Youth Ministry Runs the Sweet Shoppe on Spirit Day

Success in business comes from knowing what your customers want. The teens in Saint Anne’s Youth Ministry know kids and adults crave sweet treats on Spirit Day and they deliver! At the ever-popular Sweet Shoppe there will be a delicious assortment of candies, cookies and special treats to satisfy one’s sweet tooth. Coffee and tea will be available to help the young-at-heart keep up with the young. The Sweet Shoppe remains open until 8:00PM.

“Youth Ministry is happy to help out with Spirit Day,” comments Bill Leone, head of Saint Anne’s Youth Ministry. “Our teens staff the Sweet Shoppe and also assist with the popular Goldfish Booth. Spirit Day is a great opportunity for the kids in Youth Ministry to help out and interact with many of our parishioners. Every year we receive terrific support from the teens, who always prove to be committed hard workers.” It’s great to see so many teens contributing to the fun of Spirit Day!

Saint Anne’s Youth Ministry works year-round putting smiles on the faces of parish youth by helping them grow in their many relationships—with God, with their friends and family, with the Church and the larger community. The group is open to all teens in the parish, grades 9 through 12. Meetings are on Sundays following the 5:30PM Mass in the school cafeteria and new members are always welcome. Pizza and soda are served and there are great games and activities at each meeting. For more information, please email Bill Leone at bleone@stannesgc.org.

Dear Parishioners,

Last Wednesday I had the opportunity to see the show Finding Neverland. It is a musical that recounts the creation of Peter Pan by the playwright J.M. Barrie. The show centers around the relationship of Mr. Barrie to four young sons and their recently widowed mother. These boys serve as inspiration to Barrie for his writing.

The theme of the show centers around imagination, belief, play, and youth. “Neverland” is one product of these qualities. Clearly, the play is not designed to promote religious themes. At the same time, the play underscores the vitality that imagination and belief can bring to the life of a person. The play is fun, energetic, and moving. All of those are fueled by the presence of imagination and belief.

As a person of faith and belief, I have found Finding Neverland truly memorable. I first saw the movie about eight years ago and have watched it three times. Part of the story deals with the illness and death of Sylvia, the mom. Her death is presented with great imagination and compassion. The family understands it as her movement to “Neverland.” Neverland is a place of eternity, and for the believer the suggestion of heaven is obvious. After the play, three of us who had seen it had a discussion about heaven centering on the question of how do we imagine heaven. I believe that question is well beyond our power of description, even with the use of our imagination.

I thoroughly enjoyed Finding Neverland. Surprisingly, it is leaving Broadway after only a 16 month run. It concludes on August 21. Several years ago the movie “Finding Neverland” received an Oscar nomination for the Academy Awards. Again for a person of belief, I think the movie is highly recommended. So if you cannot see the play, the movie is time well spent.

These themes of belief and imagination are central to our faith. These human qualities remain essential in today’s world that is so marked by cynicism and skepticism. Belief and faith are the enemies of the cynic and skeptic. Cynicism and skepticism develop the dark side of imagination. We have experienced in the violence of this summer’s headlines the dark side of the cynic and skeptic turned terrorist and/or shooter who so misuses imagination. That is imagination gone awry.

Sometimes imagination is all about fun. This kind of imagination can suggest fantasy. Never having seen firsthand a Pokemon image or icon, but having heard about it on the news and seen young people gather at “Pokemon hot spots?” (including outside our church) it is interesting how this imaginative figure can energize so many people to engage in a game. Imagination is powerful.

These days we often see the link between imagination and fantasy. Often it is harmless, such as seems to be the case with Pokemon.

Realize though, imagination is about so much more than fantasy. The history of art, music and literature is filled with stories of amazing people who used their imagination to convey profound truths. How great music evokes real human emotion. Paintings mesmerize people to consider important human experiences. Novels and poems communicate life long learnings.

Our faith is filled with imaginative figures. The first stories of the Bible recount historical human events and include elements of imagination that were inspired by God. These are not stories of fantasy, but stories that give us important truths about God and ourselves. God inspired the prophets to proclaim visions about what was to come. Every Advent we are treated to the inspired imagination of Isaiah. The psalmist who provides the Church with its daily prayers makes great links between the human and the divine. So many are deeply fond of Psalm 23 that images the Lord as the Good Shepherd who leads us beside restful waters.

Jesus was deeply imaginative. His parables remain among the greatest and most memorable of stories. Just two Sundays ago, we heard again what I think is the most well known story of all literature, the Parable of the Good Samaritan. People of all faiths in all different kinds of circumstances make reference to the title, Good Samaritan. Jesus repeatedly tried to reach people by making appeal to the imagination. And Jesus was always about truth, never fantasy. Jesus was always about faith and belief, seeking to overcome all forms of cynicism and skepticism.

Today’s readings suggest the connection between faith and imagination that guides us to truth. In the first reading from Genesis, we hear Abraham enter into conversation with the Lord about what lies ahead for his people. A beautiful description begins the encounter, “Abraham drew nearer...”. After Abraham draws near, he begins pleading for his people. In the ensuing conversation, the reader can see clearly Abraham’s imagination at work.

In the gospel, Jesus speaks about prayer. He first teaches his disciples the Our Father. He concludes with his well known words that encourage prayer. “Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you ....” We know what God brings to our prayer. God brings love. We too bring our love to prayer, our love for God as well as our love for others. Faith and imagination are important parts of prayer. Faith helps us to be confident and hopeful. Imagination helps us to express what we feel and what we seek. Many spiritual writers have written about the connection between prayer and imagination.

Finding Neverland is an artistic expression of the gifts of belief and imagination. How essential these gifts are for the life of the soul and spirit.

Have a blessed week!

What Can One Person Do?

People say, “What good can one person do? What is the sense of our small effort?”

They cannot see that we must lay one brick at a time.

We can be responsible only for the one action of the present moment.

But we can beg for an increase of love in our hearts that will vitalize and transform all our individual actions, and know that God will take them and multiply them as Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes.

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.”
~Luke 11: 9

I have been spending a great deal of time this summer with children. As I care for my grandchildren and watch their visiting friends, I observe that children often repeat requests many times. Sometimes it is because the adult they ask is focused on something or someone else; sometimes it is because they believe that repetition will improve their chances of getting the desired response. The children have it right.

The passage above confirms that persistence in prayer will be rewarded. All we need to do is ask, seek and knock repeatedly as we speak to God in prayer and He will answer us. It is in the nature of a child to repeatedly ask for something; we need to take a lesson from children as well and repeatedly turn to God in prayer.

You can be a disciple: In order to help the children of St. Anne’s Faith Formation program develop their faith, 2 elements are essential: the active involvement of parents and the generosity of parishioners in volunteering to take part in the Faith Formation program. Teens, parents, adults, and retired persons are needed to assist us in our Faith Formation program. Please consider volunteering some of your time and faith to this important discipleship. There are many levels at which you can be involved. Your contribution to your parish and your faith will be a gift to others and to yourself.

Faith Formation Registrations: Registrations continue to trickle in to the Faith Formation office. Please note that as time passes, we may not be able to accommodate your first request for class placement. The number of rooms and teachers available on a given day may not allow your child to be granted your first request. After we determine the number of student requests and teacher and space availability, we will be able to let you know your child’s assignment. These will be mailed out to parents after Labor Day, as we are still recruiting teachers. Classes do not begin until after St. Anne’s Spirit Day.

Faith Formation Office Hours: During the summer months, the Faith Formation staff will be checking into the office on an occasional basis. If you would like to reach us, please e-mail (lbeck@stannesgc.org) or leave a message at 488-1032 and we will get back to you as soon as possible. Have a restful summer.

A Pilgrimage to the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

As you approach the National Shrine you are struck by its beauty and size. Standing next to the campus of Catholic University, the shrine has been a place of pilgrimage and prayer. This basilica is the pre-eminent Marian shrine in the United States. It honors Mary under the title of the Immaculate Conception, the patroness of our country. Built as a medieval church without structural steel beams, framework or columns, it is built entirely of stone, brick, tile and mortar. It’s 65 chapels are filled with beautiful mosaics, sculptures and art.

On Saturday, September 24th you have an opportunity to experience this beautiful basilica as part of our Diocesan pilgrimage for the Year of Mercy. Saint Anne’s is offering a bus for our parishioners. The bus will leave St. Anne’s at 5:45AM and return after the closing Mass at 4:15PM. We will have the opportunity to walk through the Holy Door and receive a plenary indulgence for this Year of Mercy.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.”

Many times in the gospels the disciples watched as Jesus prayed. In today’s gospel they want to pray as he does, “Lord, teach us to pray!” What follows is the pattern of Jesus’ own prayer, what we call the Our Father. In an early (probably second century) writing in the Church, the Didache, The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles, the first “commandment” is about prayer: to pray the Our Father “as the Lord bid us in his gospel”. It bids us to pray the Our Father three times a day! Jesus’ pattern of prayer is praise, intercession, forgiveness, reconciliation and protection. This beautiful prayer, always at the hearts of Christians, teaches us to ask, seek, knock. This week pray the Our Father three times a day, just like the early Christians, morning, noon and night!

Readings for the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23
Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11
Luke 12:13-21

Mercy... Mercy Question of the Week
Prayer is described as dialogue with God. What will you ask of God this week? As you move through the week how can you praise, thank and ask God for help?

RCIA

Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith?

Perhaps you have been thinking about becoming a baptized member of the Catholic Church, perhaps you have been baptized a Christian and now would like to become a member of the Catholic Church, perhaps you have not received all the Sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, then perhaps the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is for you!

The RCIA is a process, a journey of faith. It is about people, people on the move, people being remade in the image of Christ and reborn in the Spirit, people on a journey toward faith. Through this gradual, and comprehensive process individuals are trained in the Christian way of life, come to know Jesus Christ through the Catholic community and learn to live as Jesus’ disciples, continuing the mission of Jesus Christ in the world today.

Does this sound like what you are seeking? Do you know anyone who is seeking the Catholic faith? Please contact Sister Judy at Saint Anne’s Parish Office (352-5904) or srjudy@stannesgc.org for more information. RCIA meetings begin in October.

There are pamphlets in the lobby of the church, Five Reasons to Consider the Catholic Church and What Can the Church Offer Me?. Please take one for yourself or to pass on to someone you know who might be ready for the RCIA.
Saint James, Apostle
July 25

On Monday, July 25th we honor the brother of the Apostle John, one of the “Sons of Thunder” who were witnesses of some of Jesus’ greatest signs: the raising of the daughter of Jairus, the Transfiguration, the agony in the Garden. James was the first of the apostles to be martyred and the only one to have his death recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. (He is not to be confused with the other apostle James who became the first bishop of Jerusalem and is thought to be the author of the Letter of James in the New Testament.)

According to legend, his friends carried his body away in a rudderless boat that drifted all the way to Spain. Centuries later a great cathedral was built over the place of his burial – Santiago de Compostela. Compostela became a place of pilgrimage in the Middle Ages. To this day, hundreds of thousands of pilgrims make their way along the Camino de Santiago to venerate the relics of Saint James. Perhaps you have seen the movie, “The Way” with Martin Sheen about this walking pilgrimage across Spain.

St. James is depicted in art dressed as a pilgrim with a scallop shell on his hat, the way pilgrims to Compostela dress.

The Lot for Tots Eagle Project

Hi, my name is Ryan Malloy. I am a lifelong member of our parish, a graduate of St. Anne’s School and a Life Scout in our Boy Scout Troop, 134. The lot behind the school has been in need of refurbishing for quite some time. I remember how happy I was riding the tricycles in the back of the building when I was in Nursery school and wishing I still could while putting the toys away for the children each day when I was in eighth grade. For my Eagle project, I hope to clean, repair, refresh and paint the area. This project will bring much happiness to the children and teachers, as well as set an example to previous, current and future students of all schools to give back to the people and places which impacted their lives when given the opportunity to do so. As Baden Powell, founder and first Chief Scout of the Boy Scouts of America, once said, “The real way to gain happiness is to give to others.”

In order to accomplish this goal, I really need your assistance. If you would be kind enough to donate to this project or have any knowledge or expertise that could help facilitate its completion, I would greatly appreciate any help you can offer.

Checks may be made payable to St. Anne’s Church and sent to the parish office at 35 Dartmouth St. Garden City, NY 11530. Please indicate that your donation is for the “Lot for Tots Eagle Project.” If you have any advice, suggestions or questions you may email me at lot4tots@gmail.com.

Thank you very much for your time and I am sincerely grateful for your support.
WOMEN AND SPIRIT: Catholic Sisters in America

On Tuesday, August 2\textsuperscript{nd} we are happy to present the DVD Women & Spirit in the cafeteria at 7:00PM. Come to learn the story of American women religious.

Women & Spirit was produced in 2011 by the Leadership Conference of Women religious. It chronicles the lives of women who, since their arrival in America nearly 300 years ago, have endured periods of struggle and controversy while establishing schools, hospitals, and colleges and providing other social services that have served millions, even today.

Meet women who corresponded with President Thomas Jefferson, nursed on the battlefields of the Civil War, created health insurance for Midwestern loggers, cared for the sick in epidemics, helped in the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous, marched with civil rights leaders, and are on the front lines today addressing global crises.

As always on our movie nights, we need to know how many chairs to set up and how much “popcorn” to get. Please call the parish office at 352-5904 to let us know if you are coming or email Sister Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org for more information.
