MIDDLE SCHOOL EVENT
Dear Parishioners,

What great weather we enjoyed this past week. Warm, comfortable days followed by cool nights. August was always a vacation month for my family. During the 1960’s my parents rented a house on Candlewood Lake - Squantz Pond in Connecticut. All nine of us would squeeze into the car with food and luggage for the trip away. At first we would go for a week, then two weeks, and twice we went for the entire month. The house we preferred to rent was right on the lake with the house atop a hill that included a slope to run down into the water. Back then a lakefront house into which we all squeezed rented for only five hundred dollars. Days were spent in the lake. I very much enjoyed the row boat and thought it very exciting to row across the lake or row to the marshes that marked the edge of the lake. Nights were spent playing cards or board games. These days provided great memories. I remember well when the last ten days of August would arrive, blankets would be needed as the nights would become so cool.

Still today, many people use August as vacation time. People go to many different places. For many families days at the Garden City and Stewart Manor pools provide lots of fun and friendship. Families with older children are busy with students going off to college. In a couple of weeks, August will become a time of transition as summer vacations end and school years resume.

Late August and early September will mark the transition time for the parish offices to return to the fully repaired, rebuilt and refurbished rectory. Most of the painting is complete; carpets will be installed this week and over the next couple of weeks the office operations with phones and computers will be returned to the rectory. Not all ministries and meetings will be returned to the rectory. The experience of the past year has indicated our need for additional ministry and meeting space. Ideas and proposals will unfold in the fall months for building this additional ministry and meeting space. For now, we are happily anticipating the completion of the rectory re-building for the beginning of September. It has taken a long time. The fire occurred on September 24. It will be good to return fully to the rectory space.

MISSION
Deacon Ray D’Alessio is with us this weekend to speak about our diocesan mission effort and to ask for our prayerful and financial support. Deacon Ray ministers at St. Edward’s, Syosset and also is an active participant and supporter of the diocesan mission. He brings great enthusiasm and support for this important work of the Church.

Whenever I hear missionaries speak, I marvel at their dedication and commitment. I think it is a special calling and vocation to be a missionary. Few of us feel the call to leave our homes and families and bring the gospel message and sacraments to faraway places with different cultures and traditions. At the same time we know that mission work is central to the meaning of our faith. Faith is meant to be shared. The mandate to be a mission church is found in the concluding words of Jesus in the gospels. So although the vocation to be a missionary is given to only a few, the necessity of supporting this part of the Church’s life is shared by all. Today’s visit from Deacon Ray gives us all the opportunity to share in the missionary tradition of our faith.

FAITH

Today’s readings are all about faith. Faith is a deeply personal experience and it is a personal gift. At the same time, faith is meant to be shared with others and for most people faith is lived in a community, particularly the communities of our family and our parish. I believe faith life greatly enriches the human experience. Faith adds many things to human life, understanding and joy are among faith’s most precious gifts. Without faith, my life would be seriously diminished.

We are all here today as persons of faith. Catholicism is a bond we share. It brings us together. In American life, the place of faith is often debated. Our nation is fond of the phrase “separation of Church and state.” At times, this separation is helpful to our faith. There are many instances of how as Catholics we struggle with the laws of our state. Religious liberty is now identified as a topic of debate. The “separation of Church and state” does not mean that as persons of faith we ever surrender that faith or put it aside. Suggestions that we put aside our faith, even during the contemporary political season, de-humanizes us. Faith is integral to who we are. We cannot be a person of faith one day and not so the next day. The American tradition of “separation of Church and state” does not require Catholics, Christians, Jews, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, Quakers, Mormons or persons of any other faith tradition to put aside their faith. In fact, we seek to bring the truths, insights, and understandings of our faith to civil discourse.

How refreshing it recently was to see Mike Piazza, recently inducted into Baseball’s Hall of Fame, speak so publicly about his Catholic Faith and to use his faith as a context for his acceptance of his sport’s highest honor. He identified his Catholic Faith as the best gift his mom could give to her son. He gave tribute to the heroes of September 11, 2001 as he quoted Jesus’ words, “There is no greater love than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” He quoted Emeritus Pope Benedict XVI in an encouragement to be persons of hope. Piazza spoke unabashedly of his Catholic Faith with a loving tribute and no one could find his words offensive. I am grateful when I see a person bring their Catholic Faith into the public arena. To bring our faith into the worlds of education, medicine, law, business, service, politics enhances the human experience.

A close reading of today’s readings reveals many dimensions of our faith. The middle reading from Hebrews reviews the faith of Abraham, often referred to as “our father in faith.” For Abraham faith involved obedience and mystery. For Abraham faith was a journey and a source of relationship and community. Faith guided Abraham in his vocation as father. Faith allowed Abraham to anticipate realities beyond the world. Abraham’s faith tested him.

The middle reading is followed by a gospel in which Jesus gives directions for disciples. They are to be prepared; they need to know wise priorities. Peter demonstrates that the person of faith does not have all the answers. In fact, he has questions and really is not able to understand all of Jesus’ answers.

Faith is a journey. The hallmark of authentic faith is that it grows. It may even change its understandings. True faith is an alive faith.

Peace be with you.

Fr. Tom

Forgive from the Heart

Put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. Let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body.

_Colossians 3:12-15_

FAITH FORMATION

Sell your belongings and give alms.
Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out,
an inexhaustible treasure in heaven
that no thief can reach nor moth destroy.
For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.

~Luke 12: 33

“To be attracted by power, by grandeur, by appearances, is tragically human. It is a great temptation that tries to insinuate itself everywhere. But to give oneself to others, eliminating distances, dwelling in littleness and living the reality of one’s everyday life: This is exquisitely divine.”

~Pope Francis at World Youth Day celebration

Children do not always understand the concept of “treasure” other than that which comes in chests (often under the sea with Sponge Bob). As Pope Francis suggests above, and our gospel reading for today also states, our treasure should be more than gold, jewels, or money. We can lead our children to understand that treasure can be the talents and gifts that God has given us and we can share with others. The “treasures” we store can be acts of mercy we perform for others. These fortunes we have here on earth are increased when we share them with others.

St Anne’s Needs You: It is that time of year when we in the Faith Formation office begin to panic. We are desperately in need of volunteers to teach classes for our youngsters. Please consider volunteering what time you have available. Teens, parents, adults, and retired persons are needed to assist us in our Faith Formation program. Please consider volunteering some of your time and faith to this important discipleship. There are many levels at which you can be involved; any amount of time you can share would be very appreciated. Your contribution to your parish and your faith will be a gift to others and to yourself. Call Lyn Beck at 488-1032 or e-mail lbeck@stannesgc.org with any questions. We would love to have you involved.

Faith Formation Registrations: Registrations continue to trickle in to the Faith Formation office. Please note that we may not be able to accommodate your first request for class placement. The number of rooms and teachers available on a given day may not allow your child to be granted your first request; please list a second option. After we determine the number of student requests along with teacher and space availability, we will be able to let you know your child’s assignment. These will be mailed out to parents after Labor Day, as we are still recruiting teachers. Classes do not begin until after St. Anne’s Spirit Day (September 17).

A Pilgrimage to the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

Christ in Majesty—Located in the North Apse of the Basilica, this mosaic is one of the largest of Christ in the world at 3610 square feet. It contains 3.5 million tesserae of mosaic in 3,000-4,000 total shades of color, 300 of which are shades of red and 200 of which are shades of gold. On the day of dedication, November 20, 1959, this mosaic was the only interior ornamentation of the Upper Church. This is a Byzantine representation of Christ—the Apocalyptic Christ who comes as the absolute reproving Lord and final judge (raised right eyebrow) and with the love and compassion of the Good Shepherd (relaxed left eyebrow). The scarlet cloak signifies Christ as the Redeemer. The span between Christ’s hands (of his outstretched arms which reach out to embrace the world and which are in a position of prayer) is 34 feet across. The span of each hand is five feet across, while the span from his chin to hairline is 7 feet tall.

On Saturday, September 24th you have an opportunity to see this beautiful mosaic as part of our Diocesan pilgrimage for the Year of Mercy. Saint Anne’s is offering a bus for our parishioners. The bus will leave St. Anne’s at 5:45AM and return after the closing Mass at 4:15PM. We will have the opportunity to walk through the Holy Door and receive a plenary indulgence for this Year of Mercy.

“Be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.”

Today’s Gospel’s message of waiting seems to be a better fit for Advent than for the middle of the summer! This gospel story comes at the middle point of Jesus ministry. Vigilance is an important part of being a disciple. We need to be prepared to preach the Good News of Jesus at all times. Jesus asks his disciples to be as vigilant as the servant who prepares for the return of the master of the household. This vigilance is not merely waiting around for the master but rather it is time spent doing the will of the master. As we await the return of Jesus let us be conscientious about preaching the Good News with our lives.

Readings for the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Jeremiah 38: 4-6, 8-10
Hebrews 12: 1-4
Luke 12: 49-53

Mercy Question of the Week
“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses… and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.”
(from this Sunday’s second reading)

Other than Jesus, which of the ancestors of Christian faith has served as the greatest example to you? Why?

How do you recognize a holy person?
How do they help you live your life?

Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross
August 9th

Saint Teresa Benedicta was born Edith Stein at Breslau, Germany in 1891 into an observant Jewish family. By the time she reached her teens, Edith had become an atheist. She went on to study philosophy and received her doctorate at Freiburg under the philosopher Edmund Husserl. She left the university to teach at a girls’ school. However, influenced by her study of scholastic theology and spirituality, she became a Catholic in 1922. In 1932 she became a lecturer at Munster, but the anti-Semitic laws forced her to resign. She then entered a Carmelite convent in Cologne. In an attempt to protect her from the Nazis, she was sent to a Carmelite convent in the Netherlands. The Dutch bishops condemned Nazi racism and as a result the Nazis began arresting Jewish converts. Edith along with her sister Rose, who had also become a Catholic, were deported to Auschwitz and died in the gas chamber on August 9, 1942. She was canonized by Pope John Paul II in 1998.

This year all Extraordinary Ministers are required by the Diocese to complete a three year recommitment form. Forms have been mailed to all active Eucharistic Ministers. You can also access a form on the parish website (www.stannesgc.org) under Worship. Just download the form, scan it and return it to srjudy@stannesgc.org. If you do not receive a form please contact Sister Judy (srjudy@stannesgc.org or 352-5904). Forms should be returned by August 20th the latest.

The Lot for Tots Eagle Project

Hi, my name is Ryan Malloy. I am a lifelong member of our parish, a graduate of St. Anne's School and a Life Scout in our Boy Scout Troop, 134. The lot behind the school has been in need of refurbishing for quite some time. I remember how happy I was riding the tricycles in the back of the building when I was in Nursery school and wishing I still could while putting the toys away for the children each day when I was in eighth grade. For my Eagle project, I hope to clean, repair, refresh and paint the area. This project will bring much happiness to the children and teachers, as well as set an example to previous, current and future students of all schools to give back to the people and places which impacted their lives when given the opportunity to do so. As Baden Powell, founder and first Chief Scout of the Boy Scouts of America, once said, “The real way to gain happiness is to give to others.”

In order to accomplish this goal, I really need your assistance. If you would be kind enough to donate to this project or have any knowledge or expertise that could help facilitate its completion, I would greatly appreciate any help you can offer.

Checks may be made payable to St. Anne’s Church and sent to the parish office at 35 Dartmouth St. Garden City, NY 11530. Please indicate that your donation is for the “Lot for Tots Eagle Project.” If you have any advice, suggestions or questions you may email me at lot4tots@gmail.com.
