Wednesday, November 2nd at 7:30PM

Each year we celebrate Mass for all those who have died during the past year at Saint Anne’s. If we think for just a moment, each of us in the parish will remember someone who has touched our lives and is no longer with us.

Dear Parishioners,

In two weeks the election campaign will have ended. Won’t you be happy when we are not subject to the negativity, the harangue, and the divisive experience of this election season? Those who have shared in the rhetoric, the nastiness and sense of doom will surely be challenged on Wednesday, November 9 to put aside so much of what has been part of this election and join together as the United States of America.

And happily, here at St. Anne’s we have so many good and positive things happening in the next two weeks. We begin with these readings that we hear at Mass today.

The first reading from the Book of Wisdom recognizes the tremendous power of God. A powerful description of God is found in the second sentence: “But you have mercy on all, because you can do all things; and you overlook people’s sins that they may repent. For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made…” If these days of our national debate are fraught with negativity, our faith assures us God is in charge and He is a God of love.

Our second reading from St. Paul is only two sentences, both very long sentences that run as full paragraphs. The initial sentence reminds us again, as did the readings of the last two weeks, of the necessity to pray and to pray for each other that God’s purpose may be fulfilled in us. As we are bombarded in the coming days with words of vitriol and dark mailings about those running for office, turn down the sound, throw the mailing into the garbage and give yourself a positive moment: pray.

In a very timely fashion, the second long sentence from St. Paul counsels calm. Alarmists need not be given the power to overcome the calm that a mature faith brings. The gospel story of Zacchaeus is one of the better known encounter stories of Jesus. Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus. The crowds block his view; he is short. The clever and fit Zacchaeus climbs the sycamore. Jesus sees him, calls him down, and invites himself to Zacchaeus’ house. What a great day for Zacchaeus. He meets the Lord and Jesus changes his life.

Everyday we have the opportunity to meet the Lord, often, I find, in surprising circumstances. Interestingly in Zacchaeus’ story, Zacchaeus was looking to see Jesus, but the story is about Jesus finding Zacchaeus. Maybe this week, you and I can give some thought to how will Jesus find us these days. As Zacchaeus climbed the sycamore and Jesus found him there, where might Jesus find us and what will we be doing? Hopefully we are doing what God calls us to and we are building up the Kingdom of God. For the most part that’s what we do everyday as we live out our various vocations, work on behalf of our family, serve the needs of others, and live responsible lives with a spirit of faith.

ALL SAINTS – ALL SOULS

Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, November 1 and 2 are two of my favorite days on the liturgical calendar, All Saints and All Souls. Tuesday, All Saints is a Holyday of Obligation and we are all required to attend Mass. The schedule is printed on the bulletin cover.

All Saints reminds us all of who we are called to be and celebrates that we believe many of those whom we have loved on this earth and who have died, are now saints. All Saints Day is a wonderfully imaginative day fueled by our faith. It’s a great day to imagine heaven. It’s a great day to wonder about those in heaven. It’s a time for me, not only to remember, but to imagine my grandparents, parents, and brother in heaven. It’s a day to pray and to be confident that they pray for us. Welcome All Saints Day this year, a day of faith, hope, love, confidence, and heaven, far removed from the skepticism, cynicism, and criticism of those whose faith is weak.

November 1 and 2 is a double day of remembrance and prayer. We follow All Saints with All Souls. On All Souls we pray that nothing keeps those we love from enjoying the fullness of God’s love in heaven. Remember, we have an evening Mass on Wednesday, November 2. All parishioners are invited so if you cannot get to morning Mass for All Souls, you can come to Mass in the evening.

VETERAN’S CELEBRATION

Next Sunday, November 6 we are having a truly American celebration as we will have a tribute to Veterans immediately after the 11:45 Mass. Our parish Middle Years group is planning the tribute and our school children are planning to offer their enthusiastic support. There will be a tribute and a reception. Please see page 13 in this bulletin. I am sure that this will be a most positive experience in the spirit of America!

HEALING SYMPOSIUM – MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7

On Monday, November 7, Father Patrick Flanagan, C.M. from St. John’s University will come to St. Anne’s to speak on “Health Online: The 7 Deadly Sins of Technology.” Technology affects us all. It has brought us many good things. We are quicker, more efficient, and able to do amazing and new things through the gift of technology. Still we know technology can be misused. It has brought us problems. Young persons speak of addiction. Pornography is widespread. People’s lives have been damaged. We all need to be concerned. I believe Father Flanagan’s presentation will address many concerns we have about the new technology that is in all our homes. I think he will provide some helpful suggestions.

So, lots of good things happening here at St. Anne’s in these next two weeks. Join us for prayer, and community.

Sincerely,

Fr. Tom

Resilience … You are not alone

Meeting on November 3rd at 7:30PM

Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will take place on Thursday, November 3rd at 7:30PM in the St. John Vianney Room in the rectory. If you’d like any information in advance, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Ill or Hospitalized?

If you or someone you love is ill or hospitalized and would like to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, Holy Eucharist or the Sacrament of Reconciliation, you may notify the hospital chaplain or call Saint Anne's at 352-5904 to see a priest from our parish. We are here to help if you give us a call!
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

With Election Day just two weeks away, the decisions you and I will make are important ones. Each and every one of us has a very important role to play. We have to decide who will get our vote. Permit me the opportunity to share with you some thoughts I ask you to consider.

First and foremost, pray. Spend time in prayer asking God to guide you and your family and our country during this time. Pray before the Blessed Sacrament, pray to the Blessed Mother, pray the rosary and entrust your decision to our Lord.

Like many of you, I lament the current climate of division, and the mean spiritedness and intolerance of some toward those who do not agree with candidates and positions that do not fit their worldview. If you think you are confused and slightly battered by the noise, public protests and private misgivings, you have every reason to be so. But as responsible citizens and faithful men and women of God, we have to exercise our right to vote in a way that is serious, well-informed and reflective of who we are as Americans and Catholics.

We believe in God. We know He is the creator and thus God is intimately present in all things -- the world, human life, communities, choices and elections. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI said, “Those who deny God can lead us only in a direction that ultimately is destructive”.

The human person, made in the image and likeness of God, is the ultimate measure of what is good or bad, right or wrong. Every person is sacred and has inherent rights which political leaders must protect and serve. Those who do not are unworthy of our vote. Those who contradict themselves by saying one thing and doing another are unworthy of our vote.

Many issues are very important in our society today. But none of them can eclipse the centrality of human life, especially innocent human life in the womb or at the end of life. Above all and over all, the number one issue more fundamental and crucial than any other is abortion -- that is the direct taking of innocent life, which is financed by government funds -- the diversion of our tax dollars to abortionists like Planned Parenthood as well as government insistence that we Catholics like the Little Sisters of the Poor, violate our consciences to advance such programs.

Support of abortion by a candidate for public office, some of whom are Catholics, even if they use the fallacious and deeply offensive “personally opposed but . . .” line, is reason sufficient unto itself to disqualify any and every such candidate from receiving our vote. Let me repeat that: Support of abortion by a candidate for public office, some of whom are Catholics, even if they use the fallacious and deeply offensive “personally opposed but . . .” line, is reason sufficient unto itself to disqualify any and every such candidate from receiving our vote.

I have three questions to end this letter! Please reflect upon these as you examine your conscience and prepare to exercise your right to vote.

1. Do you think our country is going in the right direction or the wrong direction? I believe it is heading in the wrong direction. If I am right, then,

2. Of the two candidates running for President, and of all of the candidates running for elective office, whether federal, state or local, which ones will continue to lead us in the current direction or which are more likely to restore justice in those areas that cry out for such a restoration?

3. Which ones are willing to lead us in a direction that is more pro life, more pro family and more pro truth? Which ones will recognize and respect the role of religion in the lives of citizens and the Church’s right to mediate the truths of the Gospel and the Church’s teaching as part of the public life of our country, in public ministries like health care, education and charitable works, without being forced to adopt and facilitate those cultural practices that are not consonant with Church teaching?

For further insight, I have written two columns on voting in The Long Island Catholic Magazine. They are also available on the diocesan website, www.drvc.org. In addition, the U.S. Bishops have prepared a teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics called “Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship”. It is also available online. I urge you to consider thoughtfully these resources along with this letter as you go through the process of deciding whom you will support with your vote.

May God bless you and your families and may God continue to bless the United States of America.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre

Mission Sunday at Family Mass

Last Sunday was Mission Sunday. The children at Family Mass received rosary chaplets (small one decade rosary beads). They prayed a Hail Mary for the children on each of the continents around the world and promised to pray each evening for the children of the world.

Perhaps you or someone you know is interested in becoming a Catholic or is a Catholic wanting to complete the Sacraments of Initiation (Confirmation and Eucharist). Our parish community would like to extend an invitation for you to learn more about our faith and celebrate the sacraments with us.

The RCIA process began this past week. If you would like to learn more about the RCIA process please contact Sr. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or by phone 352-5904 for more information. There are also pamphlets available in the church lobby, Five Reasons to Consider the Catholic Church and What Can the Church Offer Me?
“Zacchaeus, come down quickly!”

How many times do we find ourselves up a tree, in situations where we can’t seem to find a way out? The solution is usually to climb down to find a solution to a problem. Zacchaeus does the opposite – he climbs a tree to solve his problem! He wants to see Jesus and he chooses a difficult tree, the sycamore. Then he gets the call from Jesus, “Come down!” Even though he couldn’t see Jesus with his physical eyes and so had to climb the tree, his desire to meet Jesus shows that in his heart he had already seen him. His encounter with Jesus changes him and brings about a great conversion in his life. He publicly wants to return when he has taken and give back even more! An encounter with Jesus can do the same for us, bring us down from the trees we put ourselves in and changes our hearts for the better. This is the last person that St. Luke mentions in his gospel before Jesus enters Jerusalem. It reminds us of why Jesus came, “to seek and to save what was lost.”

The Solemnity of All Saints
November 1st each year is celebrated as the feast of all saints, those who have finished the race and now rejoice in God’s presence.

We honor familiar saints like Peter, Paul, Catherine, Brigid, Patrick, Teresa of Calcutta, and the humble saints as well, those whose names are known to few or to none, our ancestors, friends, those who lived their faith to the full and inspired faith in others. This feast day has been observed on November 1st since the seventh century, and it originated even earlier as a feast in honor of all martyrs in the year 359. In a homily on All Saints Day, St. Bernard of Clairvaux preached, “Sheerly, if we venerate their memory, it serves us, not them. But I tell you, when I think of them, I feel myself inflamed with a tremendous yearning. Calling the saints to mind inspires a longing to enjoy their company. We long to share in the citizenship of heaven to dwell with the spirits of the blessed...

In short, we long to be united in happiness with all the saints.”

Family Mass at Saint Anne’s
Family Mass at Saint Anne’s is celebrated each Sunday at 10:30AM in McCloskey Auditorium. We look forward to celebrating mass with our St. Anne’s families each week. Make 10:30 Family Mass part of your Sunday each week!

Happy Clappers
The Family Mass Happy Clappers will rehearse next, Sunday, Nov 6th at 10:00 in McCloskey Auditorium. All young children are invited to join the group! Children in Sunday Faith Formation are invited to come as soon as class is over!!

A Children’s Choir
There will be no choir rehearsal this Monday, October 31st. Next rehearsal will be on Monday, November 7th at 6:00PM – 6:45PM next week because of the Healing Symposium on the November 7th at 7:00PM. The choir will sing at one mass a month and on special occasions. The choir rehearses on Monday evenings, usually from 6:30 – 7:30. Any child from Grade 2 and older who would like to join the choir please contact Sr. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or call the parish office 352-5904. Saint Augustine said it best, “The one who sings, prays twice!!!

Why Become a Knight?
In today’s world, many Catholic men are looking to spend meaningful time with their family, to serve their community and their Church, and to grow in their faith. Joining the Knights of Columbus provides these men and their families with volunteer opportunities and activities which accomplish these goals. If you are such a man who is dedicated to making a difference, then membership in the Knights of Columbus is for you.

The Msgr. John C. Seidenschwang Council consists primarily of members within St. Anne’s Parish. To be eligible for membership you need only be a Catholic man, 18 years of age or older, and be committed to making our community a better place, while supporting the Church.

We recognize your obligation to the workplace and family. It is a common concern among many men that they do not have time to be part of the Knights of Columbus. If you can spare just 10 hours a year, perhaps you too can be part of our Council:

- Two hours a year at a Council sponsored Church, community or Council events. These include Spirit Day activities, recruitment drives and other activities.
- Four hours a year attending two Council meetings. We meet the second Wednesday of every month in the School cafeteria at 8 PM.
- Four hours a year enjoying a Council Social function for the entire family: dinner/dance, concert, picnic, Christmas gatherings, outings, etc.

So join us for a lifetime of satisfaction and fulfillment. Interest card and a membership drop box are available in the back of the Church this weekend. Once received, one of our Brother Knights will contact you to discuss our Order and answer any questions you may have. Anointing of the Sick
The Sacrament is available to those who are ill, bringing God’s healing and strength. Anointing of the Sick is especially appropriate for anyone with serious illness, whether physical, emotional or spiritual, those who are being admitted to the hospital, or anyone who is elderly. In this sacrament, Jesus asks, “Do you want to be healed?” Through this sacrament, God offers us the gift of peace.

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is celebrated on the first Saturday of each month at the 8:30AM Mass. If a loved one is unable to come to church, please call the rectory to arrange for a home visit.

May All We Do today, Be for the healing of the Whole
What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us?
Why are we here?
What is the goal of our work and of all our efforts?
What need does Earth have of us?

Families in Service Sandwich Making

Thank you to all the parents and children who took time out of their busy weekends to participate in the recent sandwich-making event at Saint Anne’s. A great spirit was in the air as more than 60 families gathered in the cafeteria to make over 1400 nutritious sandwiches for people in need. Midway through there was a pause in the action as a group of children led everyone in prayer, telling the parable of the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fishes and giving thanks for the gifts being shared. Sandwiches were delivered that day to St. Mary of the Isle Parish in Long Beach and to several soup kitchens which serve lunch on Saturdays to people in need. Another delivery took place on Monday to the Mary Brennan INN in Hempstead. The children also prepared hundreds of goody bags to be given to children through the Department of Social Services. Once again, the need was great and the delivery was most welcome. Thank you to all for participating!
