Wednesday Children’s Rosary

On Wednesday afternoons at 2:30, children gather to pray the rosary for the children of the world. They received rosaries, each decade a different color for the continents. They pray the first decade for the children of Africa, the second for the children of the Americas, the third for the children of Asia, the fourth for the children of Australia and the fifth for the children of Europe. Children are welcome to come and pray with us!

First Communion 2016

The last three Saturdays have been joyous ones at Saint Anne’s as we celebrated the First Communions of 143 boys and girls. Please see their names listed on page 12 and enjoy their group photos here, on pages 10 & 11 and on our website, stannesgc.org.
Dear Parishioners,

As we observe Memorial Day, we remember those men and women who gave the ultimate sacrifice of losing their lives in the service of our country. People will be gathering in many different communities to honor these heroes and to show respect and gratitude to surviving family members. As Catholics, we have a particular opportunity to remember those we honor on Memorial Day at our morning Masses. If you are able to join us, beginning Memorial Day with morning Mass is a special way to start this important day for our nation.

Traditionally, Memorial Day also marks the beginning of the summer season. The warmer weather of the past few days suggests that the cold damp days of this spring might finally be over. As the weather brightens and people turn outdoors for summer activities, let's all be wise in following suggestions for safety. Summer is a great time for responsible people to enjoy all the gatherings at beaches and barbecues that this season brings. And as we are so often reminded, drive responsibly and be strong in your encouragement for others to do the same.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Jesus. This Solemnity focuses our attention on the gift of the Eucharist which we celebrate every day at Mass, most especially on Sunday. In addition, this past month we gathered for the First Holy Communion of more than 140 children of the parish. These were great days as we welcomed these children to receive Jesus for the first time in this sacrament. I love First Communion Masses and so much enjoyed the five Masses we had this year. The kids were great. All of them were so reverent and knew exactly what to do. As we observe this Solemnity today and will have the opportunity to adore Jesus in a eucharistic procession, it is a good time for each of us to renew our sense of reverence in receiving holy communion. Reverence is the key word. We join the procession of the communion line as an opportunity to approach the sacrament with a spirit of preparation to do something very important in our faith tradition. It is a procession moving towards Jesus, not one of waving to neighbors. Our manner of reception, which for most of us is receiving the host in our hands, is simple. One hand is placed in the other so that the priest, deacon, or minister may easily place the host in the palm of our hand. We receive the host in our hand rather than taking it with two fingers from the minister's fingers. We give our statement of belief and assent by saying "Amen," to the ministers, "The Body of Christ." Ministers are directed not to add any other words to "The Body of Christ" or "The Blood of Christ." Using the name of the person is not part of the ritual and as public ministers of the Church, we are expected to abide by the ritual and not add what we may believe to be helpful. The ritual calls for "Amen" on the part of the person receiving. Other responses, including "thank you" are not part of the ritual.

A very important reminder is that if a person receives communion in the hand, the person upon receiving the host should immediately consume the host. Holding the host while walking away or keeping the host till one returns to the pew creates distraction and is not part of our practice. Under no circumstances is the person to break the host and share it with another, including children. Offering a piece of host to another, including a child, would indicate a lack of understanding of this holy sacrament.

People are very reverent here at St. Anne’s. Our communion procession is significant. It is a sign of our unity and shared belief. The procession symbolizes our hunger and desire for the Lord. It is significant also that we all come forward to receive Jesus in the same place. As St. Paul declares, "We are many parts but one body." That we all join in the communion procession and minister holy communion and receive the sacrament in the proscribed way of the ritual further underscores our unity and shared understanding.

VOCATIONS

It is meaningful that on this Solemnity of Corpus Christi we are hosting Fr. Joe Fitzgerald who will speak about priesthood and religious vocation at each of our Sunday Masses. Fr. Joe is a very energetic man whose ministry is primarily to encourage vocations to the priesthood and to help those interested in vocations to priesthood or religious life discern their path. He is deeply committed to this work.

For six years from 1996-2002 I served as Vocation Director for our diocese. Though I enjoyed the ministry, it is a very challenging one. There are very encouraging moments when young people come forward to express their interest and desire. It can be disappointing when those who were genuinely interested discern God calls them to a different path. It is the responsibility of us all to share in the concern that the Church very much needs additional priests and religious. And we have a keen sense of the kind of priests and pastors we desire in our parishes. Fr. Joe organizes our diocesan efforts and offers programs and activities to promote vocations. He also meets and guides potential candidates. Fr. Joe has incorporated new ideas and activities into vocation ministry. These include retreats, pilgrimages, and activities for youth and young adults. The second collection today offers an opportunity for us to support the financial costs of some of these activities. Please be encouraging in our welcoming of Fr. Joe today and supportive in our second collection.

Peace be to you. Blessed Memorial Day!

Fr. Tom
Dear Saint Anne’s Parish Family,

Please accept our sincere gratitude for your Mothers Day donations. Saint Anne’s always does an awesome job and the moms really do appreciate the lovely gift bags filled with goodies; special thanks for delivering to Wantagh.

MOMMAS House makes every attempt to make special occasions special; unfortunately, budget constraints do not always permit it. Thank you for making it possible to pamper the moms a little by celebrating the day they chose life. Please keep us in your thoughts and prayers so that we may continue this meaningful work. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. God bless you.

Sincerely,  Patricia Shea, Director of MOMMAS House

Thank You, Saint Anne’s!

We hear the cry of the poor when we are deeply moved by the suffering of others.

It’s in giving that we receive. When we make acts of mercy, we in turn receive mercy, both from the person we help and from God. Allow yourself to really hear the cry of the poor.

Saint Anne’s Is Here For You…

If you’re struggling with something and not sure where to turn, Saint Anne’s Parish provides confidential support and assistance. Serious illness, economic problems, marital difficulties, mental health concerns and coping with caring for those who are ill or elderly are issues we may all face at different times in our lives. If you would like to know more, please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.
Recently the second grade students of St. Anne’s parish celebrated their First Holy Communion, hopefully on track for many more celebrations of the Eucharist. Using today’s Gospel (Luke 9: 11-17) Father Tom’s homily led the children in discovering that through the miracle of the loaves and fishes, Jesus was able to do a lot with a little. What a wise lesson for these little ones and their families. It led us all to ponder what small things we can do to create many changes in our lives, the lives of our children, and our relationships with God. Just think about what your children will learn if you take a few moments to say a prayer out loud in the car, or offer grace before a meal, or ask a question about the homily they heard on the way home from Mass. We can also repeat simple phrases to thank God for so many things or offer someone else an act of kindness in this Year of Mercy. Simply point out something beautiful in nature and thank God for his creation. There are so many small things we can offer to God. We don’t have to miraculously multiple loaves and fishes to do a lot. Simply by doing little things to let our children know how important God is in our lives will lead them to that value in their lives, and strengthen that value in our own lives.

Happy Corpus Christi Sunday and enjoy a safe and meaningful Memorial Day.

Celebrating Our High School Seniors - An Invitation to the 10AM Mass of June 12th
All high school seniors and their families are invited to the 10AM Mass on June 12th. Saint Anne’s would like to recognize their accomplishments as they graduate from high school and wish them luck in their future endeavors.

Many of the graduates have been involved in ministry. They set an example of faithfulness by volunteering as altar servers, catechists, lectors, Respite volunteers or Youth Ministry members. Others have participated in service opportunities in their schools. We offer our prayers and best wishes as they will be the future leaders in our Church and in our communities.
LITURGY AND WORSHIP

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

“They all ate and were satisfied.”

Our need for Jesus and what he gives us goes beyond teaching and healing. We need the Food that Jesus gives us in abundance. This is the food that satisfies us. It is the food that transforms us. Probably the most curious sentence in today’s gospel is Jesus saying to his disciples, “Give them some food yourselves!” What is Jesus saying here? He is really saying, “Give them the good that is yourselves!” God is so willing to let us humans make known God’s superabundance and blessing. We are to be the “leftovers”, the Body of Christ that nourish others.

Today at Mass we process in adoration with the Blessed Sacrament, the Bread of Life. On Holy Thursday we processed with the Blessed Sacrament, too, but the purpose and mood of the two processions are different. On Holy Thursday, we walk with Jesus to the Garden of Olives, to keep watch with him on the night of his betrayal. The sacrament is carried in the ciborium, covered with the humeral veil; veiled as he undergoes his passion. On today’s feast, we walk in the afterglow of Easter Time, in company with the risen Lord. This time, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in a monstrance; the Lord’s glory is not hidden, but visible to all.

Our parish has just finished celebrating First Holy Communion with our young girls and boys. Their great enthusiasm and excitement about receiving Holy Communion for the first time is contagious! May today’s feast of the Body and Blood of Christ renew your love and longing to receive Jesus often in Holy Communion.

Mercy Question of the Week

What are the many prayers and services you do in memory of Jesus?

How does the Eucharist nourish you to serve?

A New Addition to the Mercy Chapel!!!

St. Gerard Majella

Honoring relics of the saints has long been a tradition of the Church. A relic usually consists of the physical remains of a saint or the personal effects of a saint. The veneration of relics is found in many religions and is rooted in the natural human instinct to treat with reverence anything connected with those we love who have died. Catholics believe that God uses a variety of physical things to strengthen their spiritual life. The sacraments use bread, wine, oil, water and other physical things to give Catholics spiritual life, provided they receive them in faith. Relics help Catholics feel close to a holy person, thus making them more aware that the saints are their friends, and fostering in them a desire for holiness.

A reliquary has been added to the Mercy Chapel containing a relic of St. Gerard Majella, the patron saint of expectant mothers donated by Dave Connors in memory of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. David A. Connors. We have also added a relic of Saint Anne, our parish patroness.
