Celebrating Pentecost and May Crowning

Father Tom asks Florence Keefe to share her experience as a First Communicant crowning Mary in 1935

Nichole Chiffriile and Dan Roeper received the Sacrament of Confirmation at the 11:45 Mass. They were joined by their families and the RCIA team.

Recent First Communicants come to the 10AM Mass on Pentecost

Memorial Day

Monday is Memorial Day and we would like to recognize and show our appreciation to all who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country and the freedoms we enjoy. We would like to ask you to take a moment tomorrow to pray for those that have served and are serving our nation.
Celebrating Pentecost and May Crowning

Last Sunday on the Feast of Pentecost
Nichole Chiffriler and Dan Roeper received the Sacrament of Confirmation at the 11:45 Mass. Our prayers are with Nichole and Dan as they continue to live in the Spirit!

At the 10AM Mass on Pentecost, second graders who had received their First Holy Communion the past three Saturdays were invited to Mass to share their joy with parishioners and participate in the Crowning of Mary. It was a touching moment as Florence Keefe presented the crown to two first communicants. Florence had crowned this same Statue of Mary in the “old wooden church” on Adams Street following her First Communion. Hospitality followed in the cafeteria.
Dear Parishioners,

Now that we have begun the procession of weeks known as Ordinary Time, we observe today and next Sunday the Solemnities of the Most Holy Trinity and The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). Today we celebrate the life of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Next Sunday we celebrate the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Following these Sundays, we return to the numbered Sundays of Ordinary Time.

The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity reflects a central belief with many teachings steeped in tradition and theology. Truly it is a foundational doctrine of our faith. The Catechism of the Church offers some language to help us grasp the doctrine. “The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the hierarchy of the truths of faith.

“The mystery of the Holy Trinity is a mystery that is inaccessible to reason alone or even to Israel's faith before the Incarnation of God’s Son and the sending of the Holy Spirit.”

The above citations are heavy theology for the Sunday morning bulletin, and yet, we must acknowledge, if our faith is real, the profound mystery and truth of this central doctrine of our faith. As mysterious as Trinity is, we invoke Father, Son, and Holy Spirit every time we begin or end a prayer with the Sign of the Cross.

It is also the mystery that we proclaim each time we baptize a baby and say "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." It is the mystery of God’s life that Jesus reflected on in the gospels at the end of the Easter season when Jesus spoke on unity.

During this Easter season, Pope Francis shared with us his most recent Apostolic Exhortation entitled Rejoice and Be Glad, a reflection on our call to holiness. Pope Francis makes clear at the outset of his exhortation that he does not seek to give us a definition of holiness. At the same time, throughout the document, he describes several dimensions of holiness. I often think of Baptism as how God shares his life with us, the life of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I think of our holiness as that divine life shared with us and how we live that life and share that life with others. Because God dwells in us, we are holy. We are called to give living expression to that holiness. In some ways then, the fruit of our holiness is the unity that is such an essential understanding of the Trinity.

In the very beginning of his document, Pope Francis makes this connection between the Trinity, holiness, and community. Pope Francis writes in the sixth paragraph of his exhortation: "The Holy Spirit bestows holiness in abundance among God’s holy and faithful people, for ‘it has pleased God to make men and women holy and to save them, not as individuals without any bond between them, but rather as a people who might acknowledge him in truth and serve him in holiness.’ In salvation history, the Lord saved one people. We are never completely ourselves unless we belong to a people. That is why no one is saved alone, as an isolated individual. Rather, God draws us to himself, taking into account the complex fabric of interpersonal relationships present in a human community. God wanted to enter into the life and history of a people.” Pope Francis makes clear the importance of family community to our experience of holiness. His teaching makes clear the importance of the parish community to the individual seeking holiness and desiring salvation. Our life at St. Anne’s matters and is one of the arenas of our holiness.

Soon after the above, Francis writes “Holiness is the most attractive face of the Church.” There are so many implications to this reflection of Francis. People want a holy Church. Holiness is a primary concern, more than efficiency, more than the “bottom line,” more than a particular ministry. At St. Anne’s we want to be a “holy and attractive face” to the larger community. By our holiness, others will seek to share life with us.

A popular word these days is genuine. Authentic is a similar word. These words, when used as an adjective for a person suggests that a person is real or true. An authentic and genuine person is one who is honest and truly him or herself. Pope Francis links holiness to authenticity. He writes, "We should not grow discouraged before examples of holiness that appear unattainable. There are some testimonies that may prove helpful and inspiring, but that we are not meant to copy, for that could even lead us astray from the one specific path that the Lord has in mind for us. The important thing is that each believer discern his or her own path, that they bring out the very best of themselves, the most personal gifts that God has placed in their hearts, rather than hopelessly trying to imitate something not meant for them." Holy people are real people, genuine and authentic persons. Holiness struggles mightily with phoniness or faking it. Holiness is deeply personal. It is a personal response to what God asks of us. As personal as it is, for most people it is lived in the context of community and participation in community.

For Pope Francis, holiness is for everyone. He speaks of the holiness of the person who lives next door and the holiness of the persons we meet in ordinary circumstances in the streets of our neighborhoods. I hope during the summer to continue to share with you the reflections of Pope Francis on holiness.

Blessed Memorial Day as we remember all those holy men and women who have given their lives in the service of our country.

God bless you and those you love.

Fr. Tom

Resilience...You are not alone
Meeting on Tuesday, June 5 at 7:30PM
Rectory meeting room

Many parents don’t discuss concerns about their children’s mental health due to the stigma that is often attached. Just when parents are in need of support, they tend to withdraw. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? As a result, do you often feel isolated—do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s Resilience group offers support to parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with others who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, June 5 at 7:30PM.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

The Most Holy Trinity

"Go…make disciples …baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Each day we make the Sign of the Cross, reminding us of the Trinity as the communion of love between Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. God shows his overflowing love for us in Jesus, and invites us to share in his love through the power of the Spirit. In the gospel Jesus sends his disciples out to bring others into the community of love that is the Trinity. This divine community shows us how to live with each other – in love. The mystery of the Trinity calls us to go both beyond ourselves and deeper into ourselves – to an intimacy with God that delights us and brings us to share this delight with others. Bishop Barres has called us to “dynamic missionary growth.” Living each day in the love of the Trinity can be the very thing that brings others to faith, so go make disciples...

Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
- Corpus Christi

Over the past few years we have commemorated the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) with a procession. It has been a blessed moment each year for our parish as we walk with the Blessed Sacrament through the neighborhood. This procession gives witness to our faith in the Blessed Sacrament. This year the feast is on Sunday, June 3rd. After the 10:00 mass we will process from church to the lawn where the convent once stood. We will have benediction and then return to the front of Church. Please mark your calendar to attend the 10:00 Mass and procession.

Also at the 10:00AM Mass on Sunday, June 3 we will commission our new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Amy Doggendorf, Matilde Tysz, Irene Costabile, and Daniel Pfail. Pray for them as they begin this sacred ministry.

Girl Scouts Plant for Seniors

On Sunday, May 6th Girl Scout Troop 1403 earned their Regina Coeli award at St. Agnes cathedral in Rockville Center. This was a year long journey where the girls learned about Mary’s place in history and enriched their faith through prayer.

Mary is one of the senior parishioners whose day and garden were brightened by the visit from the girl scouts.
Monday is Memorial Day and we would like to recognize and show our appreciation to all who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country and the freedoms we enjoy.

We would like to ask you to take a moment tomorrow to pray for those that have served and are serving our nation. Many families have lost loved ones, and our military men and women that have survived will face countless struggles and challenges for the rest of their lives.

On Monday when we honor and celebrate their service and sacrifice, let us also remember the once homeless veterans, who because of your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, have been helped through our ministries and programs like Catholic Charities Project Veterans’ Independence.

Thank you for your support! You make a difference in the lives of so many through your prayers and generosity!
