American Magazine last June, Father Jim McDermott wrote an article about “Little Boy”. He says “The film invites us into a wonderful contemplation of that blessed kingdom of mercy to which Jesus is calling us. It is a film to see and to savor. Might Pope Francis consider adding “befriending the persecuted” or “championing the oppressed” as a corporal work of mercy for the world today?”

The film is rated PG-13. There will be two opportunities for you to view the film “Little Boy”, Tuesday, April 26 at 7:00PM and Sunday, May 1, at 2:00PM. Join us in the school cafeteria and as always to make sure we have enough chairs and popcorn call the parish office 352-5904 or email srjudy@stannesgc.org.

Join us for Family Mass on Sundays at 10:30 in the auditorium. Our last Family Mass will be on Sunday, May 8 at 10:30. We will begin Family Mass again on the First Sunday of October.
Catholic Elementary Schools Collection

The second collection on April 30th and May 1st is in support of St. Anne’s School and the Tomorrow’s Hope Foundation. Tomorrow’s Hope provides tuition assistance to students in need attending Catholic elementary schools and grants directly to schools to offset general expenses. Last year the Foundation gave over $1.75 million to students while actual student need was over $6 million.

St. Anne’s School has many needs. Tuition, parish subsidy and fundraising all help to balance the budget. Each year, however, new technologies and curricular needs arise. The money that you give to the second collection on April 30th and May 1st help to expand the school’s academic excellence and help it remain a place where our faith is taught and lived.

Sustaining Catholic elementary education is vital to the future of our society and our Church. Our students are our future. They are tomorrow’s hope. Please be as generous as possible with your donation on April 30th and May 1st.
