Feast of Saint Anne – July 26th

Last Tuesday, July 26th we celebrated our parish feast day in honor of Saint Anne at the 9:00 Mass with refreshments in the cafeteria after the Mass.

Deacon George Browne and Theresa with Robert Weigel who composed the beautiful hymn we sang, “Saint, Anne, Our Parish Patron”

Enjoying refreshments and each other!
Dear Parishioners,

August has arrived; the past weeks have been hot and humid; political party conventions are done; college students are beginning to plan for their return to school; college freshman are excited and a little apprehensive; August often flies by as it leads to Labor Day.

St. Anne’s anticipates Spirit Day and planning is well underway. Spirit Day leadership has met; sponsor boards adorn the parking lot; Big Bucks sales are at about 300 tickets and we anticipate another $25,000 winner on September 17. We welcome your help. Security, advertisement, assisting with events, selling Big Bucks tickets; all of Spirit Day is coordinated and staffed by parish volunteers. Many long time parishioners have been staffing Spirit Day for many years. Spirit Day began with Fr. John and a team of young and enthusiastic parents who became very dedicated to this annual day of community, worship, fun, and fundraising. It is a great way for parents and families to get involved as a volunteer at the parish. Call and leave me a message if you would like to volunteer and we will get back to you (352-5904) and leave a message for Fr. Tom.

SUNDAY READINGS

A word often used these days is control; often it is not used in a positive way. A spouse who “controls” another spouse often experiences jealousy which is linked to the other’s resentment. Teenagers become sneaky if they feel a lack of freedom because of controlling parents. Many relationships end with bitterness if there is a struggle to control.

In the workplace a controlling boss will lead to unhappy workers. This kind of control can lead to fear and gossip. Managers and coaches need to find a right balance between their rightful task and having players who feel they cannot be themselves because of an overbearing coach.

Interestingly, some people’s understanding of God describes God as a God who controls. As a child, I often thought of God this way and it led me to some pretty crazy ideas and notions about God. Perhaps it may be more complex to begin our understanding of God as a God who loves; but beginning with the God of love, I think brings us closer to the truth and recognizes the truth of scripture.

Today’s readings assure us that “control” is not a hallmark of authentic human life. In the first reading Ecclesiastes proclaims, “All things are vanity.” The reading speaks of labor, wisdom, knowledge, skill, property, toil, anxiety, sorrow, grief, and a restless mind. All of us can identify with these experiences. For the writer, experienced alone by themselves, these experiences will grow meaningless and crumble. The difference is faith.

We are here today because we are persons of faith. Our faith, our belief in God, our relationship with Jesus, our acceptance and reception of the Holy Spirit brings meaning to all we do. So parents labor to provide for their children whom they receive as gifts from the Lord. Our wisdom is drawn from the inspired words of Scripture. Our knowledge allows us to be good stewards who use well all the gifts of the human personality and the beauties of creation. Our skills are gifts from the Lord. Our anxiety, grief, and sorrow remind us of the sometimes fragile nature of human living and how we require not only the love and compassion of God, but of one another. Our restless minds can find some peace in prayer. Faith informs all our lives. Without faith, vanity abounds.

The gospel identifies a real hindrance to the life of faith. I think this gospel can be approached in many ways. As I read it for the third time this week, before offering this commentary, I saw in this gospel Jesus’ caution about the kind of self-centeredness that is such a formidable obstacle to growth in faith.

Often in the Sunday readings there is a connection between the first reading and the gospel. The self-centeredness described in the gospel is the kind of vanity described in the first reading. In the parable that Jesus offers the rich man has a strong focus on the first person pronoun I. He wonders what he will do. He develops his strategy. He plans for the future. He anticipates his enjoyment and contentment. The parable concludes on a frightful note. “You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you.” His plans fall apart.

I wonder if it is true that most persons need to go through this experience of self-centeredness of planning for themselves, charting for their future, achieving goals, amassing goods, all signs of a possible self-centeredness. But then something happens, hopefully in young adulthood. A goal is not met easily; struggle ensues.

A person falls in love and marries; new responsibilities are recognized and accountability becomes more real. A career disappointment seems unfair and a new path with new risks is called for. A new child makes one a parent and the new mom or dad realizes the pressing need for selflessness, but how rewarding is that realization.

For the believing person the growth from self-centeredness to thinking about others, to selflessness, to self-sacrifice is often the sign that the faith journey has indeed become real and personal. God is there for me. God is my companion who loves, strengthens, forgives, and guides. The Church is there to help and assist, a place where I can pray, worship, join in community, and serve others. The sacraments are moments of grace to help me find my way.

Truly self-centeredness gives way to maturity and faith. And we learn, we are not in control.

Enjoy a blessed week!

Fa. Tom

Make Me an Instrument

Make me, O Lord, an instrument of Thy love, that I may bring comfort to those who sorrow and joy to those who are regarded as persons of little account. In this country of many races, make me courteous to those who are humble and understanding to those who are resentful. Teach me what I should be to those who are arrogant or cruel, for I do not know. And as for me myself, make me more joyful than I am, especially if this is needed for the sake of others. Let me remember many experiences of joy and thankfulness, especially those that endure. And may I this coming day do some work of peace for Thee.

Divorced and Separated Catholics is a group which provides friendship, prayer and support to those who are presently working through or have experienced divorce or separation. Please call 488-1032 for the location of the next scheduled meeting during the summer months.
“In a heart possessed by riches, there is not much space for faith. Everything is occupied by riches: there is no place for faith. If instead one allows God his rightful place, that is, first, then his love also leads to sharing the wealth, putting riches at the service of charitable and development projects.”
~Pope Francis, May 2, 2014

This says exactly what Jesus illustrated in today’s parable. The delight we receive from our possessions on earth is momentary and not the goal for which we should be striving. Our eternal reward is in heaven. Let’s strive to keep our goal in mind and to express it in prayer.

St. Anne’s Needs You:
It is that time of year when we in the Faith Formation office begin to panic. We are desperately in need of volunteers to teach classes for our youngsters. Please consider volunteering what time you have available. Teens, parents, adults, and retired persons are needed to assist us in our Faith Formation program. Please consider volunteering some of your time and faith to this important discipleship. There are many levels at which you can be involved. Your contribution to your parish and your faith will be a gift to others and to yourself. Call Lyn Beck at 488-1032 or e-mail lbeck@stannesgc.org with any questions. We would love to have you involved.

Faith Formation Registrations:
Registrations continue to trickle in to the Faith Formation office. Please note that as time passes, we may not be able to accommodate your first request for class placement. The number of rooms and teachers available on a given day may not allow your child to be granted your first request. After we determine the number of student requests and teacher and space availability, we will be able to let you know your child’s assignment. These will be mailed out to parents after Labor Day, as we are still recruiting teachers. Classes do not begin until after St. Anne’s Spirit Day.

Faith Formation Office Hours:
During the summer months, the Faith Formation staff will be checking into the office on an occasional basis. If you would like to reach us, please e-mail (lbeck@stannesgc.org) or leave a message at 488-1032 and we will get back to you as soon as possible. Have a restful summer.

As you approach the National Shrine you are struck by its beauty and size. Standing next to the campus of Catholic University, the shrine has been a place of pilgrimage and prayer. This basilica is the pre-eminent Marian shrine in the United States. It honors Mary under the title of the Immaculate Conception, the patroness of our country. Built as a medieval church without structural steel beams, framework or columns, it is built entirely of stone, brick, tile and mortar. It’s 65 chapels are filled with beautiful mosaics, sculptures and art.

On Saturday, September 24th you have an opportunity to experience this beautiful basilica as part of our Diocesan pilgrimage for the Year of Mercy. Saint Anne’s is offering a bus for our parishioners. The bus will leave St. Anne’s at 5:45AM and return after the closing Mass at 4:15PM. We will have the opportunity to walk through the Holy Door and receive a plenary indulgence for this Year of Mercy.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP
Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.”

Over the past years we have seen the many storage unit buildings going up all over. Sometimes these units are used to store our things while we are renovating or moving away for a time, and sometimes for just our excess things that we can’t seem part with. Today’s gospel teaches us a lesson about what we value as security. Prudently providing for our future is responsible planning that we all must do but Jesus challenges us further to place our security in God alone, not just in possessions. Perhaps we are challenged to look at all that we possess and store and begin to change the way we live so that that our priorities, not our possessions, are evident.

Readings for the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Wisdom 18:6-9
Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Mercy Question of the Week
When did possessions become too important in your life?
Ask yourself what possessions you can live without.
Once you decide, give away what you don’t need to someone who does need them.

Feast of Saint Dominic – August 8th

This year marks the 800th anniversary of the Order of Preachers, the Dominicans. The Order was founded by Saint Dominic de Guzman in Prouille, France. Dominic, a canon from Calaruega, Spain was traveling with his bishop through the south of France and came to learn about the Albigensian heresy which was followed in that part of France. The followers of this heresy believed in a good spirit who created the spiritual, and in an evil spirit who created the material world, including the human body, which is therefore under his control. The good spirit created the soul but the evil one imprisoned it in the body, which is evil from its source. To deliver souls from this evil and punishment, the good spirit, God sent Jesus Christ who they claimed is only a creature. Since the body is evil he could assume only a celestial one. They commended suicide especially by starvation and in general, the extinction of human life, and advocated abstention from marriage. Dominic spent many years in this part of France preaching and teaching against this heresy. In 1206 he gathered some women in Prouille to pray and form a community and in time he gathered friars in Toulouse. In 1216 Pope Honorius III officially recognized the Order of Preachers. At that time the idea of a mendicant itinerant order was a new concept. Dominic wanted his friars to be well educated for their preaching ministry and sent them to the best universities at the time in Paris, Bologna and Rome. But Dominic wanted them to remember as he sent them off preaching to place their trust in God – “Go in peace for the Lord will give you the gift of preaching, you will want for nothing!”

WOMEN AND SPIRIT: Catholic Sisters in America

On Tuesday, August 2\textsuperscript{nd} we are happy to present the DVD Women & Spirit in the cafeteria at 7:00PM. Come to learn the story of American women religious.

Women & Spirit was produced in 2011 by the Leadership Conference of Women religious. It chronicles the lives of women who, since their arrival in America nearly 300 years ago, have endured periods of struggle and controversy while establishing schools, hospitals, and colleges and providing other social services that have served millions, even today.

Meet women who corresponded with President Thomas Jefferson, nursed on the battlefields of the Civil War, created health insurance for Midwestern loggers, cared for the sick in epidemics, helped in the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous, marched with civil rights leaders, and are on the front lines today addressing global crises.

As always on our movie nights, we need to know how many chairs to set up and how much “popcorn” to get. Please call the parish office at 352-5904 to let us know if you are coming or email Sister Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org for more information.
The Lot for Tots Eagle Project

- Have you ever attended school at St. Anne’s?
- Do you know anyone who attended school here?
- Does seeing children play or hearing them laugh make you smile?
- Do you enjoy going outside sometimes for some fresh air?
- At any point in time were you ever a child?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, I would like to invite you to be part of something special...

Hi, my name is Ryan Malloy. I am a lifelong member of our parish, a graduate of St. Anne’s School and a Life Scout in our Boy Scout Troop, 134. The lot behind the school has been in need of refurbishing for quite some time. I remember how happy I was riding the tricycles in the back of the building when I was in Nursery school and wishing I still could while putting the toys away for the children each day when I was in eighth grade. For my Eagle project, I hope to clean, repair, refresh and paint the area. This project will bring much happiness to the children and teachers, as well as set an example to previous, current and future students of all schools to give back to the people and places which impacted their lives when given the opportunity to do so. As Baden Powell, founder and first Chief Scout of the Boy Scouts of America, once said, “The real way to gain happiness is to give to others.”

In order to accomplish this goal, I really need your assistance. If you would be kind enough to donate to this project or have any knowledge or expertise that could help facilitate its completion, I would greatly appreciate any help you can offer.

Checks may be made payable to St. Anne’s Church and sent to the parish office at 35 Dartmouth St. Garden City, NY 11530. Please indicate that your donation is for the “Lot for Tots Eagle Project.” If you have any advice, suggestions or questions you may email me at lot4tots@gmail.com.

Thank you very much for your time and I am sincerely grateful for your support.
