Dear Parishioners,

Happy Fathers Day! I hope that the day is a relaxing one for all and that our dads feel the love and appreciation of their children. In the Fathers Day Novena of Mass, we will be remembering both living and deceased dads.

Many students choose to spend time abroad during their college years. One of our parishioners, Robert McCarthy, a student at the University of Virginia spent time this past spring semester in Rwanda. What appears below is a reflection that Robert first prepared for America magazine. Robert is the son of Deacon Bob and Mary Jean McCarthy and is a graduate of St. Anne’s School.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom

ALONE BUT CONNECTED IN RWANDA

While I was studying abroad, my mom and dad, Mary Jean and Bob, were able to meet my mom and dad, Maria and Bosco. That is, my biological mom and dad were able to meet my host mom and dad. During the week they visited me in Rwanda, my parents were treated to a very sincere and genuine hospitality, which included a visit to Maria and Bosco’s new house in the town of Nyamata.

Nyamata is in southeastern Rwanda, about 40 kilometers from Kigali, where I was staying. We visited Nyamata during the day, and by the time we left, the sun had set and the dark night sky greeted us for our drive back. Fils, my host brother, and I sat in the back of the pickup truck, which afforded an incomparable view of the beautiful night sky.

I’ve seen stars before, but seeing stars like these was a first. Initially the stars began to appear slowly. However after my eyes adjusted to the dark, the number of stars seemed to multiply each second. In reality, the number of stars in the sky was steady, but the number I could see was growing exponentially.

After a few moments, I tried to begin to name the stars and constellations. Looking up at each individual star, I silently wondered to myself about the naming of each star. When did it happen? Who named it? And as I was thinking, I began to reflect on the current refugee crisis throughout the world. Allow me to explain.

Whether or not we can see them, like the stars, refugees exist. Also like stars, they exist as individuals but also in relationships. And just like stars, each refugee (and each person for that matter) is beautiful. Constellations remind me of the families that have fled their homelands, individuals but connected.

At my home in Long Island, light pollution prevents me from seeing stars and their unique beauty. Distractions are part of our daily life. The process of stepping back, retreating, is what reminded me that individuals, not numbers, are fleeing war, persecution and violence.

During my study abroad experience, I was able to meet a refugee from Burundi I will call Jon to protect his identity. Through our conversations and friendship, my way of looking at the world has forever shifted. Talking to Jon, who speaks English, French, Swahili, Kinyarwanda and Kirundi, is humbling. Like me, he has three siblings. He lives with his brother in Rwanda, while his sister still lives in Burundi. His oldest brother lives in Maine with his mom. During college, Jon studied Computer Science. He also dedicated his time to a Christian movement that focused on preaching and teaching by example.

For Jon living as a refugee has been painful. He fled Burundi in April 2015 after hearing that President Pierre Nkurunziza would run for a third term, which violates Burundi’s constitution. Jon believes that the United States has not done enough and should apply more diplomatic force.

While he has been welcomed to Rwanda, leaving Burundi was particularly challenging. When Jon first arrived, he dreamed of when he would return home, especially to his friends and his church. Jon hopes to return to Burundi soon. His girlfriend still lives there, and he hopes to start an NGO that will educate youth. Seeing the challenges of the students, including a lack of resources, Jon always emphasizes how education can help prevent conflicts and allow people to fully flourish.

During my time studying abroad, my privileges have become exceedingly obvious to me. Safety and security, two constants in my life, is what other people dream of. Yet I did nothing to be granted this safety and security; I was just born lucky.

Refugees are a group, but they are also individuals. Refugees are grandparents, students, teachers, engineers and so much more. They are our brothers and sisters. I hope that every time I look up at the night sky I will remember them.

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

LOAVES AND FISHES

The poor have a treasure to offer precisely because they cannot return our favours. By not paying us for what we have done for them, they call us to inner freedom, selflessness, generosity, and true care. Jesus says: “When you have a party, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; then you will be blessed, for they have no means to repay you and so you will be repaid when the upright rise again.” (Luke 14:13-14)

The repayment Jesus speaks about is spiritual. It is the joy, peace, and love of God that we so much desire. This is what the poor give us, not only in the afterlife but already here and now.

~ Henri Nouwen

“If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.”

~Luke 9: 23

I am an admitted Broadway musical fan and one of my favorite musicals is Godspell. One of the songs from this show is “By My Side” which uses the metaphor of walking with Jesus. The singer proclaims that as he “skips the road” with Jesus, he must “dare myself and put a pebble in my shoe and watch me walk.”

That is today’s gospel message. Jesus tells us it is not always easy to be his follower. Along our journey with Jesus we will encounter temptations and difficulties, much like that annoying pebble or the daily crosses of life; but ultimately, by working through them, we will enjoy the reward of being side by side with Jesus each day and in eternity.

Happy Father’s Day to all of our fathers both here and already in Heaven by Jesus’s side.

Volunteers Needed

In order to offer to the children of St. Anne’s parish meaningful and safe Faith Formation instruction, we depend on the generosity and leadership of our parish members. Young or older than young, experienced or newbies, willing to offer a lot or a little, we are always in need of volunteers. If you have the slightest curiosity about helping in this most worthwhile of faith endeavors, please e-mail or call Lyn Beck. We won’t ask for more than you are willing to offer and we can guarantee you the support you might need. Thank you for considering this discipleship.

5th Grade Family Faith Formation Program

Last year at St. Anne’s we initiated a new program for fifth grade students that highlighted the role of the parent in the faith formation program. The program was experimental and voluntary and also included the siblings of the fifth grade students enrolled in the program. We found it to be successful. The components of the program included:

1. One-on-one parent to child instruction
2. Weekly attendance at Sunday Mass
3. 6 to 8 meetings during the year after 8:30 Sunday Mass with parish staff, parents, and students
4. Use of published handbooks and handouts for parental instruction
5. Written journaling and Mass reflections for student and parent
6. Involvement in service efforts

Regular fifth grade classes will occur as usual for families who prefer that program.

For parents wishing to learn more about participating in the program, an informational meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 28 at 6:30 PM. You should attend if you are thinking about this program as an opportunity to become involved. For more information, call or e-mail Lyn Beck (488-1032 or lbeck@stannesgc.org).
After Jesus asked his disciples, “Who do the crowds say that I am?” he asks them a question that you would only ask your closest friends, “But who do you say that I am?” The gospel tells us that Jesus had been in solitude and prayer when he asked this question, a question that came from his prayer. He then reveals that his very identity entails suffering, rejection, death and resurrection. Our prayer is to lead us to a clearer understanding of just who we are as disciples of Jesus, disciples who take up our cross each day and follow. This prayer, this personal encounter with God, helps us to come to a clearer understanding of just who we are and what we must do. Dare we pray? Dare we ask in our prayer, “Who do you say that I am?”

Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist - June 24th

This solemnity celebrates the birth of the greatest of prophets and herald of Jesus, the Messiah. The gospel for this solemnity tells of Elizabeth and Zechariah’s obedience to the angel’s message to name him John. Had they named him after his father he would have belonged to their family lineage. But in obedience to the angel’s message he was not just their son but the precursor of a whole new family of God. John prepared the way of the Lord and revealed Jesus to others as both the Messiah and the Lamb of God. John exemplifies the Christian life as one who proclaims the Gospel message of healing and repentance. He points out Christ to others and humbly says, “He must increase; I must decrease.”

A solemnity holds the highest rank among Church celebrations and there are 24 days so marked on the annual liturgical calendar. It is a day that recalls and glorifies an important event in the life of Jesus and the most significant mysteries of the Catholic Christian faith: Christmas, Epiphany, Easter (the Easter Octaves including Divine Mercy Sunday), Pentecost, Holy Trinity, Ascension, Corpus Christi, Sacred Heart, Christ the King. So, too, honored as a solemnity are the days associated with the Blessed Mother: the Immaculate Conception, the Assumption, the Annunciation and Mary, Mother of God. Some saints are acknowledged with a solemnity: St. Joseph, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, Sts. Peter and Paul and All Saints Day.

Here is a great way to celebrate the Year of Mercy!

Join the many parishioners of the diocese on Saturday, September 24th
Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D.C.

Our Diocese of Rockville Centre will have a pilgrimage to the National Shrine at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception on Saturday, September 24, 2016. Each parish will have a bus for parishioners to travel to the National Shrine. At the shrine we will learn about not only the Basilica but also have a chance to walk through the basilica and admire its great beauty. There will be many opportunities for prayer.

In this Year of Mercy, we also have the opportunity to walk through the Holy Door at the Basilica and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and a Plenary Indulgence.

St. Anne’s will provide a bus for our parishioners to go to the Shrine. The bus will leave St. Anne’s at 5:45AM and return after the closing Mass at 4:15PM. For more information please contact Sister Judy at the Parish Office (352-5904) or at srgudy@stannesgc.org.

Peter Pence Collection
Next week our diocese will take up the Peter’s Pence Collection, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Through your generosity, we can cast the peace of Christ upon the world.

Coffee after 9:00AM Mass Thursday, June 30th
Before those of us who usually attend 9AM Mass take time for summer plans and vacations, we would like to join together for coffee/breakfast. We are planning to meet at Alpine Restaurant on Thursday, June 30th after the 9:00AM Mass. As always, all are invited to join us. If you need a ride, car pooling will be available in front of Church.

Let us pray for those who have died

Senior Scene Closing Luncheon - June 8, 2016

Members of Saint Anne’s Senior Scene celebrated their final meeting of this school year with a delicious hot luncheon. Wednesday afternoons were made special catching up with friends over coffee and cake and playing bingo. It has been a wonderful year highlighted by visits from our third grade friends from St. Anne’s School.

Our thanks to dedicated volunteers, Irene Costabile, Marilyn Fabio, Mary Kostal, Lauren Molloy, Elizabeth Muller and Evelyn Schwantner, who are such a wonderful presence at Senior Scene. Special thanks to our volunteer drivers who made it possible for some of the seniors to be with us and to Phyllis and Vincent Pulidore who man the registration table each week. A visit from Margaret Dueker, our Senior Scene volunteer emeritus, added to the afternoon’s enjoyment! We hope to see everyone in September and new members are always welcome! Please contact Susanne Blum at 352-5904 for any information.
This Fathers Day, please consider those Dads who because of an illness or loss of job are having trouble feeding or sheltering their family?

A crisis can take many forms and strike in an instant. The good news is that because of you, the Catholic Ministries Appeal provides the support necessary for our Parish Outreach and Catholic Charities programs to assist those in their time of greatest need.

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal…Dads like James. James saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. James had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to feel ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family’s rent and utilities bills, James had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family. It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family’s needs and directed them to appropriate resources in his community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that let them make it through the month. James and his family got the help they so desperately needed.

Today, James is back to work and the family is doing well. “I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again,” shared James.

Thank you for considering this special request to make a gift to the 2016 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please know that no gift is too small and every gift makes a difference in the lives of Dads like James and so many others. You may pick up information and pledge cards in the back of the Church, or for more information, visit www.CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-379-5210 ext. 2.

5th Annual Fortnight For Freedom:
Witnesses to Freedom
Designated by the USCCB

Rally for Religious Freedom
Archbishop Lori, Keynote Speaker
June 27, St. John the Baptist H.S.
1170 Montauk Hwy, W. Islip, NY
6:30 p.m. Public Rosary in front of school
7:30 p.m. Rally program in auditorium

As Catholics and Americans, striving to be good and faithful servants, we are called to prosper the gift of free will. To do that, we must learn the meaning of conscience rights and recognize the forces denying that right. We must learn our Constitution’s unique protection of conscience and not passively yield them to placate a secular culture. Only then can we answer every attack on religious liberty in our community, state and country. The deliberate erosion of respect for Christians, for religious practices and deeply held beliefs has brought unimagined and liberty-crushing cultural and political changes.

Would you risk your own life, fortune and sacred honor to defend this right of religious freedom? Would you make it a priority to pray, learn and teach others to love and preserve religious liberty?

Archbishop Chaput has said, “If lay people don’t love their Catholic faith enough to struggle for it in the public square, nothing the Bishops do will finally matter”

Bishop William Murphy points out, “Today we are the witnesses. We will pray and we will speak. We will act together and invite others to join us. Our cause is a cause that is great and a truth that cannot be vanquished.”
