NYPD Detective Steven McDonald - a Man of Faith

“Steven McDonald spoke about his faith last December to our 200+ Confirmation candidates... I observed how much stronger Steven was then compared to when I first met him more than 20 years ago. Steven, immediately responded, ‘Father what did you expect? I pray everyday.’”

Epiphany 2017 at Family Mass

Last Sunday, despite the snow and cold, the Feast of the Epiphany was celebrated at Family Mass with our Three Kings from the Christmas Pageant, Michael, Antonio and Jack reviving their roles by placing the figures of the Three Kings in the manger and presenting the gifts at the Offertory. Each family received chalk to mark their home doorway with 20+C+M+B+17 (20 and 17 to mark the year, CMB - Christus mansionem benedicat – May Christ bless this house) and a blessing prayer for their home. After Mass we gathered for hospitality in the cafeteria. Here are some pictures of our St. Anne’s families!
Dear Parishioners,

We have now concluded the Advent and Christmas seasons and have moved into the Ordinary Time on the liturgical calendar. The liturgical texts describe Ordinary Time: “Besides the times of the year that have their own distinctive character, there remains in the yearly cycle of thirty-three or thirty-four weeks in which no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ itself is honored in its fullness, especially on Sundays. This period is known as Ordinary Time.”

The term “Ordinary” here is not a reference to the meaning given to “Ordinary” that refers to the customary, the regular, or usual. Ordinary Time is the liturgical season without an exceptional character like the expectant waiting of Advent or the joy of Easter. The term “Ordinary” stems from the use of the ordinal numbers defined as a number indicating position in a series or order. The ordinal numbers are first (1st), second (2nd), third (3rd) etc. For Ordinary Time we use the ordinal numbers to mark the passage of time moving from the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time to the Third Sunday all the way to the Thirty-third or Thirty-fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time.

This year Ordinary Time began on Tuesday, January 10 and continues through Tuesday, February 28, the day before Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Lenten season. It will resume when the Easter season ends, that is on Monday, June 5, the day following Pentecost. Ordinary Time will continue through the summer and fall months and conclude on Saturday December 2 after which we begin a new Church year with the First Sunday of Advent on December 3.

SUNDAY READINGS

Although we have concluded the Advent and Christmas Seasons, the readings might not make that clear. As has been the case the past six weeks, our first reading again comes from the prophet Isaiah. And the gospel story is about John the Baptist.

In the middle of the first reading, Isaiah proclaims for Israel, “My God is my strength.” People of faith and trust in the Lord know that experience. Surely Steven McDonald who passed away this past week was a living example of Isaiah’s proclamation and this kind of faith. As I shared with you in Advent, Steven spoke about his faith last December to our 200+ Confirmation candidates. He spoke of his parents nurturing his faith as he was growing up. He shared about how his faith and family sustained him during these many years of his recovery from his shooting. I will always remember my conversation with Steven in the St. Anne’s parking lot as he was preparing to return home. I observed how much stronger Steven was then as compared to when I first met him more than twenty years ago. Steven, immediately responded, “Father what did you expect? I pray everyday.” Steven’s living example and his few words to me that night speak volumes about the power of faith and prayer. Steven made so real today’s reading from Isaiah, “My God is now my strength.”

In the middle reading St. Paul in his opening words of his letter to the Corinthians reminds the people of their sanctity and call to holiness. How important it is that we recognize our own holiness and the holiness of one another. Holiness is the presence of God. Our baptismal faith believes in the sanctity and holiness of every human person. What I draw from this reading today partly comes from where this reminder to sanctity and holiness comes in this reading: at the very beginning. The suggestion for me is that an awareness of sanctity and holiness is a good place to begin every human encounter and interaction. Begin with an awareness of the goodness of another. Begin with a sense of God’s presence in another. Beginning a human encounter and interaction with an awareness of the call to sanctity and holiness would lead to more civil, helpful, and kind exchange between persons, even strangers. As we remember tomorrow the life and message of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. I think Dr. King was calling all of us to recognize the sanctity of every human person. As we move forward with our national transition in government and hear from many a call for increased civil discourse in our conversations, political and otherwise, an awareness of the call to sanctity and holiness could prove quite helpful.

This gospel offers to me two reminders:

1. Encountering Jesus and relationship with the Lord is always bringing change into our lives. The purpose of that change is to draw us closer to the Lord.

2. Does my understanding and awareness of God reflect the understanding that Jesus presented during his ministry; a God of compassion and mercy?

Peace to you and all those you love.

Fa. Tony

LOAVES AND FISHES

I would like to recall the Seven Corporal Works of Mercy, because it will be good to hear them again: to feed the hungry; to give drink to the thirsty; to clothe the naked; to harbor the homeless; to visit the sick; to visit the imprisoned; to bury the dead. I encourage you to carry on your work with joy and to model it after Christ’s, allowing all who suffer to encounter you and count on you in time of need.

~ Pope Francis Address, June 14, 2014

Weekly Food Drive

Many thanks to all who assist with the mission of Loaves and Fishes – to help provide food and other necessities for the many struggling families in our local area. In addition to those who faithfully bring food to the Loaves and Fishes closets, we are grateful to all who help load cars for the weekly food deliveries. If you would like to help, please call Barbara Tranfaglia at 741-0629 or Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.

Two cars are filled to capacity for a food delivery to St. Mary of the Isle in Long Beach last Monday.

Why not start the year off by being one of our weekly food donors!

Souper Bowl Sunday

In January, everyone seems to talk about the upcoming Super Bowl. We try to use the Super Bowl as a reminder to collect soup for the parish outreach centers we serve. This year the Super Bowl is on February 5th. From this point on until February 5th when you come to Church, please think about bringing soup with you. If you have teens that would like to help serve those in need, you might encourage them to have a local soup or canned food collection in your immediate neighborhood.

Resilience … You are not alone

Next Meeting—February 9, 2017

Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

The Pope calls us to act with hope and resolve in addressing our environmental challenges and endeavoring to improve the condition of our planet. If you are interested in joining a group of like-minded parishioners who will be exploring ways we can increase our awareness of these needs, rooted in the fundamental aspects of our Catholic faith, please contact Linda Leone at 352-5904 or lindaleone@stannesgc.org.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.”

What is interesting in John’s account of John the Baptist is that he approaches it differently than the other evangelists. Matthew, Mark and Luke tell the story as Jesus is baptized by John the Baptist. John the evangelist tells it as John testifying to the story of baptizing Jesus. He had seen and experienced Jesus and then testifies to the truth of what he saw and heard, Jesus is the Son of God. Like John, we do not know Jesus until our baptism initiates us into a lifelong encounter with “the Lamb of God.” If we are open to this lifelong encounter it will permeate every corner of our lives. This past week Cardinal Tobin was installed as the new bishop of Newark, New Jersey. In his remarks he stated that he feels that the greatest challenge facing the church today is the chasm between life and faith. Let us each begin to close the chasm between life and faith in our own lives by praying each day the words of today’s psalm, “Here am I Lord, I come to do your will.”

Saint Anne’s Youth Ministry

Next Meeting - Sunday, January 22nd 6:30PM in the cafeteria

This past Sunday our Youth Group invited some of our graduates who are currently in college to come speak with our high school members. We were fortunate to have Regan Marooney, Andrew Wykowski, Brigid Stenson, Emily Merz and Danny LaRosa join us for the meeting. All of them shared their experiences about college life, including how they have been able to continually develop their faith while away at school. The five returning members then answered questions from our high school teens. It's really wonderful to hear the wisdom from our returning graduates and we always welcome them to any of our events.

At the recent “Alumni” meeting, college students Andrew Wykowski, Brigid Stenson, Emily Merz & Regan Marooney spoke to the group about adjusting to college and maintaining an active faith life.

Teens come from various high schools and all are always welcome.

New members are invited to join at any time.
