Saint Anne’s Professional Networking Group offers opportunities to network, to share resources and to find support. At the core, we are a parish group in Saint Anne’s faith community. Our mission is to provide a venue and platform through Saint Anne’s Parish for developing professional connections among people, sharing information and discovering resources. Our goal is to empower those seeking personal or professional growth with actionable information.

We offer monthly meetings at Saint Anne’s, with informative speakers and ongoing opportunities to network with fellow parishioners. You can join the group on Linkedin, where you’ll find many useful suggestions and advice from members who have offered presentations at our meetings.

One-to-One Support: Anyone who might benefit from one-to-one support, please contact Linda Leone at 352-5904 or lindaleone@stannesgc.org and you will be connected to an appropriate person.
Dear Parishioners,

Happy Mothers Day! May is a beautiful time of the year and it’s a great time to honor all our moms. We are especially aware of all the moms who pray with us today at Sunday Mass and can imagine your delight in being with family members today. With our Mothers Day Novena we include today many deceased moms. Sunday Mass enables us to make a real and prayerful connection with our deceased family members. Our parish continues to welcome new moms and expectant moms as they bring new life into the world. There is also the beautiful vocation of moms who adopt children and provide all the warm love and needs to children who are welcomed into the hearts and homes of adopting parents. There is much for us to be thankful and prayerful for today. I hope this is a happy day for all.

For those of us whose parents are deceased, we have many memories today. This past Wednesday at weekday Mass, I was remembering my own mom during the homily. I was reflecting on the fast-paced world in which we live with such an emphasis on immediacy through the use of technology. It is a very different time now with such an insistence on now, a lack of patience, and the experience of waiting as one to be avoided. I was recalling the phrase my mom often used when asked a question by one of her seven kids. She often said, “We’ll see … Maybe…” As I look back, there was lots of wisdom in those words that slowed things down and taught us kids the importance of waiting. Thanks to all you wise and loving moms.

FIRST COMMUNIONS
We continue the First Holy Communion celebrations this weekend. As always, these are very happy days. Next Sunday, at the 10:00AM Mass all these children and their families are invited to come in their First Communion dresses and jackets so that we can pray and congratulate them all. I think it will be a very happy day.

PENTECOST
Next Sunday, May 20, we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost. We focus on the presence of the Holy Spirit. Some refer to Pentecost as the birthday of the Church. It is one of the very few Sundays of the year when red is the liturgical color. The celebration of Pentecost brings a conclusion to the Easter Season and the return to Ordinary Time.

A NEW DAY ON THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR
Pope Francis proclaimed a new feast, liturgically entitled an “obligatory memorial,” which is to be celebrated on the Monday after Pentecost. So this year on May 21, 2018 we will celebrate the obligatory memorial of Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church. This is not a holiday of obligation. It is a new memorial day of May. For those who follow the hierarchy of days on the liturgical calendar, an obligatory memorial ranks between a feast and an optional memorial. Importantly, by way of summary, it is an additional day of the church year when we mark our liturgical celebrations giving honor to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

TODAY’S GOSPEL
We receive an image of Jesus at prayer in today’s gospel. The reading begins, “Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed…” Two themes of his prayer emerge in the words that follow. These themes are unity and truth. They are themes of concern for our time.

Unity has also been an important focus of our lives. The Church seeks unity. Our nation includes unity in its name and identity. Neighbors are known as communities. Institutions such as schools and hospitals understand themselves in the context of communities. Families deeply desire unity. We can simply observe that for Jesus unity is a topic of prayer that he brings to the Father. Might we think that unity benefits from the blessing of God. Unity is more than a human effort only. Does authentic unity reflect a presence of God?

Jesus words of prayer embedded in the middle of this gospel convey a sense of urgency and concern. Is Jesus suggesting that not only is unity precious but also fragile? For in these words he speaks of protection and destruction. He speaks of joy and hate. He speaks of the Father and the evil one. He speaks of belonging. His words propose that we give reflection to what this great desire for unity in our lives, at many levels, means for us. In our time, we do experience fracture at many levels.

One of my own reflections during Easter has centered on the experience of unity. We need to take responsibility for unity in our lives, both the presence of unity and the lack of it, division. We need to examine how we contribute to unity and how we cause division. We also need to know the distinction between uniformity and unity. Yes there is strength in unity and there is strength in diversity. Diversity need not diminish unity. In fact, diversity can be a contributing source of unity.

Jesus’ words conclude with a reflection on truth. Jesus prays, “Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth….and I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.” Jesus’ use of the word “consecrate” in relation to “truth” suggests that for Jesus truth is sacred. We understand that. We want and expect people to tell the truth. We promote honesty as a virtue and we teach our children to tell the truth. Those who do not learn to tell the truth as children often find themselves in troubling situations as adults. Truth is one of those earliest lessons of love.

It is ironic that in our time of instant communication it is often difficult to know the truth. Some people are committed to truth. Others seem to fudge the truth. People accuse one another as liars. For the gospel reader, truth is sacred. Truth is something Jesus held dear. When we read whole the gospel prayer of Jesus, we may understand there is a connection between unity and truth. Maybe truth is a foundation building block of unity. Unity requires truth. Where truth is absent, so is unity.

Sincerely yours,

Fa. Tom

LOAVES AND FISHES

Father in heaven, thank you for the blessing of mothers and caregivers in our lives. To honor mothers, we pray that you guide us to help those whose love extends beyond their means. Help us to journey with mothers who are struggling to feed, clothe and educate their young. What grace it is to share in achieving their dreams for their children! Lord, thank you for the tenderness you show us, often through our mothers, who bear your love for us and teach us to share your love with the world. Catholic Relief Services (crs.org)

Mothers’ Day Gift Bags—Thanks for Your Support!

Thanks to the generosity of many parishioners who contributed to our Mother’s Day program, including the members of Saint Anne’s MOMs group, 65 gift bags filled with special items were delivered to mothers and mothers-to-be who are currently staying in Bethany House, Regina Residence, Momma’s House and Mother of Good Counsel Home. Thank you for the jewelry, the nightgowns, the gift items and the everyday basics which enabled us to put together wonderful gift bags for these women in need. Each bag was decorated with a ribbon and a card that read, “Happy Mothers Day from your friends at Saint Anne’s.”

Resilience...You are not alone
Meeting on Tuesday, June 5 at 7:30PM
in the Rectory meeting room

Many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health due to the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated—do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?
Saint Anne’s Resilience group offers support to parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with others who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, June 5 at 7:30PM. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

A Special Thank You

A special ‘Thank You!’ to all the dedicated catechists in our Faith Formation Program who share their faith with the youth of our Parish. They serve as wonderful role models in guiding our children to grow in faith.

Saint Anne’s Faith Formation is blessed to have very dedicated staff members. Tricia Brodersen does a great job organizing the program, including scheduling classes and our sacramental celebrations. Taylor Volpe, our 7th and 8th grade Catechetical Leader is a wonderful religion teacher who is dedicated to preparing our students for Confirmation. Marianne Huggard is our Catechetical Leader for grades 1-3, where she does an amazing job in preparing students for the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion.

Father Tom has a great vision for bringing our Faith Formation program forward with some positive changes such as gathering in the Church before classes begin. We are blessed to have a pastor who is so involved with Faith Formation, and we are thankful for Sister Judy, who helps lead us in prayer, organizes our liturgies and shares her gift of music with the children.

We look forward to a relaxing summer and hope you will consider sharing your gifts with the children in Faith Formation this fall. There are many ways to be involved and I look forward to speaking with anyone who wishes to volunteer in this wonderful ministry.

How many parents have had the experience of trying to get all the advice they can give to their children as they send them off to college? How many pray for their children each day – Holy Father, keep them, protect them? The scene for today’s gospel is the Last Supper, Jesus’ final words to the disciples gathered with him. Even knowing what was ahead of him that night, Jesus words are full of hope and compassion. He closes with a prayer, “Holy Father, keep them in your name…” He prays that they remain united in heart and soul through the many hardships that they will face. This prayer speaks of the relationship that Jesus has with the Father and his relationship with us, too. We are so blessed to have such an advocate!

Catholic Communications Campaign
This week, our second collection is for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio, and print media. And fifty percent of funds collected remain in our diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/ccc.

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES
A recent analysis of our offertory envelope distribution indicates that there are some parishioners who are receiving the bi-monthly packets but are not using them for their offertory giving. In an effort to reduce the cost of printing and mailing the sets to those who no longer use them, we have limited the distribution list to those accounts which indicate usage in the past three years. This will not only help us to control costs but also help save paper and waste.

If you are currently not receiving the envelopes and would like to, please contact the parish office at 352-5904 or by e-mail at parishoffice@stannesgc.org and we will be happy to add you to the mailing list. We also encourage parishioners to use WeShare for electronic giving. For more information on WeShare please visit our website www.stannesgc.org.

Easter Thoughts from the Gospel

The daily Lenten thoughts were very well received by parishioners, so we will continue to send and print them through the Easter season. If you do not receive this email but would like to, please email us at parishoffice@stannesgc.org (and be sure to add us to your “Safe-Senders” list).

Sunday, May 13
Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: “Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one.

Here we see Jesus praying to His Father for the welfare of his disciples and all people. Even Jesus who is God prayed! How comforting to know that Jesus prayed for us too, like parents pray for their children, for protection from evil and for joy in their lives.

Have peace - We are not alone in this world, we have Jesus himself praying for us!

Monday, May 14
“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.” Jesus continues, “It is not you who chose me, but I who chose you…” What kindness can you do today, however small, to show care and concern for another person and demonstrate that God has chosen you?

Tuesday, May 15
Jesus glorified God on earth by accomplishing the work God gave him to do. Can you glorify God today in your thoughts and actions? See Jesus in another person, take some time to really listen and talk to them.

Wednesday, May 16
Jesus advises us the word of God is truth and Jesus has given us that truth. Can we do a better job today of listening to God’s word and living the truth that Jesus has given us? Perhaps making an effort to listen more closely to the readings, Gospel and homily at Mass will help.

Thursday, May 17
In today’s Gospel Jesus tells God, the Father, that the people of the world are the Father’s gift to him.

How are you a gift in the lives of others?

Who is a gift in your life?

Are you appreciative of all God has given?

He is risen!
Alleluia!

Friday, May 18
Jesus tells Peter in today’s Gospel to “feed my sheep” and “follow me”.

Following the word of Jesus helps to make the world a better place. Also, helping others to follow the Gospel allows us to “feed His sheep”.

He is risen!
Alleluia!

Saturday, May 19
Today in the Gospel Jesus instructs his disciples “to cure the sick, raise the dead and drive out demons” without taking payment. When we give without receiving we are true disciples of Christ. Our gift is the joy displayed by the recipient of our kindness. Be Generous!

He is risen!
Alleluia!
Happy Mother’s Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let’s also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God’s children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God’s generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!
