Dear Parishioners,

Today is an event filled day at St. Anne’s and the gospel we hear surely orients us for what we do today and this coming week. Connected to the 8:30 Mass this morning we begin our Pre-Cana program for engaged couples. At the 11:45 Mass we begin our celebration of Catholic Schools week. On Tuesday, January 31 we welcome Bishop John Barres as he begins his ministry as Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre. The gospel of the Beatitudes that we hear today is a good place to begin a reflection on all these important activities and occasions.

Found in the fifth chapter of Matthew’s Gospel, the Beatitudes begin the Sermon on the Mount which is the start of the teaching ministry of Jesus. We might describe the Beatitudes in all sorts of ways: Jesus’ opening lesson; a blueprint for Christian living; Jesus’ charter statement; a vision and mission statement for all disciples. No question, the Beatitudes, this collection of sayings and teachings, is an important moment for Jesus and for us.

Of course, the Beatitudes encourage particular virtues. (Please note I deliberately use virtues rather than values. As Christians we are about virtues, lived experiences, more than we are about values which can be spoken about, debated, not necessarily lived.) The Beatitudes encourage the virtues of mercy, compassion, justice, peacemaking, simplicity, humility, and other related virtues. We are called to seek and live the Beatitudes.

Notice the grammatical structure of each Beatitude. Each begins with a statement of the virtue that Jesus preaches. Blessed are they who mourn; Blessed are the meek etc. And then comes the conjunction for, which is followed by the future tense use of a verb. For example; Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. The conjunction for joins the two clauses, the second of which points to the future. Connected to each beatitude, Jesus offers a promise that brought his listeners to a consideration of what lie ahead. The Beatitudes are the foundation for my thought that Jesus is always beckoning people forward to a different way of acting, thinking, believing, and living. Accepting the invitation and challenge offered by the Beatitudes is the pathway to eternal life and those promises offered in the second part of each beatitude.

As I have often reflected this past year, faith is about moving forward, drawing closer to the Lord. We use learnings and practices of the past, but the movement of faith is one of moving forward and closer to the Lord. The celebrations of this week do just that.

The Sacrament of Marriage is a cornerstone of family life. Every time a man and woman promise their vows they begin a new family. Their relationship of wife and husband opens up a whole new world of experiences for them. Together they move forward in living this sacrament. Their faith journey is shared in all sorts of ways. Unsurprisingly, they live the Beatitudes in relationship to one another as they share mercy, peacemaking, simplicity of heart, and mourn together. Pre-Cana offers some guidance and assistance as they begin the marriage journey. Once married, they learn so much together. Pre-Cana offers some framework so they have some Catholic orientation as they go forward and meet the challenges of being wife and husband. We begin today with 19 couples, a high number for us. We look forward to those celebrations taking place at St. Anne’s. Many thanks to those married couples who share their insight and experience as our Pre-Cana facilitators and hosts.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Today we begin Catholic Schools Week with the 11:45 Mass. Ours is a wonderfully strong Catholic parish school. We have great students, dedicated teachers, loving parents, a helpful staff, and an experienced, wise, faith-filled new principal. Our 525 students make us one of the larger elementary parish schools in the diocese.

Our school excels. Our Catholic high school acceptance rate for our students is 100%. All our students have the opportunity for Catholic High School if they wish. Each student taking the entrance test can make three applications. Our acceptance rate for all applications is about 97%. That is phenomenal and might be the best in the diocese.

Most importantly ours is a school of faith. We pray everyday. We have Mass monthly and individual class Masses through the year. Students of all grades get involved in service. The service is in the parish and often extends beyond.

What I find most striking about our parish school is that it is a happy place. Kids smile. They are friendly. They are courteous. They practice respect. I’m sure it is true that students learn better in a happy environment. This kind of atmosphere is key to St. Anne’s School.

Our school is a place of learning. At St. Anne’s we learn and try to live the Beatitudes. In that spirit, our school is always moving forward. Because it is a genuine and authentic Catholic school of learning, it is not perfect. Mistakes are made. We discover we need to try something new. But the bedrock of our parish school is the faith we share and the teachings of Jesus and the happiness of the students. In the spirit of the Beatitudes we continue to move forward with excitement and confidence in educating and forming our students in their Catholic faith.

BISHOP JOHN BARRES

Along with all Catholics and parishes of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, we welcome on Tuesday, Bishop John Barres as the fifth Bishop of the Diocese. Bishop Barres comes to us from the Diocese of Allentown. He will lead Long Island’s 1.5 million Catholics forward as our spiritual leader. The role of the bishop is to sanctify, teach, and govern. The arrival of a new bishop brings anticipation and excitement as we look forward to getting to know Bishop Barres.

Bishop William Murphy concludes his sixteen years as our diocesan bishop. Bishop Murphy came to know Long Island very quickly and made himself very available to all the diocese from our neighborhood of western Nassau to Montauk Point. Many ministries have grown in our diocese during Bishop Murphy’s time. Bishop Murphy’s love for the Church, his commitment to its teaching, and his personal energy and enthusiasm to preach and teach the gospel message are among the many gifts that he brought to us during his time and ministry as Bishop. We wish him continued good health and continued joy as he exercises his ministry as our Bishop Emeritus.

Enjoy a peace-filled week.

Resilience … You are not alone
Meeting on Thursday, February 9th at 7:30PM
Rectory Meeting Room
Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

“Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

We cannot “DO” the beatitudes. We can only “BECOME” the beatitudes. When we live this way of life our disposition and attitude toward God and what is important in life shine through. Little by little we become the poor in spirit, those who mourn, the meek, those who seek justice, merciful, clean of heart, and peacemakers. Jesus calls each one of us to be blessed. What is the quality of the Beatitudes that you need to grow in so that your life will be blessed?

Feast of St. Blaise and St. Ansgar—February 3rd

Saint Blaise ( +316AD) and St. Ansgar (801-865AD) wanted to care for souls. Saint Blaise was the bishop of Sebastea, in Armenia. His witness of the Gospel eventually led him to be martyred during the persecutions of Diocetian. His feast is commemorated with a blessing of throats because legend says that he cured a young boy choking on a fish bone. St. Ansgar was born in France. He was a monk who had a missionary heart. He brought the saving message of Jesus to Scandinavia. He established missions in Denmark, Sweden and Norway.

On this feast day, Friday February 3rd we will bless throats at our daily Mass at 9AM.

“Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, May God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness.”

From the Book of Blessing.

New Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Bless Christina and Paul who have been chosen to give the bread of heaven and the cup of salvation to your faithful people.
May the saving mysteries they distribute lead them to the joys of eternal life.

St. Anne’s
Spiritual Adoption Prayer Program
January 22 - Oct 22

Everyone loves the beauty and innocence of a baby. As an expression of that love, we will begin a Spiritual Adoption Prayer Program on Sunday, January 22.

St. Anne’s Respect Life Ministry invites you to “spiritually adopt” a child who is newly conceived this month, and to pray daily for that baby for the next 9 months. Not all newly conceived babies are allowed to be born. Babies lose their lives to abortion each day. It is these babies that you are being asked to “spiritually adopt.”

Please take a spiritual adoption prayer card located in the lobby of the Church and use it to pray for your child and all unborn children in danger of abortion as well as their mothers and fathers who are experiencing personal uncertainties during their pregnancies. You may name the child for whom you will be praying and thereby share a special, personal bond with your baby.
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre for the past 15 years, I have had the great honor and privilege of serving and ministering to our Catholic family on Long Island. Witnessing first hand your incredible generosity, I thank you.

Because of your commitment, our Diocese is able to support critical charitable, educational and spiritual ministries which bring the light of the Lord to more than 600,000 people each year, including new initiatives that truly highlight what we can only do with your support.

We are continually developing programs for our young people who are so important for the future vitality of our Church.

On College Campuses across Long Island, a new program was recently created called the Newman Connection. Its purpose is to give high school students the ability to locate a Catholic presence on their new college campuses even before leaving home for college. Working with high schools and parishes - in its first year more than 2,000 students connected through this innovative program.

Our Vocation Office works closely with pastors, high school and college chaplains, sports and youth groups, teachers and families to reach out to young men who are discerning a call to serve as Priests in our Diocese. Throughout 2016 these many efforts included a monthly Diocesan Holy Hour for Vocations, which more than 600 young people regularly attended.

Our Office of Faith Formation continues to develop religious education programs and training to enhance their work with local parishes and their catechetical leaders to better serve the more than 100,000 youngsters from the first grade through the time they receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

These are just some of the programs that you make possible and we are so deeply grateful for your extraordinary sacrifices to support the work of our Church. There is still so much more we can accomplish together, and I ask you to join with me in making a gift to the 2017 Catholic Ministries Appeal, and in welcoming our new Bishop, Most Reverend John Barres to our wonderful community.

Your generosity and commitment fills me with confidence that many wonderful things will continue to take place in our Diocese as we bring the light of the Lord to others.

With my prayers and gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Apostolic Administrator

January 29, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The Diocese of Rockville Centre will join all the dioceses in our nation in celebrating National Catholic Schools Week from January 29 - February 4, 2017. The theme for this year is Catholic Schools - Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service. This theme encompasses concepts that are at the heart of Catholic education. Our schools strive to build community, share faith, increase our students’ knowledge and encourage dedication to service. Each time I am in one of our schools I encounter teachers, administrators, and parents committed to making sure that each student lives up to his or her potential to learn and to be formed in the Catholic faith.

Catholic schools have a rich history in supporting the work of on-going evangelization of the Catholic community in the United States. Our schools are built on the bedrock of the teachers and administrators who dedicate their time and talents to educating all children. We must also recognize our priests, religious and support staff for the work they do each and every day to spread the Gospel to our young people. Together we make great things happen on a daily basis in our Catholic schools. Our schools focus daily on the value of Catholic education and contribution it makes our Church, communities and to the world.

The Diocese has much to be proud of. Our Catholic elementary and high schools are wonderful examples of academic and spiritual excellence. Our schools are committed to always growing in faith and living in Gospel. We invite you to come and see this for yourselves during Catholic Schools Week where you will experience our Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service in action.

With my prayers and my gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
