Dear Parishioners,

We are having a beautiful Easter Season here at St. Anne’s. After a joyous Easter Sunday, we began the season of sacraments with Bishop Brennan anointing and confirming 210 of our eighth graders. The very same week we began the First Holy Communion season and just this weekend had our final First Communion celebration. We have now felt the weather transform from a rather cold, damp spring to beautiful days that remind us summer is just around the corner. With today’s gospel and its reference to the Spirit and Advocate, we very much anticipate the Solemnity of Pentecost just two weeks away. Pentecost will bring us to Ordinary Time which will begin with the season of graduations and ordinations. We have already passed the 35th anniversary of priesthood for Fr. Rudy. For his May 10 anniversary he was away on retreat in Texas. We can still congratulate him and thank him for his 35 years of priesthood and 12 years of service here at St. Anne’s.

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension as Jesus makes his return to heaven. This day remains a holy day of obligation for all Catholics. The schedule of Masses appears on the cover of the bulletin. How are we to understand the Ascension?

Among the many commentaries we can find about this event in our Lord’s life, I find this note in the Catechism of the Catholic Church to be of particular interest. “So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.” Christ’s body was glorified at the moment of his Resurrection, as proved by the new and supernatural properties it subsequently and permanently enjoys. But during the forty days when he eats and drinks familiarly with his disciples and teaches them about the kingdom, his glory remains veiled under the appearance of ordinary humanity. Jesus’ final apparition ends with the irreversible entry of his humanity into divine glory, symbolized by the cloud and by heaven, where he is seated from that time forward at God’s right hand. Only in a wholly exceptional and unique way would Jesus show himself to Paul ‘as to one untimely born’, in a last apparition that established him as an apostle.” (ccc659).

The gospel reading today offers some of the most personal words that Jesus spoke to his disciples in what is described as the Great Discourse in John’s gospel. Sometimes these words are understood in the context of the Last Supper; sometimes they are presented as words of farewell from Jesus. These words reveal what is in the heart of Jesus. The gospel begins clearly, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.” There is a relationship between love and obedience. Obedience begins with listening for what God asks and then acting on his word. Our fidelity and commitment to what God asks is an expression of our love.

Immediately following this encouragement to love, Jesus makes clear he never abandons us. “And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live.”

These are words from the heart and soul of Jesus. They are words of promise. They are words of accompaniment meant to encourage and strengthen. These are words very contrary to the age of skepticism and cynicism, focused on alienation and isolation. These words indicate that God is not distant as a well known song writer Bette Midler once proclaimed. God lives in us. God is not cold, impartial, or neutral. The Holy Spirit is our advocate, one who looks out for us and seeks to guide us. God is not whimsical. God sends the Spirit of truth. God is not a fair-weather friend only to be found when things are going well. He is God who remains with us always.

This gospel concludes with Jesus’ words: “On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.” Whenever I read these words of Jesus, I am reminded of the life of the Trinity and how Jesus invites us into the life of God.

So God is very close to us and still God is very mysterious. This reality gives us some very important reminders for our life with God as well as our relationship with one another. The element of mystery is part of the richness of human relationship. None of us ever attains any kind of mastery or control over another human person. Whenever there is a sense of mastery, control, or ownership, there will be serious difficulty. In human relationship, there is always a sense of mystery. Always there is something more to be discovered and learned about another person. A beautiful element of human relationship occurs when a person invites us into their life and shares who they are. The relationship grows when that spirit of invitation and sharing is reciprocated. This is the beauty of marriage and why that sacred relationship of husband and wife is afforded the dignity and holiness of the Sacrament of Marriage. And even after many, many years of marriage husband and wife are still discovering and learning as their love grows.

These words of Jesus remind us once again that our faith is a call to relationship with the Lord and with one another. Our principles, tenets, our moral code is all in service to the kind of relationship that Jesus invites us to share with him through the words of this gospel.

LOAVES AND FISHES

We hear the cry of the poor when we are deeply moved by the suffering of others. ~ Pope Francis

Saint Anne’s Senior Ministry
Welcome to our Senior Parishioners!
This Sunday, May 21st, Saint Anne’s welcomes our senior parishioners in a special way at the 11:45AM Mass. Many seniors attend Mass each week, but others are not easily able to do so. We are taking this time to honor our seniors for the gift of their presence in our faith community, where their personal expression of faith enriches us all.

After Mass, the seniors are invited to attend a reception in the cafeteria hosted by the parents of second grade children from Saint Anne’s School. These children have been corresponding with many of our seniors throughout the year and this day is their opportunity to meet one another face-to-face. The children recently received the sacrament of Holy Eucharist for the first time, and many will be wearing their First Communion finery. Sharing the Eucharist with young children and seniors together is a wonderful aspect of our faith community. Thanks to the many family members and faithful volunteers in our ministries of service who help make this special day happen!

If you are interested in getting involved in our Senior Ministry at Saint Anne’s, please contact Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904 or Evelyn Schwantner at 488-7516.
