Celebrating Confirmation at Saint Anne’s

Sr. Judy prepares the altar servers
Dear Parishioners,

As we have been hearing in religious news, on May 13, we will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the appearance of Mary at Fatima. Pope Francis will canonize young persons who shared in this miraculous experience. Later this year, I will have the opportunity to pilgrimage to Fatima. This will be my first visit there.

Bishop Barres has written his first pastoral letter to us to offer his reflections and encouragement. Bishop Barres encourages us to pray, in particular to pray the Rosary. The principal prayers of the Rosary, the Hail Mary and Our Father, are among the first prayers we learn as children. The Rosary devotion has a rich history in the Church. It may well be the most popular devotion as it is prayed by individuals, families, and large communities. It is prayed in all kinds of places, well beyond churches.

We will honor Our Lady of Fatima and this important anniversary next Sunday. Sunday, May 14 is Mother’s Day. Before each Mass next Sunday, we will pray a decade of the Rosary. The intention of our prayer will be for mothers and for their intentions. We will begin about five minutes before the scheduled start time for each Mass and Mass will then begin immediately. So try to come a little early next Sunday to join us in this time of prayer. Our prayer will be a good way of remembering Fatima and honoring those who live the vocation as mother.

Confirmation

Our celebration of Confirmation with Bishop Brennan this past Monday went very well. The 210 eighth graders, the newly confirmed, were very happy and cooperative. The bishop greeted them all by name and I witnessed all the smiles as Bishop Brennan anointed them all with holy chrism. Sponsors and parents were very proud of their young teenagers.

Many adult parishioners and parish staff combined to help make this such a special day. Confirmation is an expression of the great teamwork among parishioners and staff that we experience at St. Anne’s. We need to pray and hope that our teenagers will be open to receiving the many gifts and graces that the Holy Spirit offers them. We very much desire that our newly confirmed and their parents, strengthened by the Holy Spirit, and encouraged by this wonderful celebration, will continue to join us at weekly Mass.

First Holy Communion

The oil of chrism was barely dry on the foreheads of the 210 newly confirmed when we began gathering our 160 second graders for First Holy Communion. We had our first two celebrations on Saturday morning. These are great days, among my favorite as a pastor. The kids are thrilled. In preparation for these big days, we had a “song rally” for parents and children on Tuesday evening. It is modeled on the old “football rallies” from my high school days. The moms sang “Doe, a dear….,” and the dads chose to sing “Take me out to the ballgame.” The kids sang all their first communion songs and it was a fun “warm up” to these three Saturdays of the children receiving Jesus for the first time. Pray for these children and their families during these happy and important days.

Good Shepherd Sunday

Vocation Sunday

The Fourth Sunday of Easter has traditionally shared the title Good Shepherd Sunday. The gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Easter always comes from the tenth chapter of John’s gospel where Jesus speaks of the shepherd and the sheep. Pope Francis brought additional attention to the shepherd image in his now famous exhortation to pastors that they are to share the “smell of the sheep.”

The image of the shepherd is often used in publications and posters that encourage vocations to the priesthood. Most of us are aware of the need for priests. At the recent communion breakfast of the Catholic Daughters of America, the guest speaker, a Vincentian priest, spoke of the challenges that face the church and our parishes as the number of priests has diminished. Those challenges often lead to a wide ranging discussion about approaches to these difficulties. Often what is proposed suggests dramatic changes regarding how we understand priesthood. Sometimes I find myself frustrated by those public discussions because they reflect a lack of understanding about the vocation and life of a priest. I find myself very grateful for my vocation and happy in my life as a priest.

Surely, we share responsibility for encouraging vocations. At some of our Masses today, seminarian Dominic Weigel will be speaking about vocations. Happily, Dominic will be spending ten weeks of internship with us beginning next weekend and concluding at the very beginning of August. Dominic’s presence to us gives us the opportunity to encourage a young man who is very enthusiastic about his vocation to the priesthood.

As I reflect on my vocation, I realize the importance of families in nurturing a vocation. My family was a great support in my coming to religious life and the priesthood. My family remains a strong support. We have great faith-filled and service-oriented young people in our parish. Some may explore religious life and priesthood. I know many will involve themselves in parish ministry as active adult parishioners. Those who consider ministry and service in the Church often realize how their parents and families have been such a significant source of support.

The Vocation Office of our diocese is offering a Vocations Summer Camp to be held July 9-13 at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington. Our vocation director writes, “This will be an amazing experience for the Catholic youth of Long Island focused on faith, fun, and fellowship.” The camp is for young women and men between the ages of 14 and 18. For more information and registration go to qu vadislongisland.org I would be happy to assist parents with any questions about this new and positive venture for our diocese.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom

Registration for 2017—2018 Faith Formation Classes

We have received several inquiries regarding registration for next year’s Faith Formation classes. Registration for next year’s classes will take place in June. Right now, we are focused on making the experience of our First Communicants as meaningful and prayerful as possible.

Your understanding and patience is greatly appreciated.

Please know our lines of communication are always open to families.
The Faith Formation office is located in the school building.
Please call or email Vivian Flood at 516-488-1032 or vflood@stannesgc.org.
Jesus was an amazing teacher. He used great examples to teach the people who came to him. These examples were always ones that touched their everyday lives. In today’s gospel Jesus uses the examples of a shepherd, sheep, and a gate. These examples are not part of our everyday life but yet we can find faith and strength in praying with today’s Gospel. We all need to be shepherded – we often lose our way. Jesus is with us always and with his staff he gently guides us back to the fold. He tells us that he is the gate that we must enter through. To do this we must listen to his voice and follow our Shepherd. The challenge for us is to become so familiar with his voice that we choose to follow only him. We have been blessed with wonderful shepherds, the shepherd of the Church, Pope Francis, the shepherd of our Diocese, Bishop Barres, and our own parish shepherd, Father Tom. Happy Pastor’s Day to our shepherds!

On Saturday, May 13th the church commemorates the 100th anniversary of Our Lady’s appearance to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. She appeared to the children on the thirteenth day of six consecutive months. During these apparitions, she urged the children to pray the rosary every day for world peace. At the time World War 1 was raging in Europe. On October 13th, the last of the apparitions, the children were joined by a crowd of around 70,000 people, who witnessed what came to be called “The Miracle of the Sun.” The children Francisco and Jacinta died during the influenza epidemic of 1919. They were canonized by Pope Francis this weekend in Rome. Lucia became a Carmelite nun and died in 2005 at the age of 91. Today many people come to Fatima and participate in processions by the light of tens of thousands of candles. World peace is still a prayer intention that is so needed today.

Next Sunday, May 14th is Mother’s Day. We will pray a decade of the Rosary together before each Mass begins, praying for our mothers, for world peace and in remembrance of the appearance of our Lady 100 years ago at Fatima. Plan on coming to Mass ten minutes before Mass time next Sunday and join us in prayer.

Catholic Elementary Schools Collection

The second collection for this weekend on May 6th and 7th is in support of St. Anne’s School and the Tomorrow’s Hope Foundation. Tomorrow’s Hope provides tuition assistance to students in need attending Catholic elementary schools and grants directly to schools to offset general expenses. Last year the Foundation gave over $1.75 million to students while actual student need was over $6 million.

St. Anne’s School has many needs. Tuition, parish subsidy and fundraising all help to balance the budget. Each year, however, new technologies and curricular needs arise. The money that you give to the second collection on May 6th and 7th help to expand the school’s academic excellence and help it remain a place where our faith is taught and lived.

Sustaining Catholic elementary education is vital to the future of our society and our Church. Our students are our future. They are tomorrow’s hope. Please be as generous as possible with your donation.
