Dear Parishioners,

As our 210 Confirmation candidates are presented to Bishop Coyle this Wednesday for the Sacrament of Confirmation, I have reflected as a pastor on how I see the presence of the Holy Spirit in their young lives. I share them with all the parish and some of my prayers for these boys and girls.

1. I see the presence of the Holy Spirit in your families. The love of your parents for you and sacrifices they do for you make clear the presence of the Holy Spirit. Sometimes, it’s hard to know and express the deep love within your homes. I pray that where there is hurt, struggle, and division, there may be healing.

2. I see the presence of the Holy Spirit in those of you who hear the call to worship and are faithful to Sunday Mass. I love your presence there and hope we will see you all through high school. I pray for those of you and those families distant from Sunday Mass, that the grace and power of the Holy Spirit in Confirmation may help you to return to Sunday Mass.

3. I see the presence of the Holy Spirit in your volunteer and service work. Many of you participate generously and enthusiastically in parish activities such as Loaves & Fishes, Share-a-Meal, and Thanksgiving and Christmas activities to support families in need. I pray that the service of others and assisting those in need will always be part of your life and that St. Anne’s and the Church can count on your service through your high school years; and that just as some of your parents and grandparents are truly the backbone of service in the Church, so you will be when it is your time to serve in Jesus’ name.

4. I see the presence of the Holy Spirit in the friendships that you share. Some of your friends today will be friends through your lifetime. Treasure friendship. I pray that you will be generous in sharing your friendship. At times, some of us struggle to find friends and keep friends. Be a good friend to those who seek your friendship.

Easter Thoughts from the Gospel

The daily Lenten thoughts were very well received by parishioners, so we will continue to send and print them through the Easter season. If you do not receive this email but would like to, please email us at StAnnesLent2018@stannesgc.org (and be sure to add us to your “Safe-Senders” list).

Sunday, April 22—This passage not only tells us what Jesus will do for us, but who he really is: the Good Shepherd, God. If we believe he will lay down his life for us, we would be extremely foolish not to follow him. He tells us, “I know you, I love and care for you, and if you are lost, I will never stop looking for you until I find you to embrace you in great joy.

Monday, April 23

Jesus calls us to hear and listen to his voice. It is what we must do if we are to follow him. Listen for his call today. It may come in prayer. It may come from a family member. It may come from someone you meet. Keep your ears and heart open!

Tuesday, April 24

The gospel today (John 10: 22-30) reminds us of how precious we are to God. God holds us in his hands and no one can take us away. Reflect today on this infinite love that God has for you and your loved ones.

Wednesday, April 25

Jesus is our light, the light of the world. Rev. Martin Luther King reminded us that darkness does not cast out darkness, only light casts it out. Dispel the darkness! Who can you bring Christ’s light to today?

Thursday, April 26

Jesus reminds us the when we receive the one Jesus sends, we receive Jesus into our lives. Who is Jesus sending to us today? Let’s welcome and care for each other as we would welcome and care for Jesus.

Friday, April 27

Jesus reminds us that in the house of God, there are many dwelling places. God recognizes our differences and makes room for all of us. Who can we make room for in our lives today?

Saturday, April 28

Jesus tells us that the Father who dwells in Jesus is doing the works of God through Jesus. We are now Jesus’ heart, hands, voice and mind to our sisters and brothers throughout the world. What works of God are we being called to do for them today?

5. I see the Holy Spirit in your teamwork. You have excelled in sports, arts, and shared projects. Our CYO Swim team just won its championship. Our school play won acclaim. We have seen students come together to tell one another how we need to grow and improve. We reject bullying. We reject gun violence. I pray that you will continue to enjoy the accomplishments and achievements of teamwork. I pray that you will grow into Catholics who are aware of the call to social justice based on gospel and church teaching. Our Catholic Church has a long history of activism that promotes peace and justice.

6. I see the Holy Spirit in how you have grown through the years. Yours is the first second grade class with whom I celebrated First Holy Communion. We have spent two years preparing together for Confirmation. I have seen you grow and mature. You have become more responsive and many have grown serious about their faith. I pray that your high school years will continue to be ones of growth. You will face challenges, difficulties, and problems. You will experience achievements, find solutions, and learn new ways of behaving well. I pray that you continue to grow because you will choose well.

7. I see the presence of the Holy Spirit in how you accompany and encourage the little kids in school. At St. Anne’s School you eighth graders accompany the first graders to our school Masses. You walk with them, pray with them, and assist them if they need help. You encourage them and at times even have to remind them to give their attention to Mass. I am confident that our eighth graders in our various middle schools have opportunities to assist the younger students in the public schools. Your care for younger students is important. I pray that as you continue to grow and mature that you will have always a concern for the younger and the weaker among you. Place an emphasis on kindness, helpfulness, and inclusion of others.

8. I see the presence of the Holy Spirit when I see you with your grandparents. These are great people in your lives. You look up to them and admire them. Many of them are great people of faith. Some are choosing a grandparent’s name as your Confirmation name. Others have a grandparent as their sponsor. Some grandparents are in heaven and they too smile upon you at this time as they are so proud of you along with your living grandparents. I pray for you that whatever path of life you live, whatever vocation is yours, someday young people will look up to you, love you, and respect you for all that you mean to them.

9. I see the presence of the Holy Spirit in the names you have chosen for Confirmation. You have chosen some great saints. I will listen closely on Confirmation Day as Bishop Coyle will address you by your Confirmation name. Some have chosen martyrs. May they help you be strong in your faith. Some have chosen saints that reflect your heritage. May they help you share your faith. Some have chosen apostles, evangelists, and priests. Be open to the church vocations as the Church needs priests, deacons, and religious, and God still calls. Many have chosen holy women, many important women in the life of Jesus. Listen closely as the Church learns more and more about what Pope Francis calls the “genius of woman.” Earlier this Easter Season, Pope Francis reminded us all of the call to holiness and to be saints. I pray that we all hear his call.

10. I see the Holy Spirit in the sponsors who accompany you today. Your grandparents, godparents, brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles, family friends and relatives are so happy and proud to be chosen to accompany you to Confirmation. Treasure their guidance, support, and love. I am a Confirmation sponsor for my only godson. I share with you sponsors the happiness of this day. With you, I pray for them that they will always treasure you. Perhaps someday you will have the honor of being a Confirmation sponsor.

These are just ten ways I see the Holy Spirit today. There are many others. Be on the lookout for other signs of the Holy Spirit. Let me know if you see those signs. (tharold@drvc.org)

Peace and Blessings on your Confirmation Day!

Father Tom

LOAVES AND FISHES

We hear the cry of the poor when we are deeply moved by the suffering of others. ~ Pope Francis

It’s in giving that we receive. When we make acts of mercy, we in turn receive mercy, both from the person we help and from God. Allow yourself to really hear the cry of the poor.

Mothers’ Day Gift Bags

Mother's Day, May 13th, is a time for families to honor their mothers. This special occasion gives us the opportunity to support young mothers who have chosen life for their babies despite overwhelming challenges in their own lives. Each year, we provide the young women who are currently residing at Momma's House, Mother of Good Counsel Home and Bethany House with gift bags filled with special items for Mother's Day. Saint Anne’s MOM’s group also supports this project by providing an additional 12 gift bags for the soon-to-be moms living in Catholic Charities Regina Residence.

We plan to deliver 55 tote bags to these homes on May 7th, prior to Mother's Day. We have the bags, but your help is needed in gathering the gift items to fill them! Please mark your donations "Mother's Day" and place in the Loaves & Fishes closets in the Church (last closet on the right) Thank you!

If you are able to help with this specific need, please contact Sharon Justvig at 488-8693 or Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904. If you have new or gently used items, please consider donating them at the parish office. Thank you for your support!

Weekly Food Drive

Many thanks to all who assist with the mission of Loaves and Fishes - to help provide food and other necessities for the many struggling families in our local area. Last week’s food donations were delivered to the Pope Francis Hospitality Center in Elmont, where your support is very much appreciated.

If you are wondering how you can be of help to people in need, please consider bringing food to the Loaves and Fishes closets when you come to Mass. The Loaves and Fishes closets are in the left rear of the church, open 7:00AM—2:30PM. Thank you for your support!

We are grateful for our daily Mass parishioners who so willingly lend a helping hand with the food deliveries, regardless of weather!

Resilience... You are not alone

Meeting on Tuesday, May 1st in the Rectory

Many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health due to the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated—do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s Resilience group offers support to parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with others who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, May 1st at 7:30PM. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Thank You

A special thank you to all of our Catechists who teach in our Faith Formation Program. Sharing the gift of your faith and time is so greatly appreciated by everyone in our parish.

We are truly blessed to be part of Saint Anne’s Parish, a faith community where our pastor, Fr. Tom, recognizes the significance of a successful Faith Formation program. We have close to 1,000 students in our program whose future in their Catholic faith is nurtured in our classrooms.

Volunteers are an essential component of the success of Faith Formation, whether you are a catechist, substitute catechist, or hall monitor. We encourage parishioners, parents, and high school students to share your faith with the youth of our parish.

This year, we will be mailing home registration forms for next year, in the beginning of May. Please contact us with any questions you may have.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Fourth Sunday of Easter

“I am the Good Shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me…”

Today’s gospel reminds us that we do not come to God alone; we are part of a community identified as sheep of the Good Shepherd. It is in this community we call church that we are gathered, listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd, nourished and protected. Pray for the gift of humility to listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd and trust that just as the shepherd calls us, he is calling and leading others even if it is in ways that we do not understand. We have the opportunity and responsibility to gather, listen, and be nourished by the Eucharist each week at our Sunday liturgies. Don’t miss the Good Shepherd’s call each week!

Dear Msgr. Harold,

On March 3rd the Sisters of St. Dominic from Amityville celebrated with more than 300 guests their annual Irish Night. Thanks to your support and that of your generous parishioners and others $2,212.00 was raised by the sale of chance books. This amount is a huge part of our totally successful evening.

If possible, our hope is that we might return again to the parish next year. Please share this note with the parish. Be assured that you and the needs of your parish community are intentionally part of our communal prayer.

Saint Anne’s Respite community enjoyed a wonderful evening at our fourth annual Respite Prom on April 13th. Everyone had the opportunity to walk the ‘red carpet’, with cameras flashing as they promenaded along our special ship’s deck in the McCloskey lobby. Upon entering the gym, all were invited to join in some great games with music provided by our long-time DJ, Chris Buchanan. Many thanks to Margaret Parks and Susan Donnelly for their creativity and tireless effort in organizing the Prom and to all the wonderful volunteers who help with anything that’s needed, especially Rob Fenty and Diane Wykowski. We are especially grateful to Sue Crinnion and Lucille Messina for taking photos which capture the joy and excitement of the Prom, and to our amazing teen volunteers, who are essential in making this such a wonderful night for all!
