Family Mass and Hospitality - May 13, 2018
Welcome to Pentecost, sometimes understood as the birthday of the Church. Our liturgical celebrations bring a conclusion to the Easter Season and return us to the weeks of Ordinary Time. The coming weeks are anything but “ordinary.” We will have special Solemnities of Holy Trinity and Corpus Christi. We will celebrate graduations and move into summer mode.

Our diocese will welcome a new priest on Saturday, June 23. A man who grew up in St. Anne’s is ordained a Dominican priest this weekend. Fr. Pier Giorgio Dengler was ordained with eight Dominican classmates by Cardinal Dolan on Saturday morning, May 19. Fr. Pier Giorgio is the son of Bonnie and Bernie Dengler.

In the coming weeks we will also say thank you to Fr. Rudy for his thirteen years of priestly ministry at St. Anne’s. (We just learned today of his June transfer to Good Shepherd Parish in Holbrook.) After such a long tenure as Associate Pastor at St. Anne’s, usually six years, we are not surprised by Fr. Rudy’s change of assignment. He has been a very faithful and generous priest at St. Anne’s. He is always kind. I have lived longer with Fr. Rudy than I have lived with any other parish priest. He has been very good to me as a brother priest; kind, generous, and always willing to serve in whatever way he is asked.

I will miss Fr. Rudy and remember fondly the seven years we have spent together. With you, I hope that his new assignment and pastoral duties that he will share with Bishop Coyle, the pastor of Good Shepherd, Holbrook will bring him much happiness. If you would like to assist with a farewell reception for Fr. Rudy on Sunday, June 17, after the 10:00AM Mass, please let me know.

PENTECOST

The Solemnity of Pentecost celebrates for us the presence of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Church. We have many images of the Holy Spirit. These include the dove, fire, wind and others that are shared and some are personal that people understand in their own prayer. Today’s gospel presents to me my favorite image of the Holy Spirit. The Risen Lord is described: “And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.’” My favorite image of the Holy Spirit is the very life breath of God. The Holy Spirit breathes the divine into us. Of course that language is very inadequate and in no way expresses comprehensively the mystery of the Holy Spirit.

As we leave the Easter Season, I focus on some of the Easter themes that I hope the Holy Spirit continues to bring before me as we move forward to these weeks of Ordinary Time. First is the lesson of Easter language. The Risen Lord sets the tone for Easter language with his greeting in the upper room to the apostles who are marked by fear, confusion, guilt, and embarrassment. His “Peace be with you” greeting changes everything. We cannot merely mimic Jesus’ “Peace be with you.” We need to find and speak our own Easter language expression that reduces fear, addresses confusion, alleviates guilt, and frees from embarrassment. In our relationships with one another we so often have opportunities to do just those things for people who are in need. We can uplift others when we speak Easter language. May the Holy Spirit breathe and inspire us that kind of language as we move forward.

We often heard Jesus’ words from John’s gospel during the second half of the Easter season. Jesus’ words in this gospel are often mysterious. For us human persons, mystery brings uncertainty. Our technological age with its great emphasis on speed and immediacy is often uncomfortable with uncertainty and mystery. In the Acts of the Apostles we learn of the conviction of St. Paul; we also read of his uncertainty: in recent gospels both on Sundays and weekdays, we get to see Jesus at prayer. There is no question of his faith and confidence. Can our faith admit that side by side, there might be the experience of uncertainty. Might we understand that the Holy Spirit is given to us to accompany us and even guide us in the uncertain times of our lives. I hope to be more mindful of the Holy Spirit as we encounter all the many different experiences to which the Lord calls us during this Ordinary Time.

EVENINGS OF PRAYER AND REFLECTION

We will begin these weeks of Ordinary Time with three evenings of reflection. On Monday, May 21 Sr. Mary Hughes, O.P. will present to us on the “Spirit in God’s Word.” I will listen and try to connect my own thinking about Easter language to the power that we find in the Word of God. On Wednesday, May 23, we will hear Bishop Andrzej reflect on the Holy Spirit and our experience of worship. How important it is we seek to find ways of helping people connect the experience of the Spirit and Sunday Mass. On Tuesday evening I will speak about Pope Francis’ recent Apostolic Exhortation on the call to holiness. The presence of the Spirit fuels our holiness. Please join us these three evenings if you are able.

SEMINRIAN PAUL PILEGGI

We welcomed Seminarian Paul Pileggi to the parish and rectory this past Wednesday. Paul has completed his first year of study at St. Joseph Seminary, Dunwoodie, New York, the major seminary for those studying for the priesthood for the Archdiocese of New York and the dioceses of Brooklyn and Rockville Centre. Paul will be doing a “pastoral internship” from now until the end of July. You may recall seminarian Dominik Weigel was with us last summer. In fact, five recently ordained priests have been with us as seminarians prior to ordination these past seven years. It is a service to the Church and diocese that St. Anne’s generously receives these young men during their formation. You will have the opportunity to meet Seminarian Paul in lots of different ways as he experiences parish life here at St. Anne’s. His enthusiasm and desire to serve the Lord will be a gift to us.

Enjoy a peace-filled week!

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

LOAVES AND FISHES

Today people, especially the poor, can see whether or not someone cares. They see it in your facial expression, your attitude, and they especially know if you are willing to listen. People aren’t always looking for answers, they want people who are willing to stand by them in time of need.

~ Father Richard Rock, CM

Resilience...You are not alone
Meeting on Tuesday, June 5 at 7:30PM
Rectory meeting room
Many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health due to the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated—do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s Resilience group offers support to parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with others who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, June 5 at 7:30PM.

For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org or 516-352-5904.

The event will take place at Saint Anne’s on Saturday, June 9th from 8:00AM-9:00AM. Each family is asked to donate $5 which will cover the cost of materials to make beautiful blooming planters. Once the planters are finished, each family will have the opportunity to brighten someone’s life and deliver their gift personally. Remember to bring your trowel!

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

Pentecost Sunday

“And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit..”

The very word “breath” means life. In the Genesis account of creation we hear that God breathed over the waters, giving it life. In today’s gospel from St. John we hear that on Easter Sunday Jesus breathed on the disciples and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit…” In the account of Pentecost in the Acts of the Apostles that we hear in the first reading, it was the strong wind, the breath of the Spirit, that filled the house where they were. This breath of God brings life to the Body of Christ, the church. It brings us to forgiveness, to community, to the spread of the gospel. Each day can be the “birthday” of the church if we live breathing in the breath of God, giving us life to be disciples.

Sequence for Pentecost Sunday

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!

Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!

Come, within our bosoms shine.
You, of comforters the best:
You, the soul’s most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below.

In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!

Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your seven fold gift descent;
Give them virtue’s sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end.

Amen. Alleluia!

Celebration of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday

At the 11:45 Mass today, Pentecost Sunday, Two members of the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Congratulations to Nichole Chiffriller and Dan Roeper. Today’s celebration marks the completion of the RCIA process which began last October. Many thanks to the RCIA team, Karen Boldizar, Sharon Justvig, Maureen and Deacon Jim O’Brien for walking with the RCIA candidates on this journey. It has been a blessed journey!

Readings for Trinity Sunday

Deuteronomy 4: 32-34, 39-40
Romans 8: 14-17
Matthew 28: 16-20

Congratulations to our children who received First Communion, Saturday, May 19th and to all the children of our parish who celebrated First Communion this month!
A New Feast day for the Church

The Monday after Pentecost has been designated as the memorial of The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church

O God, Father of mercies, whose Only Begotten Son, as he hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, his Mother, to be our Mother also, grant, we pray, that with her loving help your Church may be more fruitful day by day and, exulting in the holiness of her children, may draw to her embrace all the families of the peoples. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Mark your calendar - Corpus Christi - June 3rd

Over the past few years we have commemorated the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) with a procession. It has been a blessed moment each year for our parish as we walk with the Blessed Sacrament through the neighborhood. This procession gives witness to our faith in the Blessed Sacrament. This year the feast is on Sunday, June 3rd. After the 10:00 mass we will process from church to the lawn where the convent once stood. We will have benediction and then return to the front of Church. Please mark your calendar to attend the 10:00 Mass and procession.

Also at the 10:00 Mass on Sunday, June 3 we will commission our new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Amy Doggendorf, Matilde Tysz, Irene Costabile, and Daniel Pfail. Pray for them as they begin this sacred ministry.

Family Mass – May 13th

Last Sunday we celebrated the last Family Mass for the season and enjoyed hospitality after Mass. We will begin Family Mass again on October 7th!
