All Are Welcome!

We welcome new members to join our parish family. Please contact the parish office. We also welcome any adult who was never baptized, baptized non-Catholics or those seeking to receive First Eucharist or Confirmation to become a full participant in the Catholic Church.
Families in Service Spring Planting Event

Families with young children gathered in the cafeteria last Sunday, June 5th to fill planters with beautiful spring flowers and a thoughtful notecard. After pausing to pray together with gratitude for blessings shared, these lovely planters were delivered by the families to 20 senior and homebound parishioners. The seniors were delighted to meet their young visitors and will enjoy the flowers all summer long. Many thanks to all who participated!

Saint Anne’s Families in Services Ministry coordinates several events each year which give parents and young children the opportunity to work together to serve those in need. In addition to Spring Planting, we make sandwiches and deliver them to the INN and various parish outreach centers, as well as Halloween and Easter goody bags for the Nassau County Office of Social Services. We also visit our senior and homebound parishioners in December and sing Christmas carols for them. New families are always welcome to join us! For more information or to volunteer at future events, please contact Shannon Kolenik at shannon.kolenik@gmail.com.
Dear Parishioners,

The faith formation of children is among the most important responsibilities of a parish. Of course, the primary duty for faith formation rests with parents. Parishes, in their various ministries, are charged with assisting parents in this role. In the ritual for Baptism, one of the prayers addresses parents concerning the seriousness of the obligation of moms and dads to "raise their children in the practice of our faith." In fact, parents at Baptism promise to do just that.

Two primary ways by which our parish assists parents in their duty of faith formation is through the parish school and parish faith formation ministry. Leadership of both ministries is changing. As announced in the parish bulletin many weeks ago, Dr. William O'Sullivan is retiring as St. Anne's School Principal after ten years of service. This Friday our Home School Association is sponsoring a thank you farewell to "Dr. O." The invitation is on the cover of the bulletin. Please join us if you are able to express gratitude to a man who has been a blessing to all our parish school families. He has led us as a man of faith, truly committed to his ministry as a Catholic school principal and as a husband, dad, and grandfather.

Two weeks ago, our Faith Formation Director Lyn Beck shared with me her intention to retire. Lyn shares this decision with you on page 6 of this bulletin. As Lyn indicates, she has come to this important personal decision after much prayer and discussion with her family. As is clear to all who know Lyn and have worked with her, Lyn has brought zeal, dedication, love, and commitment to all her efforts as Faith Formation Director. Lyn loves her faith and loves the Parish of St. Anne. Lyn grew up here on Dartmouth Street, is a graduate of our parish school and having returned to St. Anne's several years ago, has been tireless in her ministry of leading the Faith Formation program.

Under Lyn’s leadership, many new efforts have been added to the Faith Formation ministry. Parents have become more involved in the sacramental preparation of second and eighth graders for Baptism and Confirmation. New catechists have joined the effort and the class Mass and reconciliation experience have been enhanced. Lyn, along with her assistant Tricia Brodersen have led a large team effort to assist parents in their faith formation duty.

As her predecessor and friend Kate Kern has remained an active participant in life here at St. Anne’s, so I am sure Lyn will continue to be a very familiar face in various ministries of our parish. Such is the strength of Lyn’s faith and the love of her parish. We will be expressing gratitude to Lyn for her ministry as Faith Formation director; we will not be saying farewell!

Changes in leadership always provide challenges. When people retire and new leaders are identified, we often realize how much work our retiring leaders have done. When leaders of such critical and vibrant ministries as our parish school and faith formation ministry retire, the identification of new leaders, involves identifying present strengths, present challenges, and opportunities for growth. When Dr. O’Sullivan retired a committee was established and rather quickly, a candidate for principal emerged. Without much delay, the committee unanimously recommended to me Mr. Gene Fennell, who after 32 years at Holy Trinity Diocesan High School, was himself looking for a new challenge and opportunity. This past week Mr. Fennell made an informal visit to the school, accompanied by “Dr. O.” Our children extended an incredibly warm welcome to the person who will begin his ministry as school principal in September.

Faith Formation of our parish children who attend our excellent local public schools involves close to 1000 children and over 500 parish families. Our own parish school and these local public schools are part of very traditional structures that govern early childhood, elementary, middle school, and junior high education. Curriculum, standards, teaching methods, parent involvement, student behavior are clear, although still dynamic. Changes in how schools operate often provoke debate; i.e. "Common Core."

I believe Faith Formation continues to evolve. Faith Formation programs are very different than school programs. Traditionally, students meet weekly, not daily. Volunteer parents and teachers serve as catechists. Students participate after a full day of school. As it is for all families, the obligatory practice of Sunday Mass is often not realized.

The resources for Faith Formation are great. Families want their children be formed in our faith. Students want to understand Jesus better. Parishioners are so very generous in volunteering as catechists to pass their faith to children. Here at St. Anne’s our school building is in great shape. Our Sunday Family Mass is growing with dozens of young families participating each week during the school year. Families love our First Communion Masses and Confirmation Mass. People thirst for more regarding their faith.

As we seek new leadership for our Faith Formation program, we are considering new ways of providing leadership. Lyn Beck and other staff members and parishioners are part of conversations as we explore leadership possibilities for Faith Formation. Because Faith Formation in many ways follows elements of a school model, a lot of responsibility traditionally falls on an individual leader identified by the title Faith Formation Director. As we move forward with our Faith Formation ministry, I wonder if we can find a way of sharing some of the responsibilities by identifying additional leaders. Perhaps identifying additional leaders can help make Faith Formation a ministry that includes more of the parish. Of course, the goal is to enhance the experience of the students and their families. Fortunately, Lyn is with us to help evaluate some ideas being considered. As these possibilities take shape, the conversation will include additional catechists and parents. Share with me ideas you may have: tharold@drvc.org

Sincerely in Christ,

Fa. Tony

Father's Day Project - Thank You for Your Support

Each year for Father's Day, Saint Anne's Loaves and Fishes Ministry provides travel bags filled with personal items and toiletries for the men who are temporarily residing at Saint Anthony's House or Dismas House, both located on Long Island and run by the St. Vincent DePaul Society. This effort actively demonstrates our concern and compassion for men who are trying to make a new start in their lives after being released from prison or recovering from substance abuse issues. We are grateful to all who have assisted with this special collection.

Any items remaining after our delivery to these residences will be brought to our neighboring parish outreach centers to help fathers in need. Once again, thank you for your support and consideration for men who are hoping to move forward in their lives and could use some assistance with basic needs. Any extra donations should be labeled “Father’s Day” and place in the right side of the Loaves and Fishes closets which are in the left rear of the Church and open from 7:30AM-2:30PM. For any questions, or to be of help with this effort please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.

If you’re struggling with something and not sure where to turn, Saint Anne’s Parish provides confidential support and assistance. Serious illness, economic problems, marital difficulties, mental health concerns and coping with caring for those who are ill or elderly are issues we may all face at different times in our lives. If you would like to know more, please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.

Share-A-Meal

Saint Anne’s Share-A-Meal program offers parishioners the opportunity to reach out and help persons in need by preparing a meal for them. A simple act, cooking dinner for someone who is not able to do so, but one that offers a great message of support. Parishioners who participate in Share-A-Meal offer to prepare a meal on an occasional basis, perhaps once a month, depending upon their availability.

The families who receive these meals are truly grateful. More than food alone, the message being delivered is that there are parishioners who care and are willing to give of themselves in reaching out to help.

Summertime Cooks Especially Needed!

Do you have some extra time during the summer months? Even if you cannot commit to cooking all year, we would love to have you assist during the summer. Our regular cooks need a vacation, but the need for meals does not lessen. Can you help? Please contact Christina Byrnes at cbyrnes1313@gmail.com or Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904 to volunteer.

“Your faith has served you; go in peace.”
~Luke 7: 50

On so many occasions throughout the gospels, Jesus forgives people for their sins. In today’s gospel it is the woman who shows Jesus her sorrow and love who is forgiven. Last week’s gospel showed Jesus taking pity on a woman who wept in sorrow as she walked behind the coffin of her son. In the upper room, Jesus gave his Apostles, who were mourning His loss, the power to forgive sins. Doubting Thomas, Mary Magdelene, Zaccheus were all forgiven and grew in their love for Jesus.

Jesus is always willing to forgive us as well. All we need to do is show our sorrow and love. Why not find some time each day to tell Jesus you love Him as much as He loves you?

Volunteers Needed
In order to offer to the children of St. Anne’s parish meaningful and safe Faith Formation instruction, we depend on the generosity and leadership of our parish members. Young or older than young, experienced or newbies, willing to offer a lot or a little, we are always in need of volunteers. If you have the slightest curiosity about helping in this most worthwhile of faith endeavors, please e-mail or call Lyn Beck. We won’t ask for more than you are willing to offer and we can guarantee you the support you might need. Thank you for considering this discipleship.

A Note from Lyn Beck
It has been a pleasure and a blessing to share the faith journeys of the young families of St. Anne’s parish. Whether preparing children for their sacraments, teaching classes, answering parents’ questions or collaborating with the dedicated teachers in the program, I have been graced by these last 6 years.

After much prayer and discussion with my family, I have decided to retire as Faith Formation director at St. Anne’s. My family has grown over these past years, adding 5 grandchildren and 2 nieces, and I look forward to spending more time with them.

I am very grateful for my experiences. I would like to thank Father John and Father Tom, who gave me this opportunity, the staff of the parish, who have always been so caring and supportive, the families of our students, who have shared their faith, and the children, who have grown in love for God. I would especially like to express my admiration for the volunteer teachers and aides who so generously shared their faith, time, talent, and creativity with the children and with me. Additionally, my colleague, Tricia Brodersen, made the mechanics and day to day operations of the office an effortless task.

St. Anne’s has always been my parish home. My faith has been enhanced by the many interactions I have been able to share with parishioners through the Ministry of Consolation, Divorced and Separated Catholics, and other ministries, as well as in prayer together. I intend to continue celebrating my faith in St. Anne’s and, again, thank you all for your support these past years.

Gratefully,
Lyn Beck
LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Her many sins have been forgiven because she has shown great love.”

Who doesn’t like an invitation to dinner? When we invite someone to dine in our home we do everything we can to make the person comfortable and welcomed. In today’s gospel Jesus is invited to the home of a pharisee and the very basic signs of welcome are ignored. One wonders why he was invited…was it to watch him and catch him in what he said? The woman in the story must have noticed this lack of hospitality and respect. She washes Jesus’ feet with her tears, dries them with her hair and anoints them with precious ointment. She is moved to tears by this lack of respect for him. Her sins were already forgiven. What Jesus does is to acknowledge that the woman’s love witnesses to the fact of forgiveness. The woman’s faith saved her just as the lack of faith of the pharisees around the table keeps them from love. At times we are so wrapped up in our own needs that we miss the needs of others. One way to live out this gospel is to practice every day reaching out to others with a simple act of kindness or hospitality. We can discover the goodness and worth of others and together be transformed.

Mercy Question of the Week
When have you felt forgiven by a merciful God?
Who do you need to forgive right now?
How will you do this?
Perhaps you have been thinking about becoming a baptized member of the Catholic Church, perhaps you have been baptized a Christian and now would like to become a member of the Catholic Church, perhaps you have not received all the Sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, then perhaps the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is for you!

The RCIA is a process, a journey of faith. It is about people, people on the move, people being remade in the image of Christ and reborn in the Spirit, people on a journey toward faith. Through this gradual, and comprehensive process individuals are trained in the Christian way of life, come to know Jesus Christ through the Catholic community and learn to live as Jesus’ disciples, continuing the mission of Jesus Christ in the world today.

Does this sound like what you are seeking? Do you know anyone who is seeking the Catholic faith? Please contact Sister Judy at Saint Anne’s Parish Office (352-5904) or srjudy@stannesgc.org for more information. RCIA meetings begin in October.

There are pamphlets in the lobby of the church, Five Reasons to Consider the Catholic Church and What Can the Church Offer Me?. Please take one for yourself or to pass on to someone you know who might be ready for the RCIA.

Do You Know What’s Dwelling in Your Child’s Phone?

By Margaret Ochoa, J.D.

You are a good parent. You diligently check your 13-year-old’s phone each day to be sure of her cyber-responsibility and safety. You know the signs—you are on the lookout for adults texting her, fishing her Instagram account, or otherwise engaging her inappropriately. You are aware that one in seven kids who use the Internet receive sexual solicitations. You read her comments to see that she isn’t providing personal information, and verify that her settings keep her accounts private. You run through her photo stream to make sure she isn’t lacking judgment about the appropriateness of her selfies and those of her friends.

But wait. Are you missing anything?

Did you know there are a multitude of apps that can be loaded onto an iPhone or Android to hide photographs? Let that settle in for a minute. A 13-year-old you know could be holding a smartphone full of graphic photos, and despite vigilant daily checks, you wouldn't have the slightest clue. Just such a realization struck dozens of families in Colorado.

Canon City High School's Woes

A sexting scandal occurred at a small southern Colorado high school. With around 1,000 students enrolled, school officials at Canon City High School were stunned when their close-knit community was hit with the news that potentially hundreds of students were carrying graphic photos on their phones.

The school district and the local police chief worked together to determine what happened. Cell phones that were voluntarily released revealed that perhaps hundreds of photos were in circulation. Some were taken on campus when students were engaged in school activities.

Enough students were involved in the matter—some described it as a contest to collect the most “nudies”—that the coaching staff forfeited the final football game of the season. They thought they couldn’t field a full team of players if they couldn’t play students who were implicated. Additionally, they were uneasy about how the team would represent the community in light of the scandal. This decision wasn’t made lightly. The forfeited game was the final in league play—just before playoffs.

The investigation at the high school took weeks to complete. A few things were immediately apparent, however. Both boys and girls engaged in the behavior. There are kids as young as middle school age who circulated pictures, and students as old as 18 also involved. Officials also had to determine whether other adults were implicated in the activity, whether children were coerced into being photographed, and whether sexual contact occurred. Law enforcement also found that there were ghost apps hiding in the kids’ phones, which concealed explicit photos.

In Colorado, the possession of explicit photos of minors is a felony. The law in your jurisdiction might differ, but know that the behavior is illegal in every state. The law is designed to protect children, however, it is a conundrum when those in possession of child porn are actually minors themselves. Deciphering victimization in this age of smartphones is complicated. The school superintendent and police chief in this case stated their desire to get help to the kids who need it and deal with potential suspects "in a way that makes sense."

What's the takeaway?

- A couple of kids did some smart things. One told a trusted adult at the school. Another reported to an anonymous safety tip line available to school kids in Colorado called Safe2Tell. Adults should reinforce the good choices of these kids in “what if” scenarios so that youth have tools and know how to communicate in advance if something inappropriate does occur. Reporting protects kids, and they need a safe place or person with whom to report.

The Lot for Tots Eagle Project

- Have you ever attended school at St. Anne’s?
- Do you know anyone who attended school here?
- Does seeing children play or hearing them laugh make you smile?
- Do you enjoy going outside sometimes for some fresh air?
- At any point in time were you ever a child?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, I would like to invite you to be part of something special...

Hi, my name is Ryan Malloy. I am a lifelong member of our parish, a graduate of St. Anne’s School and a Life Scout in our Boy Scout Troop, 134. The lot behind the school has been in need of refurbishing for quite some time. I remember how happy I was riding the tricycles in the back of the building when I was in Nursery school and wishing I still could while putting the toys away for the children each day when I was in eighth grade. For my Eagle project, I hope to clean, repair, refresh and paint the area. This project will bring much happiness to the children and teachers, as well as set an example to previous, current and future students of all schools to give back to the people and places which impacted their lives when given the opportunity to do so. As Baden Powell, founder and first Chief Scout of the Boy Scouts of America, once said, “The real way to gain happiness is to give to others.”

In order to accomplish this goal, I really need your assistance. If you would be kind enough to donate to this project or have any knowledge or expertise that could help facilitate its completion, I would greatly appreciate any help you can offer.

Checks may be made payable to St. Anne’s Church and sent to the parish office at 35 Dartmouth St. Garden City, NY 11530. Please indicate that your donation is for the “Lot for Tots Eagle Project.” If you have any advice, suggestions or questions you may email me at lot4tots@gmail.com.

Thank you very much for your time and I am sincerely grateful for your support.

- Look for suspicious apps on your children’s phones. There are a multitude of private photo vaults available in both the iTunes App Store and Play Store. Many are free. A few to beware of are Private Photo Vault, Gallery Lock Lite, Best Secret Folder, KeepSafe, KYMS, Vaulty, and PhotoVault. Almost all require a PIN or password for entry. They are sneaky, because that’s the point. KYMS, for example, appears, as a calculator icon once loaded. Others lurk behind a “My Utilities,” clock or game icon. Some are so sophisticated they take a snapshot of anyone who attempts to enter the app with an inaccurate password, so the phone user knows who tried to “break in.”

- If you have the responsibility of monitoring a youth’s phone, keep a tight grip on access apps on the phones of the kids in your care. You can prevent your own children from loading them by using parental controls set up through Apple’s Family Sharing plan or Google’s Restricted User functions. Sharing an account will allow you to prevent anything from being loaded without your knowledge. Go to those sites to see how to set it up. Yes, it’s inconvenient and yes, the kids might be irritated. However, children have no right to privacy when it comes to your supervision and protection of them. You must act to keep them safe.
The Stained Glass Memorial to honor the Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Mary is finally complete. The plaque has been installed. It reads:

“That all may have life”
To honor the ministry of the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary
at St. Anne’s School and Parish
1950-2008

This stained glass window from the St. Anne Convent Chapel has been reclaimed and displayed through the work of the Eagle Scout Project of Michael McGoldrick, Boy Scout Troop 134 and the generosity of the parishioners and friends of St. Anne’s Church.

I would like to thank all those who helped me to complete this project.

First, I would like to thank Fr. Tom for allowing me the opportunity to do this amazing project. I would like to thank Sr. Judy for her guidance and assistance, especially for inviting the Sisters here to see the window.

To the parishioners of St. Anne’s who generously donated to my project, your response to my request was incredible. Your generosity helped provide for the materials needed for the light box and the professional installation of the stained glass window. Many of you spoke to me and expressed your encouragement and love for the Sisters.

I would also like to thank the many professionals who donated their time and labor to install electricity, remove the water fountain, cap the plumbing and clean and prepare the stained glass. A special thanks to Mr. John Balsamo, a Scout Leader, contractor and parishioner, who assisted with the building and installation of the light box.

This project could not have been completed without the help of my fellow Boy Scouts and leaders, who answered my call to build, paint and transport the light box to St. Anne’s. I would also like to thank the Pastoral Staff at the rectory and custodial staff at St. Anne’s especially Mrs. Mary Lou Engrassia and Mr. Jim Stiehl for their time and assistance throughout this entire project. Finally, I need to offer special thanks to my family and friends for their time, encouragement and support throughout my Eagle Scout project.

I hope this Stained Glass Memorial will be a continuing remembrance and help us to continue to keep the lifework, love and dedication of the Sisters lit in our hearts for many years to come.

Yours in Scouting,
Michael I. McGoldrick
