The Importance of Body Language in Making a Positive Impression

In this empowering and informative session, we will view portions of a popular TED talk (over 40 million views) given by Amy Cuddy, titled “Your Body Language Shapes Who You Are,” and engage in collaborative discussion focusing on personal presentation.

Presenting yourself in the most positive manner possible can have an incredible impact on achieving your goals.

Don’t miss this opportunity to learn some tips and interact with peers in the pursuit of being aware of and optimizing your body language for success.

Our presenter is Bill McAndrews, Regional Director for National Executive Service Corps. Our discussion will be moderated by Joe DeMicco, president and founder of the website development and marketing firm, AIMG, Inc.

Our mission is to provide a venue and platform through Saint Anne’s Parish for developing professional connections among people, sharing information and discovering resources. Our goal is to empower those seeking personal or professional growth with actionable information.

Saint Anne’s Professional Networking Group welcomes all parishioners, whether you’re currently seeking employment or professional development or if you are employed and willing to assist others. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at 352-5904 or lindaleone@stannesgc.org.
Dear Parishioners,

Today we complete the eight day Easter Octave and move forward in the 50 day celebration of the Easter Season which culminates with the Solemnity of Pentecost on Sunday, June 4. So much happens during this time at St. Anne’s. Throughout these seven weeks, we seek to be people of Easter faith, that Easter faith first experienced by Mary Magdalene when she arrived at the empty tomb of Jesus. With her discovery and Easter faith, Mary is the first to share in the mission of announcing the Good News: He is Risen.

The gospel we hear today is the same gospel that we hear every year on the Second Sunday of Easter. It is the story of Thomas coming to believe in the Risen Lord. Thomas comes to Easter faith in a very different way than did Mary. Thomas is resistant to the belief that the other apostles shared.

The apostles come to Easter faith behind locked doors. Their fear causes them to hide. Jesus stands in their midst and addresses them “Peace be with you.” He shows them his wounds and they rejoice. The Risen Lord then commissions them and breathes on them saying, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” Jesus then empowers them to forgive sins.

As I reflect on this gospel, I am struck how Jesus meets head on those elements of human experience that may cause resistance to faith. He meets the disciples as they cower in fear. He brings peace where there is confusion, sadness, and disillusion. He breathes on them, sharing life where there was once death. He insists on forgiveness where there is sin. The presence of the Risen Lord is powerful and overcomes obstacles of many different kinds.

The gospel then goes on to tell the story of Thomas. Here the Risen Lord overcomes Thomas’ skepticism. Thomas’ earlier statement of “I will not believe” is transformed into “My Lord and my God.” The presence of the Risen Lord in a person’s life brings transformation.

The appearance stories of the Risen Lord in the gospels often tell us how Jesus transformed the life of a particular person or a few people. Today’s first reading from the Acts of the Apostles demonstrates for us how belief in the Risen Lord transforms an entire community. The communal life is described in many different ways. They gathered for teaching, for the sharing of meals, for prayers. They shared property and possessions and addressed the needs of others. The description concludes telling us they grew everyday.

We have heard frequently the theme of Dramatic Missionary Growth that Bishop Barres raises at every opportunity. This first reading from the Acts of the Apostles surely provides inspiration for Dramatic Missionary Growth. In some ways, we see how even in our time there are elements of this description from the Acts of the Apostles still present in our experience of community. In other ways, we know this reading challenges us to an increased sense of sharing and generosity. Our lives are now more complex; the communities in which we live include diversity of religious belief and practice; economics and the principles of capitalism dictate often how we do business and commerce. Still, the divides between the rich and poor, the hungry and the well-satisfied, and other divides present in our society and culture cry out for a leadership in Christian communities that is inspired and directed by the Easter faith that we celebrate these 50 days. It is this Easter faith that will lead to Dramatic Missionary Growth.

MEN’S CLOTHING COLLECTION

We often get inquiries about accepting clothing for those in need. Today from 9:30AM to 1:00PM outside of church or in McCloskey Auditorium lobby if raining, two girl scouts will be collecting men’s clothing for participants in a faith based recovery program for men who have been suffering substance abuse. Maryann and Marisa are working on this clothing collection as part of their Silver Award for Girl Scouts. They are giving us all a good opportunity to share some good clothing with those who will use it.

PLAYS & PROMS, CONFIRMATIONS & COMMUNIONS

These next several weeks will involve some special events for the young people of the parish. Next weekend is the school play. Students will act, sing, and dance through the scenes of Mary Poppins. Weeks are spent in preparation for the play. Performances are at 7:30PM on Saturday and 2:00PM on Sunday. All parishioners are invited to support the St. Anne’s School students and enjoy the play.

On Friday, April 28, St. Anne’s kicks off the 2017 prom season with our annual Respite Prom. The prom theme is Aloha Luau and involves dancing, games, dinner and lots of smiles and good friendship. The prom includes the Respite participants and lots of teenage and adult volunteers who help to make this prom a great success year after year.

Rehearsals will take place on Tuesday, April 25th for all our Confirmation candidates. Bishop Brennan will be here on Monday, May 1 to confirm about 200 St. Anne’s students from Faith Formation and the parish school. We have been preparing for Confirmation for two years with classes, retreats, service projects, and parent-child meetings. A lot of effort goes into Confirmation preparation and the celebration; the day has always been a very happy one for everybody involved. We are all looking forward to May 1.

On the first three Saturdays of May we are celebrating First Holy Communions with our second graders and their families. These are among my favorite days in parish life. They are one of the few occasions when everybody wants to be here to join with these beautiful children as they receive Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion. Many of us will be getting invitations to First Communion parties. Know there is always room in the Church for anyone who wishes to come to the First Communion Mass.

Dramatic Mission Growth flows from Easter Faith!

Peace be to you!

Fr. Tom
Thank You for Easter Basket and Food Donations

Dear Parishioners of Saint Anne’s,

Thank you so much for the beautiful Easter baskets for the kids. Since our parish outreach center is closed from April 12 through Easter, we put them out early. The families were all so grateful. There were 4 baskets left over and we will give them to the parents who come for food this week – their kids will be glad to know the Easter bunny made a stop here! Also, thank you for the food donations, we were running very low and you filled our shelves up. May you have a blessed, healthy and safe Easter, thanks again.

Gratefully,
Lucy Gerin, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Parish Social Ministry

Today’s gospel tells us how the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. One of them, Thomas was not present and when he heard his doubt was strong. “Unless I see the mark of the nails….put my hand in is side, I will not believe!” A week later, when confronted with the Risen Lord, his stubborn doubt became unwavering faith. “My Lord and my God!” The risen Jesus is relentless in coaxing out our faith. We see and touch the risen Jesus in our encounters with his Presence as the Spirit works in and through us. Our faith is strengthened by our doing when we meet the Lord in everyone we encounter during the day. Let our actions speak of our belief that we, too, “have seen the Lord.

Holy Week at Saint Anne’s

As a parish community we celebrated our holiest time of the year, Holy Week. Beginning with Palm Sunday we recalled Jesus’ entrance into Jerusalem as we blessed palm and brought it to our homes. At the Mass of the Lords’ Supper on Holy Thursday evening, the Oil of Catechumens, Sacred Chrism and the Oil of the Sick, blessed earlier in the day by Bishop Barres at the Chrism Mass at St. Agnes Cathedral, were presented and stored in the Ambry for use throughout the upcoming year. Holy Thursday brought us to the Upper Room as we listened to the Gospel story of Jesus washing the feet of his disciples and telling us to do as he did. Father Tom thanked those who had come to have their feet washed and in his homily reminded us all, “We need the Eucharist as much as we ever have, perhaps now more than ever.” After the Mass, the Eucharist was reposed in the St. Therese Chapel where we prayed in adoration.

Not pictured Pat Esculish, Marion Feeney, Joe DePaolo and Rosemary D’Alessandro who also had their feet washed.
Easter Vigil

At the Easter Vigil we celebrated the Baptism of Fusun Dinc. Fusun chose the name Frances for her Baptism. We also welcomed into Full Communion in the Catholic Church, Gabriel Carino and Laura Martinez. The Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated with Fusun Dinc and James Gottlieb. Receiving Communion for the first time were Fusun, James, Gabriel and Laura.

We welcome Fusun, Gabriel, Laura, and James into our St. Anne’s Community!
Easter Sunday

Our church—beautiful inside and out
For the elderly on Long Island, Meals-on-Wheels is a lifesaver. Every weekday, the program delivers hot, nutritious meals to seniors who are homebound in Nassau and Suffolk counties. Meals-on-Wheels case managers can also assist these clients in accessing other services they might need.

“I knew something was wrong as soon as I saw him,” explains Steve, a driver for Catholic Charities’ Meals-on-Wheels. Steve had been delivering meals to Ed for several years and upon arriving that fateful day, immediately observed that he seemed disoriented.

Steve knew Ed was diabetic, so he checked his blood sugar and saw that it was low. He poured him some orange juice but sensed there was something more serious going on. “I kept asking him to let me call 911 but he resisted. I couldn’t accept that so I just casually stuck around, making my case. He finally admitted that he didn’t have anyone to care for his dog if he was hospitalized, so I promised I would, and that’s when he gave me the green light to call.”

It was a good thing, too. At the hospital Ed was diagnosed with a serious blood infection that kept him there for nearly four months. In the meantime, Steve cared for the dog until Ed’s sister arrived from out of town.

Your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal support so many programs that help us to serve our seniors and others who come to us for help each day.
