Dear Parishioners,

On the cover of today’s bulletin you will see a photograph of our altar servers who were able to attend an outing to Citifield for a Mets vs. Padres noon baseball game this past Wednesday. About 30 of the altar servers attended. The trip was organized by Sr. Judy who coordinates the altar servers. It was a great afternoon. I am grateful to Sr. Judy and the altar server parents who accompanied the servers and made the trip possible.

We sat in the lower part of the upper deck in left field. These seats placed the altar servers in shouting distance of Mets left fielder Michael Conforto and center fielder Brandon Nimmo. Some of the altar servers went home with hoarse and raspy voices from shouting to these players in hopes of getting a wave, or even a ball. We think they got a wave.

It was great to be with the kids for this day. They had lots of fun. I enjoyed seeing them interact with one another, free of cell phones and other gadgets. Kids really enjoying the company and friendship of other kids. They danced in the aisles to many songs hoping they might find themselves on the big outfield screen. We did see the “Welcome St. Anne’s Altar Servers” sign. The boys and girls were very well-behaved, had fun, and were always courteous and respectful. We have a great group of altar servers at St. Anne’s.

The group of 30 were representative of our total number of about 75 altar servers. Our altar servers are generous in meeting the assignment to serve that is not always convenient for them and their families. I am very grateful to the moms and dads for the adjustments they make so that their children can assist at Mass.

I think being an altar server is an excellent opportunity for children and their parents to consider. Being in the sanctuary during Mass gives boys and girls a chance to be close to the actions of the Mass and the possibility of a more active participation. Many of us who were altar servers have fond memories of sharing in this service of the Church and understand it as part of our spiritual and religious formation.

The Mets won the game 6-4, we have done this trip 2 years now and the Mets have won both games. Given the Mets overall won-loss record these two years, maybe our altar servers should go to Citifield more often. Even the altar servers wearing “Judge” shirts brought the Mets good luck.

CATECHISTS NEEDED

Faith Formation is among the most important ministry of all parishes. The religious education of our children is becoming more and more important as the society in which our children grow up becomes more and more secular. Catechists encourage Mass participation; catechists give good example of a person of faith; catechists pray with the kids; catechists share their faith and their religious experience; catechists make a difference in the lives of their students; catechists provide a great service to the parish and the church. Please consider volunteering to be a catechist. The parish and the children need you. You can call and let me know during the summer weeks. When our faith formation program resumes in September, you can speak directly to Vivian Flood.

SACRAMENTAL MARRIAGE

In the coming weeks, we will celebrate the weddings of several young people in the parish who have grown up here at St. Anne’s. It is always a delight to be part of the wedding of a couple for whom St. Anne’s is such an important place. St. Anne’s is a great place to begin a marriage. Why is that?

Those who marry here enter into a valid marriage, and for most all, if both husband and wife are baptized, a sacramental marriage. For Catholics a valid marriage is a must; a sacramental marriage, most desirable. A sacramental marriage celebrates the presence of God in the lives of the two persons as well as in the marriage. The marriage ritual celebrated in the church allows the couple to declare their consent in God’s presence, invites them to accept the sacramental seal of the fidelity of marriage vows, and permits them to anticipate the possibility of children. These are the essentials of the sacrament of marriage and they are the cause of great joy. These are not found elsewhere.

How important it is that we welcome, encourage, and support our young people to celebrate their love as husband and wife as a sacrament. Exotic places can be great places for honeymoons. They need to be preceded by marriages celebrated in church. Choices of venue for the reception are important for many reasons. For a valid, sacramental marriage they need to be celebrated first in church. Be very wary of the venue that says it will supply a priest or minister. These celebrations will probably be invalid and non-sacramental. Be very wary of the “priest” who will come to the reception venue and “perform” your wedding for a $500.00 fee. It may look like the church’s ritual; it may sound like the church’s ritual. It is not and you will discover that when you baptize your child. Young persons desiring a valid, sacramental marriage always begin in conversation with a deacon or priest in their parish. That’s where valid, sacramental marriages begin. For St. Anne’s parishioners, St. Anne’s is the best place to begin your marriage.

Have a blessed week!

Fa. Tom

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?”

Many times we are overwhelmed with the hunger in our world, especially hungry children. We can become paralyzed by the sheer immensity of the problem. A first response can be just like the apostles in today’s gospel “but what good are these for so many?” But like the child in the story sharing what little he had, we, too, can provide for others by our willingness to share from our abundance. Even the small act of bringing food to the Loaves and Fishes ministry here at St. Anne’s or donating to organizations that feed the world’s poor can be transformative for those in need and for ourselves, too. Watch the movie “Babette’s Feast”, the story of a French refugee who comes to an austere Nordic village and feeds people in a way that changes their lives.

Readings for the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Exodus 16: 2-4, 12-15
Ephesians 4: 17, 20-24
John 6: 24-35

July 31st

Saint Ignatius of Loyola was born in 1491 in the Basque region of Spain. He joined the army and was severely wounded in battle. While he was recovering he read a life of Christ and lives of the saints and decided to dedicate his life to Christ. We know Saint Ignatius as the founder of the Society of Jesus, the Jesuits, teacher of a way of prayer found in his Spiritual Exercises.

Saint Ignatius’ motto, “ad maiorem Dei gloriam”, for the greater glory of God, is the motto of the Jesuits.

Saint Ignatius, pray for us!

Just a reminder for Altar Servers, Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Each year at this time we ask all Liturgical Ministers to complete a recommitment form. A form for each ministry was emailed or mailed to all Liturgical Ministers. Please complete the form and return it to Sr. Judy – srjudy@stannesgc.org or at the parish office. This helps us to make sure that our information for contacting you is correct and up to date and also helps with scheduling when you let us know at which masses you are available to serve. A special thank you goes to all who have returned the form already!

Extra copies of the Recommitment Form are available for Lectors and EM’s on the bulletin board in the Liturgical Ministers Room. Extra copies for Altar Servers are at the sign in sheet in the sacristy. You may also return your forms in the envelope on the bulletin board. Thank you so much for your help.
The Supreme Gift
New Pastoral Letter Commemorates Fiftieth Anniversary of Humane Vitae

In this anniversary year, Bishop John O. Barres of the Diocese of Rockville Centre has issued a Pastoral Letter entitled The Supreme Gift: The Gift of Life, commemorating the encyclical of this soon-to-be canonized saint. This teaching of the late Holy Father is in many ways more important today than at any time before.

In his letter, Bishop Barres wants to teach the people of the diocese the important truths of Humanae Vitae, because these truths very much need to be reexamined today in light of the problems we face in our time.

Please take a copy of The Supreme Gift home, read it, and discuss it as married couples and as families. Bishop Barres says: “Understanding the teaching of Humanae Vitae, believing it, and living it, is one of the first and most important answers to the crisis of our time. I truly believe that the future Pope Saint Paul VI wrote the letter more for our times than even for his own. Today, it can become the first step in repairing the injury between men and women, husbands and wives, parents and children, the family and society.”

At the Mass of Beatification of Pope Paul VI in 2014, Pope Francis said of his predecessor:

“When we look to this great Pope, this courageous Christian, this tireless apostle, we cannot but say in the sight of God a word as simple as it is heartfelt and important: thanks! Thank you, our dear and beloved Pope Paul VI! Thank you for your humble and prophetic witness of love for Christ and his Church! ... In (his) humility the grandeur of Blessed Paul VI shines forth: before the advent of a secularized and hostile society, he could hold fast, with farsightedness and wisdom — and at times alone — to the helm of the barque of Peter, while never losing his joy and his trust in the Lord.”

Visit drvc.org for an electronic copy in English and Spanish. Thank you.

The darkness of our hesitations, fears and anxieties can overwhelm us in a world that provides no breath. Like the disciples, we can be locked in and afraid. It was the encounter with the Spirit that changed everything - bringing light and life. This day of talks, community and Sacraments will renew and inspire the mission we are called to, while drawing us closer to Christ Himself.

Altar Bread & Wine Memorials

Donations can be made for these in memory of loved ones both living and deceased for one week. Please come to the rectory office to make arrangements. An acknowledgement of your memorial will appear in the Sunday bulletin and we offer a card that can be given to the family of the loved one.
