The Virtue of Hope

Join us as we discuss the virtue of hope and our call to be people of hope in times that are joyful and in times that are challenging.

Saint Anne’s Professional Networking group offers great opportunities to network, to share resources and to find support. At the core, we are a parish group in the Saint Anne's faith community. This meeting, which will be held in the Saint Therese Chapel, will focus on how to grow in our awareness of God in our lives and develop resilience so we may cope more effectively with personal and professional challenges.

Thank you to Deacon Bob McCarthy and Jim McGurren for leading this meeting. All are welcome to attend.

Changing Rejection's Darkness into Inspiration's Light

Tom McGinley will lead a discussion based on Jia Jiang’s 100 day journey of desensitizing himself from the pain of rejection and overcoming his fear. The goal of Tom’s presentation is to develop a better understanding of what rejection really is, and to develop strategies for turning rejection’s darkness into inspiration’s light.

Saint Anne’s Professional Networking Group welcomes all parishioners, whether you’re currently seeking employment or professional development or if you’re employed and willing to assist others. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at 352-5904 or lindaleone@stannesgc.org

Dear Parishioners,

Seven weeks ago, we gathered in very large crowds for Easter Sunday. Today we come for the fiftieth day of the Easter Season, the Solemnity of Pentecost, the sending of the Holy Spirit. Some refer to Pentecost as the birthday of the Church. We do conclude the Easter Season today and begin again that procession of weeks known as Ordinary Time. The sending of the Holy Spirit assures us that God is indeed with us as we make our pilgrimage through these numbered weeks. We had a few weeks of Ordinary Time between Christmas and Ash Wednesday, so on Monday our liturgical calendar reads, Monday of the 9th week of Ordinary Time. The next two Sundays we will celebrate Trinity Sunday and the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, formerly known as Corpus Christi. Only on Sunday, June 25 will we refer to that Sunday as the 12th Sunday of Ordinary Time.

The question for Pentecost remains, “Who is the Holy Spirit” and what does the Holy Spirit mean for our lives? In the Catechism of the Catholic Church as the Church explicates the meaning of the Creed which we profess every Sunday at Mass, we are taught: “No one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.” Now God’s Spirit, who reveals God, makes known to us Christ, his Word, his living Utterance, but the Spirit does not speak of himself. The Spirit who has spoken through the prophets makes us hear the Father’s Word, but we do not hear the Spirit himself. We know him only in the movement by which he reveals the Word to us and disposes us to welcome him in faith. The Spirit of truth who unveils Christ to us will not speak on his own. Such properly divine self-effacement explains why ‘the world cannot receive (him), because it neither sees him nor knows him,’ while those who believe in Christ know the Spirit because he dwells with them.” Although this writing of the catechism contains complexity, its teaching that the Holy Spirit is known by his movement and indwelling gives a clear sense that the Holy Spirit brings God’s life and power into our lives.

The Catechism goes on to explain how the Church “is the place where we know the Holy Spirit:
- in the Scriptures he inspired;
- in the Tradition, to which the Church Fathers are always timely witnesses;
- in the Church’s Magisterium, which he assists;
- in the sacramental liturgy, through its words and symbols, in which the Holy Spirit puts us into communion with Christ;
- in prayer, wherein he intercedes for us;
- in the ministries and charisms by which the Church is built up;
- in the signs of apostolic and missionary life;
- in the witness of saints through whom he manifests his holiness and continues the work of salvation.”

Again, this listing in the Catechism is filled with theology and at the same time communicates a real sense of the powerful and dynamic presence of the Spirit in the Church. Together we seek to know this Holy Spirit in the dynamic life of our parish. Yes, it is good and helpful that we know the teaching of the Church regarding the Holy Spirit. Just as importantly we need personally to know and identify the Holy Spirit in our own lives.

The Easter Season Mass readings can be understood as organized in three sections. The first eight days of Eastertide, the Easter Octave, the gospel readings focus on the appearances of the Risen Lord. The long middle four weeks of the Easter Season, the focus comes from the Acts of the Apostles and the mission and ministry activity recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. These final weeks of the Easter Season the focus turns to Jesus’ words about the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit has many images and titles. Images include dove, water, fire, wind; titles include Paraclete, Advocate, Consoler, Comforter. Themes include peace, guide, life. We speak of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord (wonder).

In one of the stories about an appearance of the Risen Lord, Jesus appears to the apostles in the Upper Room and we are told he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” This gospel has led me to my own personal appreciation and understanding of the Holy Spirit as the very life breath of God. Jesus died from suffocation on the cross. For me, it is striking that we are told in one of the first appearance stories of the resurrected Jesus that he breathed on them and commanded in that same breath, “Receive the Holy Spirit.”

My understanding of the Holy Spirit as the very life breath of God reminds me of the powerful, life-giving presence of the Holy Spirit in my life, yours, and the life of the Church. How much we need to desire this presence in our lives and in the Church, and in our parish. With that life-giving breath of God dwelling in us and giving us life, we will receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit and witness to others their power.

The gospel for today, we again hear this story of the Risen Lord breathing on them and saying, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” We hear also about the gifts of peace and forgiveness. In the first reading, we hear the disciples gathered and the Spirit coming as tongues of fire. It leads to gifts of language and understanding. The middle reading proclaims the familiar theme of “different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; different forms of service but the same Lord.” Today’s Solemnity of Pentecost binds us together in the life of the Holy Spirit. The Solemnity also assures us of the personal gifts the Spirit gives to each one of us. Pentecost illumines for us who we are as a Church and who we hope to be as a parish.

Have a blessed and peace-filled day!

Fa. Tom
Dear Parishioners of Saint Anne’s Church:

Wow! Once again we are truly thankful and awestruck by the amazing work you all have done. The gift bags are simply divine. They are chic yet practical and all the goodies inside truly made Mother’s Day even more special for our courageous young mothers. Such a lovely gesture. Please know that because of your kindness, our message of compassion and care is reinforced. Once more, your contribution demonstrates not only your empathy, but a testament to your confidence in our mission. On behalf of our young families, we are grateful to you and cherish your dedication to MOMMAS House.

Please accept our wishes that you too spend a peaceful and happy Mother’s Day.

What a great Mother’s Day for our Moms who are often forgotten!

Sequence for Pentecost Sunday

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!

Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine.

You, of comforters the best:
You, the soul’s most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below.

In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!

Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your seven fold gift descent;

Give them virtue’s sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end.

Amen. Alleluia!
AND they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.

The very word “breath” means life. In the Genesis account of creation we hear that God breathed over the waters, giving it life. In today’s gospel from St. John we hear that on Easter Sunday Jesus breathed on the disciples and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit…” In the account of Pentecost in the Acts of the Apostles that we hear in the first reading, it was the strong wind, the breath of the Spirit, that filled with house where they were. This breath of God brings life to the Body of Christ, the church. It brings us to forgiveness, to community, to the spread of the gospel. Each day can be the “birthday” of the church if we live breathing in the breath of God, giving us life to be his disciples. Pick up your special Pentecost pray card today.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful...

Celebration of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday

At the 10:00 Mass today, Pentecost Sunday, four members of the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Congratulations to Luis Moreno, Danielle Verderose, Flavia Salcedo and Jose Salcedo. Today’s celebration marks the completion of the RCIA process which began last October. Many thanks to the RCIA team, Karen Boldizar, Sharon Justvig, Maureen and Deacon Jim O’Brien for walking with the RCIA candidates on this journey. Not only did they guide the candidates but opened their homes to them each week. It has been a blessed journey!

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Next Sunday, June 11th at the 11:45 Mass we will commission our new Extraordinary Ministers, Arthur Abrahamsen, Ellen Cowie, Maria Clark, Owen McTigue, James Slovensky, Cathy Jessop and Alyson Uria. Pray for them as they begin this sacred ministry.

Corpus Christi - June 18th

Over the past few years we have commemorated the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) with a procession. It has been a blessed moment each year for our parish as we walk with the Blessed Sacrament through the neighborhood. This procession gives witness to our faith in the Blessed Sacrament. This year the feast is on Sunday, June 18th. After the 10:00 mass we will process from church to the lawn where the convent once stood. We will have benediction and then return to Church. Please mark your calendar to attend the 10:00 Mass and procession.

Eagle Scout Project

Hello, my name is Brendan Regan and I am a Life Scout from Boy Scout Troop 134 of St. Anne’s parish. I've been involved in scouting here for 9 years, starting in the Cub Scouts. I am a parishioner here at St. Anne's as well as a Sacristan and an altar server. I am a junior at Chaminade High School and graduated from St. Anne's School in 2014.

Currently, I am working on my rank of Eagle Scout and will be carrying out my Eagle Scout Project here at St. Anne's. My project will be constructing a new podium/lectern that will be used for the Family Masses that take place in the gymnasium of St. Anne’s on Sunday mornings, the monthly Special Needs Mass, the annual Spirit Day Mass, and many other parish activities. The podium will also hold, on its front, a tile, depicting a Bible story, which will be chosen by members of the Respite Program. The new podium will strongly resemble the one currently in the St. Therese Chapel in the basement of the school. It's my pleasure to give back to the parish that has given me so much.

I ask for your support of my Eagle Scout Project which will benefit the Parish and the school for years to come, serving as a place to preach the Gospel and conduct school activities. Any donation will be much appreciated and can be dropped off or mailed to the rectory at 35 Dartmouth St. Garden City, NY, 11530. Checks can be made out to “Saint Anne’s Church” and “Eagle Project Podium” can be added on the memo line. Thank you for your support!

Respectfully,
Brendan Regan

Saint Anne's Celebrates Our Annual Senior Mass

Saint Anne's celebrated our annual Senior Mass on Sunday, May 21st at 11:45 AM. Seniors who are able to attend Mass regularly were joined by other seniors who made great efforts to come to Church, assisted by fellow parishioners who volunteer in our Nurse Ministry, Offer A Ride program and Saint Anne's Senior Ministry. Each senior was warmly welcomed and given a corsage or boutonniere in honor of their special presence at Saint Anne's.

Students from the second grade at Saint Anne's School have been corresponding with many of our seniors throughout the year and they were invited to attend the Senior Mass in their First Communion finery. The children were delighted to be part of the celebration and to meet their "senior correspondents" first hand at the reception which followed. We very much appreciate the efforts of our pastor, Father Tom, and the many family members and volunteers in our ministries of service who helped make this celebration so special!
