On Wednesday, June 27th, Saint Anne’s Professional Networking group hosted a social event at Repeal on New Hyde Park in Garden City. Over 40 members gathered not only to socialize, but to find common ground and network with one another. Fellow parishioners learned more about each other's professional career path and shared their contacts with one another.

Our mission is to provide a venue and platform through Saint Anne’s Parish for developing professional connections, sharing information and discovering resources. You may join the group on LinkedIn by clicking on the “Work” tab and entering Saint Anne’s Professional Networking Group. All parishioners are welcome, whether you’re currently seeking employment or professional development or if you are employed and willing to assist others. One-to-one support is available on a confidential basis. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 352-5904.
Dear Parishioners,

Hope everyone had an enjoyable and safe Fourth of July. Finally, with the oppressive heat, the Independence Day holiday, and the “slowing down” pace of parish activities, it is beginning to feel like summer. May and June were very busy months and I hope to share with you a peaceful, quiet, and restful summer.

As I paged through last week’s bulletin, there are a number of items that caught my attention that I wish to share with you. First, I ask you to consider helping out as a catechist or volunteer with our Faith Formation program. We have a growing enrollment of Faith Formation students and we need catechists. Please consider this request and let me or Vivian Flood know of your willingness to be involved in this important and large ministry of the parish. (vflood@stannesgc.org).

We have joined with about 100 other parishes in offering FORMED to our parishioners. FORMED is a digital platform that gives you access to video-based study programs, feature films, audio presentations, and eBooks on various topics of interest to Catholics today. It is produced by the Augustine Institute. There are programs for adults, young adults, teens and children to help understand, live, and share the Catholic faith. Information appears in the bulletin as to how you might access FORMED on your computer, smart phone, tablet, or television. Some have described it as a Catholic Netflix and it is available to all St. Anne’s parishioners at no charge. Summer time might be a good time to check out FORMED.

During the summer months, we often see a decrease in Sunday Mass attendance and the Sunday collection. People traveling, on vacation, spending time out east account for the diminished Mass attendance. So far this summer, the Sunday collection has held steady. We are very grateful for your continued generosity during the summer months. Part of our stability of income during these summer weeks is an increase in parishioner participation in WeShare Electronic Contributions. This past Sunday WeShare contributions comprised more than one third of the total Sunday offering. WeShare helps us to know the expected level of giving each week. It also is more efficient than the envelope method that includes printing and postage costs. WeShare is easy to implement. Summer might be a good time to consider if you would like to join in this kind of financial support of the parish. More than 200 parish families now participate. Thank you for all your continued generosity.

SUNDAY READINGS

As I read the scriptures for this Sunday, a recurrent theme presented itself. The life of faith involves difficulties and challenges. To the prophet Ezekiel, the Lord gives a difficult mission: “Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you.” In the middle reading St. Paul speaks of his weakness and the unidentified thorn in the flesh that was given to him, and despite his begging the Lord, this thorn remains with him. In the gospel Jesus experiences the hard questioning of his own townspeople, his lack of their acceptance, and his amazement at their lack of faith.

Still in the midst of each of these difficult situations, there is something positive upon which to build. Ezekiel is affirmed in his vocation as prophet despite the great resistance placed before him. St. Paul discovers in his weakness the power of Christ that dwells in him and concludes “for when I am weak, then I am strong.” Despite his non-acceptance among his home people, Jesus has the joy of “curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.”

We ought not reduce these readings to a kind of search for a silver lining. Instead we might marvel at the strength of character of Ezekiel, Paul, and Jesus despite the adversial challenges that face each of them. Ezekiel remains faithful to his vocation despite the resistance of his people. Paul remains courageous despite his personal weakness. Jesus offers compassion while those who know him reject him.

These readings may help us to identify and appreciate people in our own lives who practice such virtues as fidelity, patience, and compassion in the midst of difficult and challenging realities. They are many. They can be children, teens, young adults, parents, seniors, and grandparents. They can be kids who do not find acceptance easy because they seem less talented, less athletic, less smart, but they are a loyal friend to some other child who might have similar struggles. It might be the anxious teenager who deeply fears failure, but is willing to put herself out in front of others and give her best effort. It might be the young adult for whom the job search is difficult, and they take a job for which they feel unprepared, but realize it’s a beginning. It might be the parent who has made great sacrifices for Catholic school and finds themselves alone at Sunday Mass, praying that their children would come back to Mass. It might be the senior who experiences the failing health of a spouse but does his very best to love in sickness and in health. It might be the grandparent whose is suddenly alone and finds great meaning and solace at Mass.

The readings this Sunday give us a great opportunity to appreciate the virtue and strength of those who face great challenges and hardship. If you experience that kind of struggle, know the Lord is with you.

Peace be with you.

Fr. Tom

LOAVES AND FISHES

“Not to share one’s wealth with the poor is to steal from them and to take away their livelihood. It is not our own goods which we hold, but theirs.” - St. John Chrysostom

School Supplies Needed

This year, Saint Martha's Church in Uniondale has asked us to donate school supplies for families in need in their community. PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

There are many parishioners involved in Parish Social Ministry, reaching out to offer assistance and sharing their gifts with one another, all in the context of our faith.

Looking for a way to volunteer? In need of some support or assistance? Please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904.

Resilience...You are not alone

Meeting on Monday, July 9th at 7:30PM
Rectory Meeting Room

Many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health due to the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated—do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s Resilience group offers support to parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with others who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

Share-A-Meal

Saint Anne’s Share-A-Meal program offers parishioners the opportunity to reach out and help persons in need by preparing a meal for them. A simple act, cooking dinner for someone who is not able to do so, but one that offers a great message of support. Parishioners who participate in Share-A-Meal offer to prepare a meal on an occasional basis, perhaps once a month, depending upon their availability. The families who receive these meals are truly grateful. More than food alone, the message being delivered is that there are parishioners who care and are willing to give of themselves in reaching out to help. For more information about how you can become part of Share-A-Meal, please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904 or email us at stannesgshareameal.org. Thank you!

Summertime Cooks Especially Needed!

Do you have some extra time during the summer months? Even if you cannot commit to cooking all year, we would love to have you assist during the summer. Our regular cooks need a vacation, but the need for meals does not lessen. Can you help?

Please call Parish Social Ministry at 352-5904 to volunteer or email us at stannesgshareameal.org.

God, teach me to let my soul rest, to still my worries and doubts, to stop my constant clatter of questions and protests. Let me come to you sometimes and just sit quietly, like a mother smiling at her sleeping baby and listening to its soft breathing...

or like a small child intent on hearing a kitten’s purr or a little bird’s chirp...

or as if I were trying to hear a soft breeze moving across a pond, a leaf dropping onto the grass.

Let me learn to wait patiently and trustingly for you to make things clearer to me.

Teach me to be as calm as a lake after sundown...

as trusting as a baby in its mother’s lap.

Teach me to grow gradually, unprotestingly, like a flower...

to go unresistingly wherever you send me, like airborne seed obeying the breeze.

Teach me to turn always toward you, the very essence of love and of life, the cause of love and life, the nourisher of love and life, the purpose of love and life, the purpose of love and life— the way leaves keep turning toward the life-giving sun. ~Joan Bel Geddes

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
“When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue.”

Jesus’ neighbors and townspeople thought that they knew him so well. They knew him as a little boy, the carpenter’s son, the son of Mary. After Jesus was away for a time in the ministry of healing and preaching, he returned to his home town and to the synagogue. But the people had put him in a box and couldn’t accept him and his teaching. As a result he could do no mighty works among them. Their lack of understanding and inability to perceive who he was limited the works he was able to perform. Can we also be too familiar with Jesus the way that his town people were? Is Jesus (and his teachings) too much for us? Let us have open hearts and minds to know that Jesus’ teachings are rooted in wisdom that comes from a lived commitment to act justly and selflessly. Let us not grow so familiar that we fail to see the presence of God in our midst.

Readings for the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Amos 7: 12-15
Ephesians 1: 3-14
Mark 6: 7-13

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, the Lily of the Mohawks
July 14th

On October 21, 2012 Pope Benedict declared Kateri Tekakwitha the first Native American woman saint. Kateri was born in 1656 in the Mohawk village of Ossernenon, near present day Auriesville, New York. Her father was a Mohawk warrior and her mother was an Algonquin Christian. At the age of four Kateri was scarred and nearly blinded in a small pox epidemic which took the life of her parents and younger brother. She was adopted by her aunt and uncle and brought to their Mohawk village near present day Fonda, New York. After she was baptized at the age of 19 and refused to marry, she was persecuted by her tribe. Soon after she traveled to Mission du Saulte St. Louis at Kahnawake near Montreal, Canada. It was here that she completed her sacraments. Her holiness was shown in her devotion to the Eucharist and Jesus crucified. She is often depicted holding a cross made of branches. Kateri died on April 17, 1680. She, along with St. Francis, is the patron of the environment and ecology.
