Dear Parishioners,

We welcome today Bishop John Barres for the 11:45 Mass as we begin our parish celebration of Catholic Schools Week. Our bishop has demonstrated his commitment to the young people of our church and the ministry of Catholic education in all sorts of ways since his arrival in Rockville Centre one year ago. Bishop Barres began his ministry with us on January 31, 2017, the feast of St. John Bosco, a 19th century saint sometimes referred to as the “Apostle of Youth.” Founder of the Salesian religious community, a community with a rich history in educating young people, St. John Bosco is described as having “no formal system or theory of education; his methods centered on persuasion, authentic religiosity, and love for young people.” As Bishop Barres celebrates his first year as our bishop, we are blessed to have him with us for our Catholic Schools Mass.

St. Anne’s Parish School is a living expression of the commitment and love for young people that marks our parish. We have a wonderfully bright and well-maintained school building. We commit our greatest allotment of financial support to the parish school ministry among all our parish ministries. Our parish staff ministers to our school children in pastoral and spiritual work. Most importantly, the people who make up our school community want it to be a Christ-centered Catholic endeavor. People work diligently to make this endeavor succeed. Administration and staff form a team that meets the daily demands of a large and active school.

Our principal arrives before the sun rises and the staff of our after school program goes home long after the sun sets. Our principal is very present to the students all through the day, most especially in the cafeteria, a most important room in any school!

We have a diversity of teachers, many veterans and many in the early years of their teaching ministry. Our teachers care for our school and want our students to achieve well. Our teachers seek to incorporate and expand upon the themes and lessons that we celebrate at our many student and class Masses all through the year. The hard work of our classroom teachers is reflected in the high school acceptances and achievements of our St. Anne’s eighth graders and graduates. Our Catholic High acceptance history is nearly 100%. Not only do 100% of our students receive acceptance into a Catholic High School of their choice, most gain acceptance into all the schools to which they apply.

Our children are delightful. I find them respectful, courteous, quick to say “hello” and always interested when I interact with them about Jesus, Mary, faith, the sacraments, and our favorite topic in church, the stained-glass windows. I encourage them always to come to Mass on Sundays and ask their parents to bring them to Mass. We are always seeking to grow and improve in this area. Our parents are doing a great job raising their children.

Our parents do so much for our school. They volunteer to serve. They help supervise. They sponsor lots of events. As we begin Catholic Schools Week, we are saddened as tomorrow Monday, we will gather for the Funeral Mass of one of our Moms, Mrs. Vanessa D’Ambrosio. Mrs. D’Ambrosio is our second school parent to pass away these past ten days. Mr. Vincent P. Siriban a father of our second grader, Fallon, passed away on January 18th. Mr. Siriban’s funeral was at St. Boniface.

Vanessa was a very active volunteer at St. Anne’s. Two of Vanessa and Mr. D’Ambrosio’s (Chris) children, Isabella and Christopher, graduated from St. Anne’s School and are students at Kellenberg. Joseph is a fifth grader. Vanessa was very present at school activities, several projects, Sunday Mass and helping in the cafeteria. She also volunteered in our parish Share-A-Meal ministry. Vanessa established many beautiful friendships with other parish moms and she will be sorely missed.

Amid the profound sadness of Vanessa’s sudden and untimely death, I shared with our fifth graders a rich experience of faith and prayer that I will always treasure. This experience during the school day on Wednesday is the best example of the importance of our Catholic Parish School ministry. Wanting to be present to the school community after Vanessa’s death, I chose to spend late morning and early afternoon in the cafeteria. Two fifth grade classmates of Joseph D’Ambrosio approached me and asked me to pray with them for their classmate, his mom and their family. What a beautiful invitation! I went to their lunch table with about five other classmates and there in the cafeteria, during lunch time, we prayed. Each of the students said what they hoped for their classmate and his family. We concluded with the Hail Mary. Then the boys went to recess.

I told them I would meet them in their classrooms after recess with all their classmates. So at 12:45, I joined about 50 fifth graders, some sitting on the floor, with their two teachers present and we prayed and discussed. These children were amazing! Again, they shared their thoughts, concerns, and feelings for all the D’Ambrosio Family. They spoke about Jesus and heaven. They asked questions about God. Some cried. All were so very attentive and respectful. They shared beautiful memories. Again, they prayed.

My dear parishioners, this is why we have Catholic Schools and why we are so delighted to have 525 young children in our school and why so many more look forward to sending their children here to St. Anne’s. We are deeply saddened by the death of Vanessa D’Ambrosio and Vincent Siriban. In the depth of sadness, the beautiful expressions of faith of our young school children, I will always remember. It’s why we have Catholic Schools.

Have a blessed week!

Fa. Tom

Resilience ... You are not alone

Meeting on Tuesday, February 6th at 7:30PM in the Rectory

Research shows that many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are vulnerable and in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s has formed a group to support parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. Our group is called Resilience. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will take place on Tuesday, February 6th at 7:30PM in the rectory. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org

Quiet is certainly not part of our daily lives. We have phones ringing and beeping, video games, television, radio, etc. Perhaps we are afraid of quiet. Jesus uses the word quiet to cast out the unclean spirit in today's gospel. He also uses it to quiet and still the storm on the lake. In the presence of our demons and struggles perhaps the command “Quiet!” is what we really need. Only when we are quiet can God's words of consolation, direction and healing enter our lives. When faced with a dilemma or a difficulty take some time to be quiet – God is speaking!

Collection of Last Year’s Palm

The ashes we receive on Ash Wednesday are the ashes of the palm from last year’s Palm Sunday, connecting last year’s Lent with this year’s. We will be collecting palm next weekend of February 3rd and 4th. There will be baskets for your palm at the doors of the church on that weekend only. The palm will be burned and distributed on Ash Wednesday, February 14.

The Presentation of the Lord – February 2nd

Forty days after the celebration of Christmas, we celebrate the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. St. Luke writes of Mary and Joseph bringing the child, Jesus to the temple for the rite of purification after childbirth, according to the law of Moses. While they were there they met two extraordinary people, Simeon and Anna. Simeon recognizes Jesus as the “light for revelation to the Gentiles.” Anna praises God and “speaks about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.” Jesus is the “light of the world” and it is customary to bless candles on this day. It is often called Candlemas Day.

World Marriage Day

Sunday, February 11, 2018 is World Marriage Day which honors husband and wife as head of the family, the basic unit of society. It salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in daily, married life.

We will be having a special liturgy at the 10 AM Mass on February 11 to commemorate World Marriage Day with light refreshments sponsored by Msgr. John’s Knights of Columbus after Mass in the cafeteria. As we celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage, we invite you to join us at this liturgy to renew your marriage vows.

RCIA
At the RCIA this past week we continued our study of the sacraments. We are also viewing a video series “From Mass to Mission, Understanding the Mass and Its Significance for Our Christian Life.”

The catechumens (those who will be baptized at Easter) and candidates (those who will be received into the Church or completing the Sacraments of Initiation) are preparing through prayer and study. Please keep our catechumens and candidates in your prayer – they are counting on your prayers!

Bringing others to faith in Christ Jesus is the responsibility of each one of us. Pope Francis reminds us that “All the baptized, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization...every Christian is challenged, here and now, to be actively engaged in evangelization.” If you or if you know of anyone who would be interested in joining us please contact S. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or by phoning the parish office 352-5904.

St. Anne’s Spiritual Adoption Prayer Program
January 22 - Oct 22

Everyone loves the beauty and innocence of a baby. As an expression of that love, we will begin a Spiritual Adoption Prayer Program on Monday, January 22.

St. Anne’s Respect Life Ministry invites you to “spiritually adopt” a child who is newly conceived this month, and to pray daily for that baby for the next 9 months. Not all newly conceived babies are allowed to be born. Babies lose their lives to abortion each day. It is these babies that you are being asked to “spiritually adopt.” Please take a spiritual adoption prayer card located in the lobby of the Church and use it to pray for your child and all unborn children in danger of abortion as well as their mothers and fathers who are experiencing personal uncertainties during their pregnancies. You may name the child for whom you will be praying and thereby share a special, personal bond with your baby.
