Dear Parishioners,

Happy Mothers Day. How important it is that we take this day to honor and give gratitude to all those who share in the vocation of mother. Mothers give life, nurture life, and teach children so that we may have happy and responsible lives. In today’s middle reading St. Peter writes of a “cornerstone, chosen and precious” as he reflects on Jesus. In their vocations moms are “cornerstones”, chosen to be mother to their children, and precious to the ones they hold as daughters and sons. There are many paths to becoming a mother. Birth, adoption, bringing a child into one’s home because there is a need.

The month of May, as we honor the Blessed Mother reminds us of the central place this vocation has in all of history, in world history and in each of our personal histories. Many of us today have this opportunity to share the beauty of this day with our mother’s company. Many of us mark this day by realizing the gift of heaven that our moms have received. May this Mothers Day be a good day for us all.

FATIMA

This weekend the Church celebrates the 100th Anniversary of the Blessed Mother’s visitation to the three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. Included in her words to these children was Our Lady’s encouragement to pray the rosary, especially for the intention of world peace. As part of our observance of this gift of Mary to the Church, before Masses today, we are praying a decade of the Rosary with a special intention for all the mothers of the parish.

DEACONS

Today’s first reading remembers the choice of the first deacons of the Church. These seven men were appointed for service to the community. This ministry was necessary as the community grew and the Church sought to assist the needy. After Vatican Council II the Church re-focused on the need for the ministry of deacon and for the past forty years or so, our diocese celebrates each year the ordination of what we now call “permanent deacons.” These men are distinguished from “transitional deacons” who are men preparing for ordination to the priesthood.

Today at St. Anne’s we are blessed to have three deacons serving our parish. Deacon Jim O’Brien, Deacon Basil Bliss, and Deacon Bob McCarthy are familiar to us all through their regular participation and assistance at Sunday Mass. Deacon George Browne has retired from his active service and Mr. Michael Boldizar is in studies and preparation to become a deacon. Pope Francis has commissioned a group of Catholics to study the history of women deacons. A Long Islander, Phyllis Zagano was invited by the Pope to participate in that committee. I am sure we will hear from Pope Francis about the work of this study group.

Our deacons at St. Anne’s are generous, prayerful, and compassionate men. You see them in their service at Mass. Their work reaches beyond participation in the Eucharist. Our deacons minister to grieving families in preparation for funerals; they baptize children; they assist engaged couples; they assist with Faith Formation; they participate in parish staff meetings. Sharing in all those ministries is important, but there is something else that makes our deacons exemplary persons of service. Whenever there is a need in the parish and the deacons are asked to assist, one of them always says “yes.” Sometimes a need emerges very suddenly and we call the deacons to ask if they can assist a person in a particular way. It always works.

At this time of the year, we celebrate anniversaries of ordinations. Congratulations to each of our four deacons on their anniversaries and to those deacons who have served at St. Anne’s through the years. Your service is a blessing to the parish, to me and has enriched the lives of all those to whom you minister.

GOSPEL

Our gospel today is among the favorite New Testament passages. When people are preparing a funeral for a loved one, the first half of this gospel is often a chosen gospel. I think it is often chosen because of its reassuring tone. The opening words of Jesus suggest we have confidence. “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me.” Jesus words that follow and speak about many dwelling places and Jesus’ preparation of these places bring to us thoughts about eternal life and heaven.

As reassuring as the opening phrases of this gospel are to us, what follows is a central theme of the Christian life. Thomas asks Jesus about where he is going and the way. Jesus answers with his often quoted statement: “I am the way and the truth and the life.” Following this exchange between Jesus and Thomas, Philip gets involved in the conversation: “Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.” Jesus responded, “Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip?” I wonder how Philip felt about Jesus’ response.

We have question similar to Thomas and we have desires similar to Philip. Sometimes our questions do not have quick and clear answers. Sometimes our desires go unanswered. Remember this entire passage is in the context of an encouragement to faith and the clearest direction that is offered is Jesus. “I am the way and the truth, and the life.” I often think that doubt is like a first cousin to faith. Remember, doubt is neither skepticism nor cynicism. Doubt questions and wonders; doubt does not necessarily reject nor disregard. Disregard and rejection are the signs of the cynic and skeptic. A person of faith, both when faith is reassuring and when faith is a challenge, does well to pray with Jesus’ statement, “I am the way and the truth and the life.” I believe praying with those words of Jesus gives us another opportunity to listen for how Jesus desires to be with us and lead us in the difficult and challenging moments of our lives.

Enjoy a blessed week; peace be with you!

Fr. Tom

LOAVES AND FISHES

Father in heaven, thank you for the blessing of mothers and caregivers in our lives. To honor mothers, we pray that you guide us to help those whose love extends beyond their means. Help us to journey with mothers who are struggling to feed, clothe and educate their young. What grace it is to share in achieving their dreams for their children! Lord, thank you for the tenderness you show us, often through our mothers, who bear your love for us and teach us to share your love with the world. Catholic Relief Services

FAITH FORMATION

Ed Palkot Offers Words of Wisdom to our Second Graders

At the invitation of Mrs. Marianne Huggard, religion teacher and Sacramental Coordinator for First Communion, Mr. Ed Palkot stopped in to see the second grade children in Saint Anne’s School before their special First Communion day. Ed is now 103 years old and is a recipient of the St. Agnes Medal of Service for Saint Anne’s Parish. The children had several questions to ask and were very interested in Mr. Palkot’s responses. His favorite saint? St. Francis! His favorite prayer? The Prayer of Saint Francis. His favorite sports team? The Pittsburgh Steelers. His favorite story about Jesus? The Parable of the Good Samaritan. What kinds of things did he like to do when he was 8 years old? Jump rope, run relay races and ride scooters…

Their final question was “What advice would you give to a second grader?” The wisdom of Ed’s response is relevant to all: “I suggest that you study hard, pray often, be friendly to everyone, and most importantly, receive the Eucharist as many times as you can because it will refresh you and give you strength.” Mr. Palkot was happy to attend the 11:00AM First Communion Mass last Saturday. His prayerful presence was very much appreciated!

Fifth Sunday of Easter

“Select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom... they presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them.”

In today’s first reading we hear of the growing pains of the early church. As the church began to spread from the Aramaic speaking Jewish people of the time to the Greek speaking Jewish people, the Hellenists, the apostles realized that they had to appoint more leaders to help them. Friction was developing between the two groups and there were charges of unfair distribution of community food between the poor of the two groups. St. Luke does not mention the cause of the neglect. Was it a combination of scarcity and prejudice? Or were the apostles just too busy to oversee the distribution properly? To resolve this the apostles called together the community and selected seven men to care for and serve the community. This freed up the apostles to lead a continuing rapid growth of the church. Service to the community is the hallmark of Christians. How do you offer your service to God’s people?

Family Mass at Saint Anne’s

Next Sunday, May 21st is our last Family Mass for this season. We will have hospitality after Mass in the auditorium. Please bring something to share – remember NO NUTS!
Family Mass will begin again on Sunday, October 8th!

Our Lady of Fatima – 100th Anniversary

This weekend the church commemorates the 100th anniversary of Our Lady’s appearance to three children in Fatima, Portugal. Pope Francis canonized two of the children at the Vatican this weekend, Francisco and Jacinta, who died in the influenza epidemic in 1919. The third child, Lucia died in 2005 at the age of 91. The message that Our Lady gave to the children was to pray the rosary for peace. We will begin our masses this weekend with a decade of the rosary, remembering the apparitions and praying for peace in our world and for our Mothers on Mother’s Day.

Children’s Choir

The children’s choir will be joining the 10:30AM Family Mass Choir to sing at Mass on Sunday, May 21st. This will be the last time the children will sing until we begin again in the Fall. If your child is in 3rd grade or older and would like to join the choir please consider joining us when we meet in the Fall. Watch the bulletin for announcements about the first rehearsal in September.

Many thanks to the children who are part of the choir and thank you to Mrs. Kristin Walsh who also works with the children!
First Communion May 6th at 11AM

Congratulations to all of our second grade students who received their First Holy Communion! The celebrations were beautiful and the children’s smiles were delightful. The teachers and catechists and Faith Formation staff greatly enjoyed working with the children and their families throughout the year and wish them all the best as they continue on their journey of faith.
First Communion May 6th at 1PM
Rosary Rally honoring the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima

St. Anne’s parishioners are invited to participate in a nationwide Rosary Rally honoring the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima. We will gather at 12 PM in the church parking lot facing New Hyde Park Road. We will be reciting the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet. All are welcome to join and pray for world peace.

An Invitation to High School Seniors

The faith community of Saint Anne’s thanks all high school seniors for their dedicated service to our parish. They have volunteered as altar servers, catechists, lectors, Respite buddies, in Youth Ministry or the Scouts. Many have served in more than one ministry.

These seniors have set an excellent example of faithfulness by their presence at St. Anne’s through their busy high school years.

We would like to acknowledge their contribution to the parish at the 10:00AM Mass on Sunday, May 21st.

If you are a high school senior who has served and you will be able to attend the Mass on May 21st, please RSVP to Susanne Blum at 352-5904 or sblum@stannesgc.org

Respite Prom – Aloha Luau!

Saint Anne’s Respite community had a great time at our third annual Respite Prom on April 28th. Everyone had the opportunity to walk the ‘red carpet’ and have their photos taken as they entered the gym, which was transformed into a wonderful Aloha Luau.

Many thanks to Susan Donnelly and Margaret Parks for their creativity and tireless effort in organizing this event, to all the wonderful volunteers who help behind the scenes and to Sue Crinnion and Lucille Messina for their photos, which capture the joy and excitement of the Prom. A great time was had by all!

Happy Mother’s Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let’s also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Mom’s who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week. More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God’s children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God’s generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

For more information visit www.CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5800-ext. 296.

Thank You!

Please make checks payable to Catholic Ministries Appeal.
