LOAVES AND FISHES

You have been told, O man, what is good, and what the Lord requires of you:
only to do right and to love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God."
~ Micah 6:8

With Sincerest Thanks!

Thanks to the generosity of many Saint Anne’s parishioners, over 300 families in need were able to gather together on Thanksgiving Day for a delicious dinner with extras to tide them over through the following week. Thank you to all who sponsored families and all who offered financial support to help feed those who are hungry. Special thanks to all the volunteers who assisted with this effort—especially the youth helpers, the drivers and the coordinators. Please see pages 12 and 13 for photos!

Advent Giving Opportunities

At the Family Mass—At the 10:30AM Family Mass there will be a special opportunity to help children in need this Christmas. Ornaments which identify a Christmas gift and a food item for a child in need will be given out. All gifts donated should be unwrapped and returned by Sunday, December 11th to the Family Mass or to the Loaves and Fishes closets.

Angel Gift Trees in the Church - Trees have been set up in the lobby of our Church with angel ornaments printed with the names and ages of children in need. Each child or teen currently lives in housing administered by Catholic Charities programs and in many cases, the gifts supplied will be the only ones they receive.

Please see page 11 for more information. Thank you for your support!
There are many parishioners involved in Parish Social Ministry, reaching out to offer assistance and sharing their gifts with one another, all in the context of our faith.

Looking for a way to volunteer? In need of some support or assistance? Please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.

Resilience … You are not alone

Next Meeting - Thursday, Dec. 1st at 7:30PM
Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will take place on Thursday, December 1st at 7:30PM in the St. John Vianney Room in the rectory. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Families in Service
We invite you to join us for Christmas caroling as we visit some of our homebound and senior parishioners to bring them a message of love and good cheer. Parents and children are invited to gather in the cafeteria on Sunday, December 11th at 4:00PM. Song sheets and information will be provided (along with juice and cookies!) Families will be arranged in groups and sent out to sing at two or three homes. (Please note: Most of the homes are NOT walking distance from the Church. Families will need their cars to travel to the homes where they will carol.)

What a wonderful way to gather with family and friends, bringing a message of “Joy to the World” this Christmas! RSVP by December 8th if you’d like to participate so we may effectively plan for this event. You may contact Shannon Kolenik at shannon.kolenik@gmail.com or Rena Capri at renaann614@yahoo.com for information. All are welcome!

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

First Sunday of Advent

“They shall beat their swords into plowshares And their spears into pruning hooks... Come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.”

At this time of the year it is very easy to be distracted by all of the everyday demands on our time. We never seem to quite have enough time as we prepare for Christmas and New Year! There are places to go, shopping to be done, home preparations – and the list goes on. Today’s readings are calling us to look at our time through God’s eyes and God’s time. It requires us to “stay awake” and watch to see Christ’s coming in our days. The first reading speaks of the days to come when peace reigns. How many greetings at this time say “Peace on earth, good will to all”? When we see the many places in our world where war is the daily experience of people let us pray for the time to come for swords beaten into plowshares and spears into pruning hooks. In our own lives where are the places that need God’s peace? Take the time this Advent to “stay awake” and find ways to bring God’s peace to our families, neighbors, and strangers we meet along the way. What a blessed way to spend our time!

Readings for the Second Sunday of Advent
Isaiah 11: 1-10
Romans 15: 4-9
Matthew 3: 1-12

Lectors

Lector Workbooks are available to be picked up in the sacristy. Please make sure that you pick up your copy as soon as possible. They are in a box under the bench with your name on your copy.

ADVENT

This image of Advent is of Hagia Sophia, Lady Wisdom, an image of Emmanuel, God with us. She is surrounded by the prophets Isaiah, Jeremiah, Baruch and Micah, all of which we will hear in the readings of this season. The message we hear this Advent is first and foremost a message about who God is and all God does for his people. We hear: God saves, shelters and protects us, God’s light triumphs, God provides nourishment, comfort and healing, God’s justice reigns! As Jesus’ followers we are called to prepare for the Lord’s coming. We do not know when but we wait and respond to all those in need of mercy, healing, forgiveness, compassion and justice. We live anticipating the coming of the Lord, all the while working to build a kingdom of peace and justice in our world.

Maranatha! Come Lord Jesus, Come!

Family Mass at Saint Anne’s

Last Sunday the children received a small book, Our Journey to Bethlehem. It contains activities for each day of Advent and the makings for a chain to place on your Christmas tree. The activities and chain begin today, the First Sunday of Advent. If you didn’t receive a book please see S. Judy after Family Mass.

A Children’s Choir

There will be no choir rehearsal this Monday, December 4th. The choir will be singing at the Advent Festival, Monday, December 5th at 6:45PM. Would You Be an Angel to a Child in Need this Christmas?

The bright little Christmas trees by the Church doors are here for a special reason...

Catholic Charities needs our support in providing toys and gifts for more than 60 children whose families live in Project Independence housing, Special Needs housing and the Teaching Family Home program. These children are from families who have been homeless, who have someone with chronic mental illness or HIV/AIDS or who have suffered from substance abuse.

Thank you for taking an Angel Ornament, which lists a child or teen by gender and age. For younger children, toys are requested and for teens, there are other suggestions, including gift cards. Your gift may be the only one received by these children.

If you would please:

⇒ Attach the Angel Ornament to your gift
⇒ Leave the gift unwrapped
⇒ Bring your gift to the Rectory by Wednesday, Dec. 14th

The Rectory is open from 9:00AM to 8:00PM Monday – Thursday; 9:00AM to 5:00PM on Saturday and 9:00AM to 1:00PM on Sunday. You may also leave your gift in the Loaves and Fishes closet (right side) if need be.

Thank you for your generosity! Your gift is truly a work of mercy...

The following note was received in appreciation for our support last Christmas:

“Thank you for bringing such big smiles to the children’s’ faces! Due to your generous Christmas Spirit, over sixty children who have felt the pain of homelessness, rejection and emotional suffering now have the chance to feel the loving acceptance of Jesus.”

Any questions, please call Linda Leone at 516-352-5904
Thanksgiving Sponsor a Family

Thanks to the generosity of Saint Anne’s parishioners, over 300 struggling families were able to gather together this Thanksgiving with a complete family dinner. This year, 50 families from Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal’s Ryan Outreach Center in Wyandanch and 275 families at Saint Martha’s Parish Outreach in Uniondale were sponsored for Thanksgiving. Many thanks to Barbara Tranfaglia, Diane and Paul Wykowski, Mary McCarraher and Joanne Sorge and their families for all their help onsite at the outreach centers and for coordinating this effort. Our special thanks to all the volunteers who participated – especially the youth helpers, the drivers and every Saint Anne's family and group who sponsored families in need!

Saint Anne’s School Annual Saints Parade

Oh, when the saints go marchin’ in...

The first grade students at St. Anne’s School marched through McCloskey Auditorium dressed as the saint of their choice in the annual Saints Parade – a school tradition. For many decades, families, friends and fellow students have gathered together at St. Anne’s School in Garden City to hear about the lives of the saints from the first grade students.

The “saints” entered the auditorium to the song “When the Saints Go Marchin’ In” and once on stage each “saint” recited important facts and information about their lives and sang beautiful songs for the audience.

In order to prepare for this special day, each student memorized a number of important facts about the saints they were going to portray. The first graders practiced and rehearsed at home and in school with help from both their parents and teachers.

A special thank you to the first grade teachers, Mrs. Marianne Riccobono and Miss Elizabeth Garabedian, and music teacher Ms. Corona for making the 2016 Saints Parade such a memorable event. We can’t wait for next year!
