EXERCISE FOR OTHERS

Serving People In Need
Dear Parishioners,

Today’s gospel is clearly an encouragement to pray. Along with this parable and its teaching, throughout the gospels we read of Jesus at prayer. The gospel provides images of Jesus withdrawing from others to be alone so he can pray. We hear of Jesus praying with others, his disciples and those he heals. Scriptures give images of the disciples and Mary praying “in the upper room,” perhaps the same place where Jesus prayed at the Last Supper.

Prayer is essential to the life of the Christian. The absence of prayer diminishes the strength of faith for the believer. Those who pray regularly know the strong foundation that prayer can provide. Many speak of the gifts that prayer brings to their lives.

There are many kinds of prayer. When I was in formation for religious life, we learned of some different kinds of prayer. These included mental prayer, affective prayer, gratitude, praise, liturgical prayer, devotional prayer. For some prayer has led to mystical, even ecstatic experience.

Many, including me, do not find prayer easy. We find it difficult to slow down and take time to pray. We are so easily distracted when we pray. Some people question the effectiveness of prayer. Don’t worry. We are in good company. Towards the end of her life, our most recent saint, Saint Mother Theresa of Calcutta shared with the world her struggles with faith and prayer.

In the spirit of today’s gospel, I share with you some personal reflections on my own experience of prayer. You may be surprised by some of them. Perhaps my reflections about my own prayer experience will help you to reflect on your own life of prayer.

Do you remember your own “first prayers?” Growing up, we lived down the block from the parish church, St. Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead and my six siblings and I went to Catholic school. Of course, we prayed at school. A clearer memory for me is praying at night before going to bed. I would pray at bedside, sometimes alone, sometimes mom or dad kneeling down next to me. As I reflect on prayer with you, this memory of “first prayers” I recall with fondness. I honestly don’t know if children still kneel down to pray at bedside. I do know that there are many life long Catholics who have maintained this beautiful prayer practice their entire life.

One of the more popular kinds of prayer that many of us share is intercessory prayer, asking for a gift from God or a special favor from God. I have prayed for a miracle; I have prayed for strength and wisdom and courage. I have prayed to be generous and forgiving. I have prayed for purity. Intercessory prayer is really a part of my everyday prayer. Intercessory prayer reminds us we need God’s help in this life. We are not as independent as we might like to think. I’m certain that this kind of prayer is popular with many parishioners.

I find the best time for me to pray is in the morning and sometimes at night, before going to sleep. Prayer done in the morning is more focused and less rushed for me. What I very much appreciate about praying in the morning is that it sets a tone for the start of the day that hopefully I can carry through the entire day. Often, when I pray later in the day, I find myself rushed, moving quickly to the conclusion of prayer.

Sometimes, I pray myself into sleep; especially at night. Prayer sometimes promotes sleep and I believe that is fine. Prayer can create a spirit of calm and can help provide needed rest. Prayer moving into sleep at night, I believe, allows a person to bring God’s presence into the night of sleep. Surely, that’s a good and holy thing. I think God understands when prayer moves us to sleep.

Gratitude is a great way to begin prayer. Gratitude helps us to know who we are and helps us to know who God is. Gratitude uplifts the human heart and spirit. Gratitude helps to create calm and that calm can help us to move from gratitude to other parts of prayer. I often follow my prayers of gratitude with prayers asking for God’s help.

As a priest, many people ask me to pray for them or those they love. I believe it is part of my responsibility to honor those requests. As it is for many of you, sometimes life is so busy, I don’t give the attention to such requests as I would like. Recently that has changed. Now, several times a day, as a diabetic, I need to inject insulin. The habit I have developed is to think of those who have asked me to pray for them during this time and I say a prayer for them while the insulin finds its way. Believe it or not, I see this as one of the blessings of diabetes. I pray more. (Please do me a favor. I very much appreciate cakes, cookies, candies that come as gifts to the rectory, however they don’t work well with diabetes.)

There is so much to share with you about prayer. We are all familiar with prayers we learned as children and devotional prayers such as the Rosary, whose mysteries are so beautifully depicted in our stained glass windows. Devotions like Eucharistic adoration and the divine chaplet are long time traditions of our faith which St. Anne’s parishioners so devotedly and generously pray for us.

How often I am struck by the dying person who is in many ways unresponsive but when asked if they wish to pray, make a faint nod of the head, lift their arm, and begin the sign of the cross. What a marvelous testament to the strength of faith and the power of prayer in the dying person. It is such an honor to witness that with the person’s family at a bedside. This kind of experience reminds me of a very important dimension of prayer. It’s a lifetime gift and it is taking me a lifetime to pray well.

Peace be with you.

Resilience

You are not alone....

Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will take place on an evening in early November—date to be announced in next week’s bulletin. If you’d like any information in advance, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Saint Anne’s Is Here For You...

If you’re struggling with something and not sure where to turn, Saint Anne’s Parish provides confidential support and assistance. Serious illness, economic problems, marital difficulties, mental health concerns and coping with caring for those who are ill or elderly are issues we may all face at different times in our lives. If you would like to know more, please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.
Please know that our lines of communication are always open to families. The Faith Formation office number is 488-1032 or you may email Vivian Flood at vflood@stannesgc.org. We hope to ensure a positive and welcoming experience for you and your children at Saint Anne’s. Each week I visit with your children in the classrooms. This is one of the most enjoyable parts of my new role. I will be taking pictures of the classes to share with you each week in the bulletin.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

Our faith grows through persistence in prayer because through this type of prayer we build our relationship with God. When Jesus comes again “will he find faith on earth?” Yes, if we, like the widow in today’s parable, are persistent in prayer. Prayer doesn’t change God – prayer changes us! We do not lose heart or grow weary if we are in constant touch with God. This constant relationship with God deepens as we “pray always.” For you, what is the biggest challenge to praying without becoming weary?

Ours is not an explicit persecution, but in Pope Francis’s words, “a polite persecution” disguised as culture, modernity, and progress.

Walk – ins welcome
“Wherever there are Christians, everyone should find an Oasis of Mercy.”

-Pope Francis

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The Gospel’s mandate and the unwavering emphasis of Pope Francis’ Year of Mercy is that our love for God must be a reflection of our love for one another, especially the weak and vulnerable among us. Our Diocese’s annual Catholic Ministries Appeal is a daily response to that call and enables us to increase our outreach to those most in need.

As the last few months of the 2016 Appeal and Pope Francis’ Year of Mercy are upon us, I am writing to ask that if you have not already done so, you would consider making a donation to the 2016 Catholic Ministries Appeal. You would be joining with me, with your Pastor and with many of your neighbors, to help bring God’s love and mercy to His people.

There are so many of our neighbors in need of our help; your support will help us to answer those calls.

Again, please join with us. I assure you that as One Faith, Family and Community we will make a lasting difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters on Long Island.

With my prayers and gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre
