“Answering for Faith”
A Six Part Series on Mondays beginning October 15th
at 9:30AM and again at 7PM in the Church

Fr. Valentine will offer a six-part series for adults that examines the relationship between Catholic faith and culture. Contrary to the popular view that religious faith requires people to “leave their minds at the door,” Catholicism has inspired many of the greatest advances in western civilization, and in virtually all areas of human existence: philosophy, science, art, ethics, and spirituality. This program is an opportunity to consider the connection between the life of the mind, the heart, and the spirit. Here are some of the topics we will consider:

Monday, October 15: Introduction, "The Life of Leisure"
Monday, October 22: “Faith as Reasonable”
Monday, October 29: “Work and Leisure”
Monday, November 5: “Science, the Knowledge of God’s Creation”
Monday, November 12: “Art, the Reflection of God’s Beauty”
Monday, November 19: “Ethics and the Unique Dignity of Human Existence”

We will meet for exactly one hour in the Church, from 9:30-10:30 AM and again from 7-8 PM. If a funeral is scheduled for a Monday morning, however, we will break by 10:15 AM. No advanced preparation or reading is required. Please come ready to participate in a lively discussion!

Blessing of Animals

Last Sunday, Sept. 30 th many parishioners brought their pets to the Blessing of Animals. Father Tom blessed many dogs and one cat! We are grateful to God for the gift of pets in our lives. This is celebrated each year near the feast of Saint Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of our environment and also of the animals. Each family received a blessing certificate and a medal of St. Francis with Pope Francis on the other side!
Dear Parishioners,

About 120 people came out last Monday evening to participate in the conversation about our Church and parish. The proposal for the conversation was to share any topic of concern to those present. Comments, questions, and responses were offered. Many comments were offered from the heart and souls of those present and expressed strong feelings. These feelings voiced sadness, anger, disappointment and frustration. At the same time, present in the church throughout the 90 minute meeting was the evident love for our faith and concern for our parish and church. That kind of love was combined with the strong feelings and emotions that were shared.

Long time parishioners addressed the hurt that the parish felt in 2002 when St. Anne’s experienced so personally and directly the sexual abuse scandal revealed at that time. For many the pain of those years remains. Parishioners want procedures and policies regarding parish priest assignments that ensure the safety of children and parishioners that is promised in the Charter for Protection of Children 2002.

Comments and questions were raised about the church leadership, the bishops, and Pope Francis. People want more information and they want to be heard. Parishioners want to hear from Pope Francis in response to the testimonials from Archbishop Vigano. Some want conversation with our bishop.

Throughout the evening, references were made to parishioners’ love of St. Anne’s. Parishioners cited our sense of community as a wonderful quality of our parish. People asked how we were going to move forward. I responded that we will do our best to continue the many ministries and activities that have so much vitality at the present time. In October, we will have 20 baptisms, the most I have ever experienced here. At Respite last Friday evening, the first of the year, probably 150 people were present to share in this very helpful activity of Parish Social Ministry. About 950 kids attended the first week of Faith Formation classes this week. More than 500 students attended school each day. And today, we begin anew our 10:30 Family Mass. We are moving forward.

And how will we move forward with this present abuse scandal in the Church? Our parishioner meeting was a good step and those who shared in it expressed gratitude. Persons from other parishes also attended. One person spoke eloquently of the need for healing and prayer. We will have another opportunity for conversation this fall and we will have a time for prayer for healing. These have to be considered in terms of when we will have our next meeting and how we will come together in prayer. I hope to share dates with you within the next three weeks.

Parishioners expressed the need to move forward. We must move forward in a timely manner. I agree and I thank all those who shared in the evening. I realize we need to be increasingly mindful of the great damage done to persons who are victims of sexual abuse and sinful sexual behavior. With our faith, and the Holy Spirit as our guide, might we promote healing here at St. Anne’s.

Today’s Gospel

Jesus’ words in today’s gospel affirm the sacredness of marriage. So holy is the bond between man and woman that we have the privilege of celebrating marriage as a sacrament. It is a very joy-filled experience to be present as a bride and groom exchange their vows. In the language of the day, it is truly “awesome” that this woman and man make the promise to love one another for the rest of their lives.

I think it is important that we encourage young persons to celebrate marriage as a sacrament. We all recognize that marital love grows as the man and woman’s love increases. The presence of the sacrament is a helpful and guiding grace to a young couple.

Couples offer many reasons for not marrying as a sacrament. There are many misunderstandings about the sacrament of marriage and related issues such as divorce and annulment. As persons make decisions about these important life concerns, please let us help you to get the right information. At times, people mistakenly think they cannot marry in the Church. Sometimes wedding venues present the couple with the option of providing a “Catholic priest” to perform the wedding. Often this “Catholic priest” is a former priest with no faculty (authorization from the Church) to witness a wedding. These are not valid weddings.

One of the great joys I experience as a priest is assisting a couple celebrate a wedding anniversary to 40, 50, 60 years or more. As the couple has a very simple renewal of vows, usually after Mass, they face one another and make their renewal. Their voice, their eyes, how they communicate to each other all suggest the great depth of their love. Usually surrounded by family and friends, I get to see the beautiful love that has grown through all these years. These celebrations demonstrate the power of the sacrament of marriage.

Have peace-filled week!

LOAVES AND FISHES

Few souls understand what God would accomplish in them if they were to abandon themselves unreservedly to Him and if they were to allow His grace to mold them accordingly. ~St. Ignatius Loyola

If we open ourselves to God’s grace this week, perhaps we might better see the needs of those who are poor and share whatever we can with them. We invite you to join in the efforts of Loaves and Fishes and donate what you are able – coats or warm clothing, food or your time to help make deliveries where needed.

Children possess an uncomplicated understanding of the things of God that many adults unfortunately outgrow. Jesus holds up the child's simplicity and humility as a model of a servant-disciple. Jesus tells us that by embracing child-like kindness, compassion, and forgiveness we realize the Kingdom of God.

During the Second World War he along with Germany’s ambassador to Turkey, helped save an estimated 24,000 Jewish people. He was the pope from 1958 to 1963. During his time as pope, John XXIII convened the Second Vatican Council. Two of his most famous encyclicals were Mater et Magister (1961) and Pacem in Terris (1963). “Good Pope John” died in 1963.

Good Pope John, pray for the Church that you loved so well.
