ST. ANNE’S MEETING & MINISTRY SPACE

For the past two years you have been reading about our needs and plans for increased Meeting and Ministry space for the many activities, organizations, and ministries of the parish. We are speaking of groups of people of all ages with all different needs and interests.

We invite you to a presentation that will provide an overview and description of the numerous ministries and activities that take place in our parish and will include the architectural drawings of a new Meeting and Ministry space.

We have scheduled this presentation at various times in the hope that you will find a day that is convenient for you to come discuss and see what we are planning. We welcome the opportunity for you to ask questions you may have.

CHURCH
Dear Parishioners,

Next week, along with all the parishes of our diocese, we will celebrate Catholic Schools Week. We begin our celebration next Sunday at the 11:45AM Mass. I am delighted to share with you that our Bishop John Barres will celebrate the 11:45 Mass next Sunday. Bishop Barres’ presence will bring even more excitement to our school children as he will walk the school halls and visit classrooms after Mass. All parishioners are invited to the 11:45 Mass next week and share in Bishop Barres’ first pastoral visit to our parish.

Bishop Barres’ second visit will soon follow in the spring. I am also delighted to share with you that our Confirmation celebration will be on Tuesday, April 24th with two Masses at 1:00 and 4:00. Bishop Barres is scheduled to be the confirming bishop. The announcement of Confirmation allows us to identify our most significant celebrations for the coming spring. April 1 is Easter; April 24 is Confirmation; May 5, 12, 19 are First Communion Saturdays; May 20 is Pentecost. We have 172 Confirmation candidates, 160 First Communion students and 8 adults anticipating the completion of their Christian Initiation this Easter Season. All these celebrations are a sign of the vitality of our parish.

MEETING AND MINISTRY SPACE

This weekend, we are presenting to you all the preparation work that we have completed for our proposed new building which will give us much needed additional space for the many meetings and ministries that occur at St. Anne’s. After the Masses this weekend except for Sunday 5:30, a presentation will be offered in the cafeteria or gym regarding this new building. Information is available for review and questions will be answered. Please feel invited to come downstairs to review plans for this exciting proposal for our parish.

Our graphic from last week stirred interest and parishioners began to offer responses. An important part of the planning phrase of this project is a clear presentation of our need for additional space. I think that our committee’s presentation makes clear the need. Just this past week, three examples of our need for more space became obvious. First, the cherished members of our Senior Scene expressed their delight that in the future, they might meet in a space that is fully accessible to people with special physical needs, meet at a ground level space with no need for stairs nor an elevator, and have access to fully accessible bathrooms, designed for people with wheelchairs and other needs. Right now, Senior Scene meets in the school cafeteria during the school day. They are “sandwiched” no pun intended between the school lunch periods and the after school program.

The Men’s Bible Study is often moved around. This past week these men had to meet in the school chapel. To accommodate them, chapel furniture is re-arranged and the seats there are purposely designed for children. Although the men’s group is grateful that they can have a space, the chapel is not meant for this kind of purpose. Our new building will allow the Men’s Bible Study to have a regular space.

I have a meeting for the purposes of continued planning and presenting for this new building. The three meeting spaces of the rectory (RCIA), the cafeteria (Professional Networking), and the gym (CYO) are all occupied. I have been assigned the school library, a space not most appropriate for the purpose of the meeting. Mind you, these space conflicts all arose in one day, last Wednesday.

Anyone who has sought the use of space at St. Anne’s knows it is not always easy to “get booked” in the space you want nor in an appropriate space. (As I write this column, all rectory offices are in use. Two families are here planning funerals for loved ones. One family had to go downstairs to the basement.) The presentations after Mass and in the coming week better articulate our need for space that I can do in this column. Please be encouraged to come downstairs after Mass and you will probably better understand our need for increased space so that our 60 different ministries, activities, and organizations can all find suitable accommodations for their activities.

TODAYS READINGS

I find the readings for today most interesting. The first reading comes from the prophet Jonah whose recurring theme is repentance. The reading concludes, “When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.” God repented!!! We usually only associate repentance with us sinners. But God repented!, meaning God changed his plan, his mind. That requires of me a different way of thinking about God.

Before we get to those celebrations of spring that I wrote about earlier, we will experience Lent 2018 that will begin on Ash Wednesday, February 14. Today’s first reading might encourage us to reflect on our own need for repentance so that when Lent begins in just 3 weeks, we will have an awareness of our need for repentance, our need for change.

The second reading from St. Paul begins, “I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out.” Simply stated, Paul reminds us of what so many experience, time passes so quickly, time is short.

The gospel continues the theme of last week’s gospel, the call of the first disciples. That includes the call of James and John, brothers and sons of Zebedee. We might reflect on Zebedee’s experience of his sons’ calls and what it meant for him as their dad. “So they left their father Zebedee in the boat…” As I reflected on this story during the week, I thought how Jesus can change the dynamic of family life when we welcome him.

Have a peace-filled week.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

It is with joy, enthusiasm, and purpose-driven mission, that I invite you to celebrate National Catholic Schools Week from January 28, 2018 through February 3, 2018. Together, we recognize the extraordinary contribution that our Catholic schools across Long Island make by forming young missionary disciples, on fire with love for our Lord Jesus and the mission of the Catholic Church.

At the same time, we recognize our collective responsibility towards the future of Catholic education in our Diocese. Enrollment and investment in our Catholic schools depends on the leadership of each individual Catholic. Our willingness to witness to the transformative and destiny-changing experience of Catholic education to the families we meet makes all the difference.

As a Diocese, we are participating in V Encuentro, a national effort begun by the US Bishops to unleash the leadership and evangelizing witness of the Hispanic/Latino community in the United States. The fruits of these efforts helps to open a gateway to a deeper engagement of our Hispanic/Latino community in the mission of Catholic Education.

Pope Saint John Paul II once said: “In order that the Catholic school and the Catholic teacher may truly make their irreplaceable contribution to the Church and to the world, the goal of Catholic education itself must be crystal clear. Catholic education is above all a question of communicating Christ, of helping to form Christ in the lives of others.”

In Catholic Schools Week 2018, our Catholic schools recommit themselves to helping parents and extended families form successful, servant leaders who help drive dramatic missionary growth on Long Island and beyond.

With prayers for our shared mission and gratitude for your efforts, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Post Office Box 9023, Rockville Centre, New York 11571-9023 phone 516.678.5800 fax 516.678.3138 bishopsoffice@drvc.org

Today’s gospel tells of the very beginnings of Jesus’ ministry. He calls simple fishermen to be his first disciples. They were hardly the most scholarly or wise but yet Jesus saw in them faith and goodness. Jesus’ preaching echoes John the Baptist, “Repent and believe!” To be a disciple we have to change. These first disciples, Peter, Andrew, James and John changed at Jesus’ call. They abandoned their fishing nets and immediately followed. What “fishing nets” must we abandon if we are to follow Jesus?

Saint Agnes, Virgin and Martyr
Patroness of the Diocese of Rockville Centre
St. Agnes is widely known as the patron saint of young girls. She is also the patron saint of chastity, rape survivors and the Children of Mary. She is often represented with a lamb, the symbol of her virgin innocence, and a palm branch, like other martyrs. She is shown as a young girl in robes holding a palm branch with the lamb either at her feet or in her arms. Her feast day is celebrated on January 21. She is the patroness of our diocese.

On her feast day, it is customary for two lambs to be brought in to be blessed by the pope. On Holy Thursday the lambs' wool is removed and woven into the pallium the pope gives to a newly consecrated bishop/archbishop as a sign of his power and union with the pope.

A pallium is a white scarf-like vestment that is worn over a bishop’s vestment. It is given to a bishop/archbishop who oversees a diocese or archdiocese that is the largest in their province. A bishop who is to receive a pallium flies to Rome for the Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul. The pallium is kept overnight at the tomb of St. Peter and then given to the bishop by the Pope the next day. When the bishop returns to his diocese the pallium is formally placed on him by the Papal Nuncio. Cardinal Dolan, the metropolitan bishop for our area, wears a pallium.

The topic this past week for the RCIA was the Sacraments of Healing (Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick). The catechumens (those who will be baptized at Easter) and candidates (those who will be received into the Church or completing the Sacraments of Initiation) are preparing through prayer and study. Please keep our catechumens and candidates in your prayer – they are counting on your prayers!

Bringing others to faith in Christ Jesus is the responsibility of each one of us. Pope Francis reminds us that “All the baptized, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization...every Christian is challenged, here and now, to be actively engaged in evangelization.” If you or if you know of anyone who would be interested in joining us please contact S. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or by phoning the parish office 352-5904.

Children’s Choir
There will be rehearsal this Monday, January 22nd for the choir from 6:00 – 7:00PM in the school Music Room. New members are always welcome!

The Children’s Choir sings at one Sunday Mass a month and on special occasions. For more information contact Sr. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or at 352-5904.
Liturical Ministries

Perhaps you have a good speaking voice, a love for music and singing, like meeting and greeting people, or a desire to serve at Mass as a Eucharistic Minister or server....there is a Liturgical Ministry for you!!!
