Christmas Eve and Christmas Day at St. Anne’s

Preparing the Church for Christmas

Our beautifully decorated Church

Altar servers
Dear Parishioners,

The story of the Epiphany I find to be one of the more instructive gospels of the Christmas narrative. To play on the Epiphany theme of light, I would suggest the story is most illuminating. Today’s Solemnity is one of a great tradition and lore. Over the centuries, we have added details to the story as it is found in Luke’s gospel. Most of the added tradition centers on the magi. Read closely, we realize the gospel never says there were three. Perhaps the tradition of three wise men understandably developed because of the mention of three gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. We have even assigned names to the magi, Gaspar, Balthasar, and Melchior. Nowhere in the New Testament are these names to be found. The Epiphany story illustrates for us how our faith and its traditions are closely tied to imagination. What is important to remember about religious imagination is that religious imagination is not linked to fantasy. Religious imagination is another means, among many others, to bring us closer to the truth. So the details we have added to the Epiphany story are not fantasy; they are the use of religious imagination that helps to imprint this Solemnity on our religious sensibilities. And the Epiphany story is an important one because it teaches us so much.

First and foremost, the Epiphany proclaims that the Incarnation, the Birth of Jesus is for all people. And all are invited to be received into Jesus’s presence. The Catechism of the Catholic Church expresses the meaning of this Solemnity: “The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Savior of the world. The great feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi) from the East, together with his baptism in the Jordan and wedding feast of Cana in Galilee. In the magi, representatives of the neighboring pagan religions, the Gospel sees the first-fruits of the nations, who welcome the good news of salvation through the Incarnation. The magi’s coming to Jerusalem in order to pay homage to the king of the Jews shows that they seek in Israel, in the messianic light of the star of David, the one who will be king of the nations. Their coming means that pagans can discover Jesus and worship him as Son of God and Savior of the world only by turning towards the Jews and receiving from them the messianic promise as contained in the Old Testament. The Epiphany shows that ‘the full number of the nations’ now takes its ‘place in the family of patriarchs’, and acquires Israëlitica dignitas (is made ‘worthy of the heritage of Israel’).” (CCC528)

The above teaching from the Catechism is a rather theological presentation of the Epiphany that explains its meaning in the context of salvation history. It is an important teaching; at the same time a reflective and meditative reading of the Epiphany story yields additional personal lessons and reminders.

First, the gift of the star to the magi suggests how God can give us many different gifts to attract our attention and offer us guidance and direction, even at times comfort and consolation. For the magi, it was the rising star in the darkened sky. This star gave the magi light and direction. For us God can get our attention in many different ways. Sometimes it is something in nature that speaks to us of the presence of God. Some refer to this kind of experience as a sign. For others it is seeing the presence of the Lord in another person, sometimes in weakness, sometimes in holiness, sometimes in goodness, sometimes in need. Our recognition of the Lord’s presence in another person enlivens our faith and sometimes prompts our action. All these kinds of experiences are epiphanies. People of faith have them.

The three gifts of the magi are often explained as having symbolic meanings. Gold-royalty; frankincense-holiness; myrrh-death. The three gifts of the magi remind us all that we have something to give. We may feel we have little; yet we all have something. How important it is to remember in family life, in community life, and in parish life that we are all gifted with something to give, with something to bring to the table. Perhaps at Christmas we have just been reminded of that truth. The most vulnerable of persons, the newborn, even the awaited child still in the womb, brings great joy to others. Every human person has something to enrich the lives of others. It is important to identify that gift and be willing and generous to share. One of the strengths of St. Anne’s is that so many persons give in all sorts of different ways and together so much good is able to be accomplished.

Another lesson of the Epiphany story comes at the conclusion and when warned in a dream of the evil of Herod, the magi go home by another way. I find this to be a very important lesson and reminder. God is often suggesting that we consider “another route.” We all develop habits and routines. Often times these work very well in our lives. We treasure customs and traditions. Often times these are sources of happiness. We have convictions and beliefs and ways of thinking. Often times, they have served us well. Often times, the Lord may have a different suggestion. Maybe a regular habit of prayer could be strengthened or take an additional meaning. Maybe a family tradition could be expanded and made more inclusive. Maybe a conviction, belief, a way of thinking can be given a rest because there is a greater call to an expression of forgiveness, reconciliation, or greater generosity. Sometimes, as it was for the magi, and for Joseph, the Lord may present these “suggestions” to us in our sleeping moments. We need not be afraid of “another way.” Sometimes it is offered by the Lord.

Happy Epiphany!

Fa. Tom
PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

LOAVES AND FISHES
Faith in action is love, and love in action is service.
By transforming that faith into living acts of love,
we put ourselves into contact with God himself, with Jesus.
~ Saint Teresa of Calcutta

Thank You So Much!
Stories of how Saint Anne’s has truly made a difference in the lives of people who are struggling continue to come back to us. The response from parishioners to our Sponsor a Family program has been tremendous, as was the response to our Angel Gift program in support of children who live in Catholic Charities residences due to difficult circumstances. The Charities staff members were overwhelmingly grateful for the generosity of Saint Anne’s in providing so many thoughtful gifts for the children they assist! The families who received food and gifts from the parish outreach centers in Wyandanch and Uniondale were touched by the goodness of those who offered help during this holiday season. We are especially grateful to all who help make Jesus known by sharing their gifts in service to people in need.

Weekly Food Drive

Many thanks to all who assist with the mission of Loaves and Fishes – to help provide food and other necessities for the many struggling families in our local area. In addition to those who faithfully bring food to the Loaves and Fishes closets, we are grateful to all who help load cars for the weekly food deliveries.

Why not start the year off by being one of our weekly food donors!

Creation Care Team

now forming at Saint Anne’s….

Are you inspired by the message of Pope Francis, clearly stated in the papal encyclical, “On Care for our Common Home – Laudato Si’”? The Pope calls us to act with hope and resolve in addressing our environmental challenges and endeavoring to improve the condition of our planet. If you are interested in joining a group of like-minded parishioners who will be exploring ways we can increase our awareness of these needs, rooted in the fundamental aspects of our Catholic faith, please contact Linda Leone at 352-5904 or lindaleone@stannesgc.org.

Resilience … You are not alone

Next Meeting—February 2, 2017

Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Respite Care

The next session of Respite will take place on Friday, January 20th from 6:00PM to 8:00PM in the McCloskey Auditorium and cafeteria. Please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 352-5904 for any information.

Respite Care

Saint Anne’s Senior Ministry

Our parish is happy to offer support to our senior parishioners. We help them stay connected to Saint Anne's through the dedicated efforts of our Homebound Visitors, Telephone Network, EM's who bring Holy Communion, nurses, volunteers who deliver flowers and send cards, and our Senior Newsletter.

If you're interested in getting involved, please contact Evelyn Schwantner at 488-7516 or Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904 or lindaleone@stannesgc.org.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

The Epiphany of the Lord

"Behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem saying, ‘Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.’"

In this day and age we would never take a long road trip without a GPS or the WAZE app on our phone! We always want to be sure that we have the best route, the best roads, and make the trip in the best time. We try not to leave anything to chance! It is hard for us to put our heads around the thought that these travelers from the East left their homes, following a star, looking for a child in a foreign land. The gifts they bring are not the latest toys or gift card but symbolic gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. They could not have known that the gift they received in return was the gift of God, born as a child in a small village far from their own homes. The story tells us that they followed a star and that star led them to the child. Is there a “star” in your life, a person who leads you to Christ?

Readings for The Epiphany of the Lord

- Isaiah 60: 1-6
- Ephesians 3: 2-3a, 5-6
- Matthew 2: 1-12

Begin the New Year with a Catholic Calendar
