3rd Grade Students Make a Special Gift for Senior Scene Members

Saint Anne’s 3rd grade students have been visiting Senior Scene members throughout the year. In recognition of their last visit for this school year and in keeping with Pope Francis’s call to be more mindful of our earth and recycling, the children decorated cloth napkins in a bright leaf pattern as a gift for each of the seniors. They also gave the seniors a prayer card they had made in honor of the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady’s appearance in Fatima. As much as the Seniors enjoyed their gifts, the real treat was the wonderful conversation and time they shared with the children. Thanks also to Seminarian Dominik Wegiel for offering the opening prayer and sharing his story with us. Many thanks to those who helped the children with this project: (pictured top left) Mary Jean McCarthy, Anne Roeder, Dana McCarthy and Marianne Huggard with the decorated napkins.
Dear Parishioners,

With one week remaining in the Easter Season, we look forward to the Solemnity of Pentecost next Sunday. At the same time, we can be very grateful for the blessings and joyous occasions of these past six weeks of the Easter Season.

We can remember the great crowds of people and the beautiful weather of Easter morning. More than 5,000 people came to Easter Mass and people went home to their Easter celebrations with a great sense of the joy of the Easter liturgy. Our Church was decorated beautifully; our music was outstanding; the liturgies were filled with a rich sense of community, promise, gratitude and joy. We enjoyed a wonderful beginning to the Easter Season.

Confirmation for our eighth graders soon followed. More than 200 young teens presented themselves with their sponsors to Bishop Brennan for the sacred anointing with holy chrism. We spend a lot of time assisting and preparing our students for Confirmation. The beautiful Mass and the way the girls and boys responded helps us all to know that the work of preparation is all worth it. The Holy Spirit was truly present at the Confirmation Mass. Our new faith formation leadership team, along with all the catechists, led by parishioner Vivian Flood, witnessed the fruits of their many labors on Confirmation Day. These kinds of celebrations excite us for the work to begin anew next year.

Immediately after Confirmation, we began our five Saturday First Holy Communion celebrations. These are always delightful days in a parish and that was surely the case this year. Weather for Confirmation was great; the Saturdays of May weather for First Holy Communions were less than ideal. We had some rainy, damp, cool Saturdays. In no way though did the weather diminish the joy of our second graders. At First Holy Communions, the children wear their joy on their faces. Their smiles are priceless; their responses to question are precious. As they receive Jesus for the first time, these children are exactly where they need to be. What a wonderful day it is for their parents who accompany them to receive Jesus. Again, our parish and school faith formation team can know they are truly doing God’s work. The happiness and gratitude of the First Holy Communion families make God’s presence abundantly clear.

Our Faith Formation program is already preparing for next year. Vivian Flood and I have met to speak about how we can enhance our sacramental preparation years. Our great need for Faith Formation is catechists. We have about 1000 students in Faith Formation. We like to keep classes small. That requires about 70 catechists. It’s not too early to volunteer. Call Vivian at 488-1032 to inquire about being a catechist. It’s not too early. Volunteering now will help us in our preparation and give you time to prepare.

Our parish school is now anticipating graduations. These will again be great days for our young people and their parents. At a recent Parish School May Crowning Mass, the students shined in their knowledge of the events that make up the Joyous and Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary. We have many great qualities in our school. We do well academically. Evidence of that is the consistent testimony of high school principals about the preparedness of St. Anne students. We are always presenting our students and families with the faith perspective. Among our many qualities is that ours is a happy school. We are grateful to Mr. Fennell, as he concludes his first year as our school principal, for the many personal gifts that he brings to our school. Among these are his own joy and enthusiasm.

TODAY’S GOSPEL

The opening line of today’s gospel gives us a clear image, “Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said, ‘Father…’” We get to hear Jesus speaking to the Father. In a sense, we get to hear Jesus praying. Jesus prays about his relationship to the Father and he prays for all those to whom he has been sent. In the midst of these personal words to the Father Jesus says, “Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ.” Central to these prayerful words of Jesus is relationship. As we hear often, we are called to a personal relationship with God. These words remind us we are called to know God, not simply know about God. We know “about” a lot of people. We “know” many fewer. We want to know God by being with him. We need to listen to God in prayer, not only speak to him or tell him what we want. We need to welcome Jesus, not only by saying our prayers, but receiving Jesus in the Eucharist. We not only seek to believe in the presence of the Holy Spirit in the world, we want to feel the Holy Spirit living in us as we make decisions and practice virtues.

PENTECOST CONFIRMATIONS

As we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost next Sunday, we will confirm four adults at the 10:00 Mass. Completing their Christian initiation through this sacrament, these four adults have been preparing for the sacrament this past year in our RCIA. The celebration of Confirmation for adults at a parish Pentecost Mass is a great reminder of the gifts of the Holy Spirit among us.

GOLF OUTING

Time is fast approaching for our parish golf outing. In a short two weeks, parishioners will gather at the nearby Garden City Country Club for this annual day of parish community and fun. There will be a “beat the pastor” contest on a par-3 hole. You will probably win!!! We still need additional golfers to make this Monday June 12th a very successful event. You do not have to have a foursome to register. We can help complete your group with other participants.

Enjoy a Blessed week!

Thank You from a Senior!

We received the following note from a wonderful senior who came to our Senior Mass and reception last Sunday:

“It is always a treat to be back at beautiful Saint Anne’s. As usual, everything was done so well at the Mass and the reception for the elderly—the helpful volunteers, corsages, the treats, visits with the second grade First Communicants, the beautiful plants and the rides to and from my residence. A lot of work went into the day and I appreciate every minute of it. Thank you for inviting me. I can see that Saint Anne’s is flourishing. It’s in good hands!”

FAITH FORMATION

First Communion May 21st at 11AM

Congratulations to all of our second grade students who received their First Holy Communion! May 21st was the last of our three Saturday First Communion celebrations. The teachers and catechists and Faith Formation staff greatly enjoyed working with the children and their families throughout the year and wish them all the best as they continue on their journey of faith.

Please know our lines of communication are always open to families. The Faith Formation office is located in the school building. Please call or email Vivian Flood at 516-488-1032 or vflood@stannesgc.org.
“After Jesus had been taken up to heaven the apostles returned to Jerusalem…all these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus.”

After Jesus’ ascension the disciples find themselves in an in-between time of waiting for the descent of the Holy Spirit. We read in today’s first reading that they immersed themselves in prayer. We, too, are living in an in-between time – in between the coming of the Holy Spirit and Christ’s return in glory and the fullness of the kingdom. Jesus knows the difficulties that we face in trying to live the Christian life and in the gospel we hear his prayer for us, “I pray for them… the ones you have given me.” How can you immerse yourself in prayer each day – prayer of intercession, prayer of adoration, praise and thanksgiving?

Children’s Choir

This year we began a Children’s Choir. While we were working to expand the repertoire of hymns the children sang at a number of parish masses and events during this year. We are looking to beginning again this Fall. Children in Third Grade and older are welcome to join the choir.

Many thanks to those who participated this year!

Preparing for Pentecost

With the feast of the Ascension of the Lord we began the nine days of prayer, waiting for the feast of Pentecost, the birthday of the Church. We pray for a deepening of the gifts of the Holy Spirit in our lives. St. Augustine offers us this prayer to the Holy Spirit:

_Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy._

_Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy._

_Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy._

_Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy._

_Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy._

_Amen._

Wear something RED to celebrate Pentecost next Sunday!!!

Family Mass at Saint Anne’s

Last Sunday was the last Family Mass until Sunday, October 8th. We are most grateful to the Family Mass Committee, the leaders of Children’s Liturgy of the Word, the choir, the lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and altar servers. We are especially grateful to the families that come each Sunday! It is all of these ministries working together that make Family Mass a community.

Readings for Pentecost Sunday

Acts 2: 1-11
1Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13
John 20: 19-23

This Monday, May 29th, Memorial Day, we remember and pray for all those who gave their lives for our country. Let us pray that those who have died out of loving service to their country may now enjoy everlasting peace. We continue to pray for those who are serving our country today and for a lasting peace for our world.

Mary Poppins Arrives at Saint Anne’s School

She’s practically perfect in every way! On the last weekend of April, the 5th through 8th grade students at Saint Anne’s School dazzled the Saint Anne’s community with their annual play. This year it was the ever popular, “Mary Poppins”. After months of after school and weekend practices under the direction of Marilyn McClean and Mimi Jaye, students were more than ready to take the stage in this supercalifragilisticexpialidocious tale of a very special nanny named Mary Poppins. For two magical evenings, the performers transported their audience to London and told the story of this very special nanny. The cast of “Mary Poppins” should be very proud of the wonderful production they put on for the school community. Thank you to all who made this play possible and a huge success. The Saint Anne’s families can’t wait for next year’s play!
