Saint Anne’s Is Here For You…
If you’re struggling with something and not sure where to turn, Saint Anne’s Parish provides confidential support and assistance. Serious illness, economic problems, marital difficulties, mental health concerns and coping with caring for those who are ill or elderly are issues we may all face at different times in our lives. If you would like to know more, please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.

Resilience … You are not alone
Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Moms who work outside the home are also welcome to join as ‘social’ members, with a variety of evening and family-based activities available to them. If you would like to join, please email Melanie Unterstein our membership chair, at stannesmoms@gmail.com or you may call the parish office at 352-5904 for more information and to register if you are new to Saint Anne’s.

Our lives as followers of Jesus demand that we forgive one another not only because it is a compassionate thing to do but because this is the way that God acts and expects us to act. Jesus’ response to Peter reminds us that God forgives us countless times and this is why we are expected to forgive each other countless times too. This powerful Gospel parable that we read today says much to us about extending mercy as God extends his bountiful mercy to each one of us. We have in our own day the example of P.O. Steven McDonald and his message of forgiveness that he gave us during his life. Look at the web site www.journeyofhope.org/who-we-are/murder-victim-family/bud-welch to read the story of Bud Welch, whose daughter died in the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing. He is part of a foundation called Journey of Hope, from Violence to Healing. Forgiveness can be difficult but it is a gift that we give to not only the person who has offended us but also to ourselves.

Feast day of Saint Matthew, Apostle & Evangelist

September 21st

This Thursday we celebrate the feast of the Apostle, Saint Matthew. The gospel tells us that Matthew was a tax-collector who was called by Jesus to follow him. Matthew accepted the call and faithfully followed. He is known best as the author of the Gospel of Matthew. This gospel was written and preached to Jewish Christians and Matthew used their language and knowledge of the Old Testament to tell the story of Jesus. This year we have been reading from Matthew’s gospel on Sundays as we do every third year.

O God, who with untold mercy were pleased to choose as an Apostle Saint Matthew, the tax collector, grant that, sustained by his example and intercession, we may merit to hold firm in following you.

(Collect from Mass on the Feast day of Saint Matthew)

Readings for Twenty-fifth Sunday

In Ordinary Time

Philippians 1:20c, 27a

Matthew 20: 1-16a

Blessing of Animals

THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Perhaps you or someone close to you is searching for a way to meet his or her spiritual needs and identify with a community of faith. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the Church’s way to extending an invitation to join a living community of faith. During this year our parish has witnessed the baptism of adults, reception into the church, and completion of the Sacraments of Initiation with those who completed the RCIA process.

What does the RCIA mean?
The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process through which unbaptized adults deepen their relationship with God and are formed in the teachings and practices of the Catholic faith. They are then initiated into the Catholic Church. This journey of faith is marked by various rites or rituals. The RCIA also includes baptized adult Christians who are preparing to be received into the Catholic Church and baptized Catholics who are preparing to receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

For more information contact Sister Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Remembering and Caring for our Senior Priests

Do you ever think about a favorite Pastor or Parish Priest and wonder how they are and where they may be living?

Well, for our Senior Priests who are living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility in Amityville, life is good and sometimes very busy.

“St. Pius X is an inspiring and friendly place. I am happy to be here. The care and company are excellent and I am with priests who have done wonderful things their whole lives.”
- Rev. Edward Kealey

“Coming here was a very happy surprise!!! The service is wonderful but the human touch is outstanding. It is amazing how attentive the staff is.”
- Rev. Peter Liu

Even in retirement our senior priests retain roles as our shepherds, and St. Pius X enables these dedicated men who live there to be fully engaged members of the community. “Still on duty,” they serve as our teachers, counselors, and spiritual leaders.

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible! Thank You!
