May All We Do today, Be for the healing of the Whole

What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us?
Why are we here?
What is the goal of our work and of all our efforts?
What need does Earth have of us?

Sr. Margaret Mayce, O.P.
Representative of the Dominican Leadership Conference, United Nations

Margaret Mayce is a member of the Sisters of St. Dominic, Congregation of the Holy Cross, Amityville, New York. She is currently the Representative of the Non-Governmental Organization, Dominican Leadership Conference, at the United Nations, New York. In this capacity, she works in conjunction with Dominican Friar Mike Deeb, OP, who represents the Order at the United Nations in Geneva.

She brings the rich Dominican tradition of advocacy on behalf of human rights to all that she does.

Margaret holds a B.A. in Sociology from Molloy College, Rockville Centre, NY; a Masters in International Political Economic Development from Fordham University, Bronx, NY; a Certificate in Pastoral Spanish from the Mexican American Cultural Center, San Antonio, Texas; and a Certificate in Preaching from Aquinas Institute of Theology, St. Louis, Missouri.
Dear Parishioners,

These next two Monday evenings, we will have the two concluding presentations of our Healing Symposium that began three years ago. We have enjoyed a variety of speakers who have shared different perspectives and insights on the theme of healing. This Monday, November 7 we will welcome Fr. Patrick Flanagan, a Vincentian priest from St. John’s University who will speak on this topic and relate it to our use of technology. We are all aware of the many benefits of technology. At the same time we know how technology has caused great damage to persons. Inappropriate communication, access to pornography, withdrawal from interpersonal relationship has caused great pain for some persons, especially some of our young people. I will be interested in hearing Fr. Flanagan’s insights on this topic.

Sr. Margaret Mayce, an Amityville Dominican sister will be with us the following Monday on November 14. Sr. Margaret is active in the United Nations and is well versed in many of the social justice issues of our contemporary world. Sr. Margaret has interests in a broad spectrum of topics including how we care for the earth as was addressed last year by Pope Francis in his encyclical. Yes, healing is often a personal, even individual experience. Sr. Margaret will bring to us a perspective that includes healing as a shared responsibility and ministry.

VOCATIONS

Among the many responsibilities and ministries of a parish priest is the encouragement of vocations. There are many vocations to be lived in the Church as a vocation is a response to God’s call and God calls in many ways.

All vocations begin with Baptism. In this first sacrament, we celebrate God’s presence to the human person. How God calls us to share that presence with others and how we commit ourselves to sharing God’s presence in our lives is what we understand as vocation. Many are called and commit themselves to the vocation of spouse and live the sacrament of marriage. Many then accept and embrace the call to the vocation of being a parent.

Some persons are not called to marriage and choose to live life as a single person. Single persons often give example and reminder to us of the power of the Sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. Through the opportunities of single life, men and women often provide outstanding service to others as their means of sharing the presence of Christ. They can do so as volunteers or through their work and profession that indeed expresses their love for God and others. Their freedom often allows them to be spontaneous and quick in their willingness to serve.

The vocation of religious life, as lived by religious sisters, brothers, and some priests, the diaconate, and priesthood vocations are ones primarily given over to service and ministry in the Church. Religious life has a wonderful history dating back 17 centuries as well as a rich history here in the United States. So many of us have benefited from the life of religious sisters in our parishes, schools, and hospitals. The religious life of sisters has undergone great change these 50 years. Ministries have expanded. How religious sisters share common life and live their vows has taken different forms. While some religious congregations have grown smaller in number, others have begun. Those who live the religious vocation tell us that is the dynamic of religious life. It is not static. Religious are always discerning how the Lord is calling them to discern God’s call in today’s Church.

We are blessed to have Sr. Judy Golden, a religious sister of St. Dominic minister here at St. Anne’s. Sr. Judy leads our liturgical efforts, leads our RCIA, and works with families and children in various ministries. Sr. Judy is received with great affection and appreciation by our parishioners. In a time when fewer parishes enjoy the daily presence of a religious sister, we are fortunate to have Sr. Judy with us.

The vocation of deacon has undergone a renewal these past 40 years. The vocation of deacon is primarily one of service and finds its roots in the Acts of the Apostles. The deacon shares in the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Several deacons have served at St. Anne’s over the years. Our deacons are well known to the parish. Deacons Jim O’Brien, Basil Bliss, and Bob McCarthy are involved in many parish ministries, both liturgical and in faith formation and other parish activities. Deacon George Browne remains a deacon in our parish and is now retired from active ministry. Many parishioners speak with much gratitude and appreciation for the ministry that Deacon George provided for so many years. Our parish deacons are always ready and quick to respond when asked to help in any way.

Parishioner Michael Boldizar is in formation to become a deacon. Several years of formation are required and Mike takes classes at the seminary in Huntington. He is also involved in many parish ministries, including Faith Formation. We anticipate his ordination in a few years.

As priests we are encouraged to share our own vocation story. As a former Vocation Director for our diocese, I understand the need for parish priests to assist in the important work of encouraging vocations.

When I consider my vocation story, I think of the lesson we learn from the life of St. Paul. Our lives are not straight lines. Lots of twists and turns, and roundabouts make up many of our lives. We even at times get off track.

There are twists and turns and roundabouts to my own vocation story. I can recall initial interest from my time in grade school. At the same time, though, I felt I could be President of the United States. Priesthood eventually won. Hm, I wonder though if I pursued my political ambitions if 2016 could have been the year?! Given where we are today, maybe I couldda had a chance.

Next week I’ll share with you more about my path to the priesthood. I think it was the better choice.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom

All are welcome.

Resilience ... You are not alone

Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Saint Anne’s Is Here For You…

If you’re struggling with something and not sure where to turn, Saint Anne’s Parish provides confidential support and assistance. Serious illness, economic problems, marital difficulties, mental health concerns and coping with caring for those who are ill or elderly are issues we may all face at different times in our lives. If you would like to know more, please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

Today in the gospel Jesus is confronted by the Sadducees who present a very absurd argument about life after death. The Sadducees did not believe in life after death. They believed that you lived on in your children and that was how you gained immortality. Already in Luke’s gospel Jesus has predicted his death and resurrection. The resurrection that Jesus speaks of is not simply coming back to life but rather it is the eternal fullness of life. In heaven all are alive! This belief brings us to encounter the God of the living. The basis for our belief is hope, a hope of being children of God in an everlasting relationship with the living God.

Readings for the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Malachi 3:19-20a
2 Thessalonians 3:7-12
Luke 21:5-19

MERCY...

Mercy Question of the Week

When bad things happen, how do you deal with them? How does it feel when your friends put you down for what you believe?

©Pastoral Planning

Veterans Day, Remembrance Day, Armistice Day

In the early part of the twentieth century, a war called the Great War involved almost all of the countries of the world. Millions died as a result of new and terrible weapons. It was hoped to be the “war to end all wars.” The time chosen to end the war and peace declared was the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, suggesting that humankind had waited until it was nearly too late. That war would become known as the First World War. This day is special for another reason. It is the feast day of Saint Martin of Tours. Martin was a soldier in the army until he laid down his weapons. His feast day was a celebration of peace. The day has also been a thanksgiving festival in Europe since the Middle Ages. In Canada the day which was known as Armistice Day became known as Remembrance Day. In the United States it is now called Veterans Day. All Americans who have fought in wars during this century, those who died and those who lived are honored. May God continue to bless our Veterans!

Family Mass at Saint Anne’s

Any child from Grade 2 and older who would like to join the choir please contact Sr. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or call the parish office 352-5904. Saint Augustine said it best, “The one who sings, prays twice!!!

Respite Halloween Celebration

Excitement was in the air at Respite last Friday, as our special needs community celebrated Halloween with some exceptional costumes. Special appearances were made by John Connor (of the NY Mets), Woody, Mrs. Doubtfire, the Scarecrow, Flash, a pirate, a beautiful 50’s girl, a King, Pocahantas, a doctor, Raggedy Ann, a mad scientist and an assortment of witches and other interesting people. Thanks to all who help with Respite!
