Remembering September 11th

Fifteen years ago on September 11th our country, our city, and especially our parish were touched and forever changed by the tragedy of the terrorist attacks. In the sanctuary is a metal cross formed from the steel of the World Trade Center. We are grateful to Firefighter Steven Olsen who gave it to us to display this weekend. All those who so tragically lost their lives on September 11, 2001 will be remembered at all the Masses on Sunday, September 11th. They will remain in our hearts and minds forever.

Dear Parishioners,

When September 11 occurs on a Sunday as we experience this year, I find our remembrance of September 11, 2001 especially poignant. When this day falls on a Sunday, we have a better opportunity to stop our daily routines and come together in a prayerful way to offer our support to those families who lost a loved one that day. This year I find myself especially mindful of these families.

Most of us all know someone who lost his or her life that day. At St. Anne’s we will be remembering in our General Intercessions ten members of our parish family who died on September 11, 2001. Along with these persons, many of us lost relatives and friends who perished fifteen years ago today. My cousin Jimmy Haran died at the World Trade Center.

This year I find myself reflecting on the experience of the families for whom this day is such a painful experience. Personally, in the past two years, the children of my cousin have had very significant events. Two daughters have married at St. Raymond’s Church in East Rockaway. His youngest son, who bears his name, graduated high school and began his college career in Florida. These were all beautiful and joyous celebrations for Katie, Kelly, and Jimmy and I was privileged to be the priest for their weddings to Brian and Greg. All of us who shared in these very happy days were mindful of their dad and we prayed for him at both wedding Masses. And as we do every year, we will pray as a family this afternoon at Mass in the backyard of his family home. About 50 relatives and friends will be there, maybe more because it is a Sunday. This day has become an annually important day for our extended family to gather.

I was the pastor at Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream in September 2001. As you experienced at St. Anne’s, at Holy Name we mourned the loss of seven parishioners, three fireman and four persons working in the World Trade Center. I remember well keeping vigil with families in their homes as we hoped that some might be rescued and returned home. That did not happen. I remember well the throng of persons who came to pray at the funeral Masses. These days changed all our lives.

What I reflect about today is how these September 11 families have so graciously moved forward in their lives. The loss remains hurtful and yet I find persons whose loss was the greatest that day are now so gracious as they have moved forward in faith and love, full of gratitude for the support they have received, and living lives that bring honor to the lives of those we remember today.

This sense of moving forward is not what contemporary culture calls “closure.” It is moving forward in faith, with belief in the Lord, with hope in the promise of eternal life and heaven, with love for those family members and friends who surround them today.

I understand a central theme of our faith is a sense of moving forward. Jesus is always calling us to move forward, to move closer to him. On this September 11, fifteen years after a most devastating and tragic day, so many families for whom this remains a painful day, provide for us such a powerful and shining example of a central challenge of our faith beliefs to move forward graciously in faith, hope, and love.

On this sacred Sunday, we pray for these families, their deceased loved ones, and we are awed by the example they provide for us.

SPIRIT DAY

Eleven Reasons We Need To Be There
(Not In Any Order of Importance!!!)

1. It is our parish day of spirit and community. Long time parishioners meet old friends. New parishioners make new friends. It’s a day that expresses: “We are St. Anne’s.”

2. Children love Spirit Day. Rides, gold fish, dunk tank. Kids and grandkids love it all.

3. Craft Fair and Moms Mums offer something for everybody. Decorate your house with mums. Last year I accomplished lots of Christmas shopping through one of the craft vendors.

4. Ministries do wonderful things to serve our parishioners. Learn about our ministries; join one of them at Spirit Day.

5. Spirit Day is alive and well because of the hard work of dozens of volunteers who make Spirit Day activities run all day. Support our volunteers; maybe you can volunteer.

6. Spirit Day begins early in the day with Respite games. These parishioners, both participants and volunteers, set the tone for Spirit Day with their great energy and enthusiasm. Truly, they are a spirited bunch.

7. Spirit Day has a tradition of great weather. Our committee is looking at the long range forecast. It is most promising. Enjoy the great outdoors of the end of summer and the beginning of fall.

8. Middle School students are promised a fun evening with an event designed especially for them and suggested by them. Look “for a new “twist” for the middle school event this year.

9. Night at the Races in the auditorium includes some big winners and helps with parish fundraising. Winners get excited for each race. The parish is a winner for every race. Your support is helpful.

10. We gather for an outdoor Mass at 5:00PM. There will be a surprise celebration at Mass. The Mass includes one of the shortest homilies of the year. How great it is to celebrate together our faith, hope, and love for all in the neighborhood to see and hear.

11. You may well go home having won $25,000. And if you don’t you’ll have a good chance at $5000. Tickets are selling quickly. Buy one today.

Hope to see you at Spirit Day!

“Guide us in bringing your Good News to all we meet; and let us greet the poor and the afflicted with kindness and compassion.”

~ Saint Teresa of Calcutta

Thank you from Saint Martha’s!

Dear Saint Anne’s Parishioners:

On behalf of Saint Martha’s Parish, we would like to thank Saint Anne’s parishioners for supporting our recent School Supplies Drive. We recognize that this would not have happened without the hard work and excellent organizational skills of Ally DiOrio and her mom, Carol. In the spirit of Matthew’s Gospel, Chapter 25, they gave of themselves with a most generous spirit. As a result, many children from the Uniondale community were able to begin the academic year with appropriate supplies to help them get off to a strong start.

Please know that we are greatly appreciative of Ally and her mom and we extend our thanks the entire Saint Anne’s faith community for your support.

Sincerely,
Barbara Powell and Marlene Jean-Baptiste
Parish Social Ministry Coordinators

Last week as Tricia Brodersen and I were preparing for the upcoming school year and organizing the Faith Formation office, I noticed that the halls were so quiet - too quiet! Finally, on Tuesday, the halls came alive with the sounds of the children returning for their first day of school. I enjoyed listening to the kids and I’m excited to think of the children who will soon be returning for their first day of Faith Formation. It’s amazing how in this one building so many children learn about their faith, from early in the morning to late in the afternoon. All of the children are welcome in this place and you too are welcome. We are still in need of catechists and if you would like to share your faith experience as a catechist, please call me at 488-1032 or email me at vflood@stannesgc.org.

"But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

Fifteen years ago on September 11th people flocked to churches to pray for our nation, for loved ones tragically taken, and for help to come to terms with what had happened. Today we pause again to remember and to pray. The readings for this Sunday are particularly poignant for this anniversary. They are filled with themes of mercy and forgiveness. In calling for this Extraordinary Year of Mercy, Pope Francis refers to today’s gospel:

In the parables devoted to mercy, Jesus reveals the nature of God as that of a Father who never gives up until he has forgiven the wrong and overcome rejection with compassion and mercy. In these parables, God is always presented as full of joy, especially when he pardons. In them we find the core of the Gospel and of our faith, because mercy is presented as a force that overcomes everything, filling the heart with love and bringing consolation through pardon.

Readings for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

- Amos 8: 4-7
- 1 Timothy 2: 1-8

Mercy... Mercy Question of the Week

When have you waited for someone to come home? Are you ever angry over the generosity extended toward a person you thought did not deserve it? What motivated you to feel this way? How can you change?

©Pastoral Planning

Lectors

Recommitment forms have been mailed to all lectors. Please complete the forms and return them to Sr. Judy (by mail or scan and send to srjudy@stannesgc.org) by September 16th. The forms are also available on our parish website. Thank you for your ministry.

“The Letters”
A Movie – September 20th at 7PM

Last Sunday in Rome, Pope Francis canonized Mother Teresa. For five decades she served the poor of the slums of Calcutta, a place gripped with the sort of poverty we can scarcely imagine. Mother Teresa’s name has become a watchword for love and charity. She founded the Missionaries of Charity who minister to the poor in many parts of the world.

On Tuesday, September 20th the movie, “The Letters” will be presented in the school cafeteria at 7:00PM. As the Church began the canonization process for Mother Teresa more than 6,000 letters of hers came to the attention of the Vatican. These letters showed that throughout her life and ministry, she lived in deep spiritual anguish. In this movie, which tells how Mother Teresa’s ministry began and progressed, we’re shown how even in darkness, light finds a way.

To make sure we have enough chairs, etc. please call Sr. Judy at 352-5904 or by email srjudy@stannesgc.org.

A Children’s Choir

On Monday, September 19th in church there will be an information meeting for children who would be interested in becoming part of a children’s choir here at St. Anne’s. Children in 2nd grade and older are invited to become part of the choir. There will be two opportunities to learn about the choir – either at 3:00PM or at 6:30PM.

Family Mass at Saint Anne’s

Family Mass at Saint Anne’s begins again on Sunday, October 2nd at 10:30AM in McCloskey Auditorium. We are looking forward to celebrating mass with our St. Anne’s families. Come and take part in the Happy Clappers (young children singing), the Family Mass choir (for adults and children), the Family Mass Committee (planning for Family Mass), setting the altar (families), children’s Liturgy of the Word. For more information contact Sr. Judy (srjudy@stannesgc.org or 352-5904)

A Pilgrimage to the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

Christ in Majesty—Located in the North Apse of the Basilica, this mosaic is one of the largest of Christ in the world at 3610 square feet. It contains 3.5 million tesserae of mosaic in 3,000-4,000 total shades of color, 300 of which are shades of red and 200 of which are shades of gold. On the day of dedication, November 20, 1959, this mosaic was the only interior ornamentation of the Upper Church. This is a Byzantine representation of Christ—the Apocalyptic Christ who comes as the absolute reproving Lord and final judge (raised right eyebrow) and with the love and compassion of the Good Shepherd (relaxed left eyebrow). The scarlet cloak signifies Christ as the Redeemer. The span between Christ’s hands (of his outstretched arms which reach out to embrace the world and which are in a position of prayer) is 34 feet across. The span of each hand is five feet across, while the span from his chin to hairline is 7 feet tall.

On Saturday, September 24th you have an opportunity to see this beautiful mosaic as part of our Diocesan pilgrimage for the Year of Mercy. Saint Anne’s is offering a bus for our parishioners. The bus will leave St. Anne’s at 5:45AM and return after the closing Mass at 4:15PM. We will have the opportunity to walk through the Holy Door and receive a plenary indulgence for this Year of Mercy.

Newman Centers
Attention All High School Grads, Parents & Grandparents

Let’s help our young people keep a faith connection while they are in college. Many will be away from home and out on their own, what better way to help them stay grounded and give them a safe place to meet new friends than through their University’s Newman Center. Newman Centers are Catholic ministry centers at non-Catholic universities throughout the country. These Centers provide pastoral services and ministries to their Catholic student population.

It’s simple to make that connection—the only information that is required is the student's first and last name and the name of the college or university they will be attending in September. Then send this information to Marianne Sheridan, Director for Youth Ministry at msheridan@drvc.org. This information will be forwarded to the proper Newman Center and your teen will be welcomed in the fall when they arrive at their school. Let’s help our Young Church stay connected!

Auditions for the Diocesan Choir
The Diocesan Choir of Rockville Centre, which sings for the principal Diocesan liturgies, is currently holding auditions on all voice parts (soprano, alto, tenor, bass). Singers with previous choral experience and basic music reading skills are encouraged to fill out an application form by visiting the choir website at www.drvc.org/diochoir.
