Commemoration of All Souls

Friday, November 2nd at 7:30PM

Each year we celebrate Mass for all those who have died during the past year at Saint Anne’s. If we think for just a moment, each of us in the parish will remember someone who has touched our lives and is no longer with us.

Dear Parishioners,

This week is one of the more special weeks in the liturgical life of the Church. We observe and celebrate the three days of October 31 to November 2, the days of Halloween, All Saints, and All Souls. Halloween is connected to All Saints as by its name means the Eve of the Holy ones. In school, this past Thursday, we had the treasured Saints Parade of our first-graders. Each of them selects a saint, makes a brief presentation about the saint and dresses up. It is a fun and instructive parade. Some costumes are rather elaborate; all are precious.

In our contemporary celebration of Halloween, it’s all about dressing up in costume. People like to become unrecognizable as they choose a hero, or a nemesis, or a fictional character for their Halloween identity. It’s fun and it’s make believe. It’s about pretending.

Halloween then gives way to All Saints. This holy day is an about face to Halloween; it’s just the opposite. All Saints is about real people, good people, people that inspire. All Saints figures all have historical dates of birth and death. There is no fiction to All Saints. It’s about true stories of good people. It’s about our parents and grandparents, our siblings and children, our friends, family, and neighbors who we believe share in eternal life in heaven. One liturgical book describes All Saints: “The feast celebrates all the unknown saints who are now in Heaven. Sanctity is within everyone’s reach; through the Communion of Saints each part of the Mystical Body of Christ helps every other to grow in holiness.”

All Saints reminds us that all are possible saints. And as we honor those who are saints, we realize they desire to help and support us as we move towards increased sanctity in our own lives. I love our belief in the Communion of Saints. It helps me remain connected to my grandparents and parents, to my brother and so many other members of my extended family. The feast keeps me mindful of those hundreds of parishioners these past 27 years whose Funeral Mass I celebrated. All Saints is a special day and I hope it is more than just a day of remembrance for all of us. Make it a day of prayer and fulfill the Catholic obligation to attend Mass on Thursday, November 1, the Solemnity of All Saints.

All Saints then gives way to All Souls Day. This is also a day of remembrance and prayer. We believe that one enters heaven when a person is fully prepared for that gift of eternal life shared with all the saints in glory in the presence of God — — heaven. We call this experience of preparation and purification Purgatory. It is a time of growth in holiness so that the person may enter fully the joy of heaven. It is an experience of God’s love for us so that we can be relieved of anything in our lives that would be an obstacle to the fullness of joy that heaven promises. The Church offers us All Souls Day and the All Souls Novena so that “the Church fulfills the great responsibility of charity toward the dead.” In a profound statement one liturgical book proclaims, “Death cannot break the bonds of the Body of Christ.” Our prayers of All Souls Day remind us that we remain very connected and related to those who have passed before us. Our prayers on this day is a continued expression of our love for deceased family members, friends, and parishioners. Included in the bulletin is the complete schedule of our Masses for All Saints and All Souls. All Saints is a holyday of obligation. All Souls is not but the Church has a special liturgy for this sacred day. An evening Mass at 7:30PM includes a special remembrance for those who have died in the past year.

BUILDING PROGRESS

This past week, representatives of the parish met with the leadership of the Western Property Owners Association about our new building plans. WPOA invited us to make a presentation. Again, the plans were very well received. We assured the WPOA that we would support their efforts to do what can be done to keep our neighborhood streets safe in terms of traffic flow and parking.

One question arose regarding the former convent building. Why was that building not renovated to meet the needs of ministry and meeting space? Uses of the convent building were considered for about eight years ever since the religious sisters left the building. A parish committee determined prior to 2011 that the convent use was an unresolved question. Offers were made to other religious groups. None were interested. Inquiries were made about renovation. It was estimated one million dollars for the first floor. The presence of asbestos, the kind of construction with steel re-bars and brick and block, the falling plaster, and the roof, plumbing, and electrical conditions, no vision for use, and prohibitive costs of renovation, the decision was made to raze the convent building. Just as the demolition was completed we had the rectory fire. Recovery from that fire led to the loss of three meeting rooms in the rectory. Many ideas were considered for the use of the convent property. Parish leadership and committees of parishioners support the decision to use this space for a much needed Ministry and Meeting building. This question of the convent and the decision process that has resulted in the current building project has been well documented in the bulletin over the past five years. Parishioners have been able to follow the progress, provide input, and continue to be very supportive of what is happening. As always, we will keep you informed.

VETERANS DAY CELEBRATION

"Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!"

Jeremiah’s prophecy in the first reading, “the blind and the lame in their midst” is realized in today’s gospel story. From the way that the story is told, Bartimaeus must have heard about Jesus because when he heard that Jesus was on the road he immediately called out to him. Everyone tried to quiet him down, to make him invisible but Jesus immediately responds to him with compassion. Now the crowd has a change of heart and they say to him, “Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you.” Bartimaeus received his sight and the crowd received their “sight”, recognizing Bartimaeus’ faith and trust, and his response in following Jesus. We pray, “Lord, that I may see!” see you in everyone, the poor, the blind, the lame, the stranger.

Did you know that 2019 is the 90th year of our parish of St. Anne?

Yes, this coming year will be our 90th Anniversary! We have come a long way from the store on Covert Avenue where the parish masses began. The parish moved from Covert Avenue to Adams Street and on to Dartmouth Street. Many parishioners have passed through the doors of our church. We have celebrated Sunday Mass, baptisms, first communions, confirmations, graduations, anniversaries, funerals. We have gathered as a parish family in happy celebrations and in times of deepest sorrow. Our prayer for each other has held us together.

Let’s celebrate this milestone throughout the year. They say that firsts are the best because they are beginnings so let’s plan on beginning each month of the year together as a parish family! Put a “Save the Date” on the first of every month in the New Year. A schedule of events will be announced soon!

Saint Anne’s: A Legacy of Faith, Service and Compassion

“Answering for Faith” Mondays at 9:30AM and again at 7PM in the Church

Fr. Valentine will offer a six-part series for adults that examines the relationship between Catholic faith and culture. Contrary to the popular view that religious faith requires people to “leave their minds at the door,” Catholicism has inspired many of the greatest advances in western civilization, and in virtually all areas of human existence: philosophy, science, art, ethics, and spirituality. This program is an opportunity to consider the connection between the life of the mind, the heart, and the spirit. Here are some of the topics we will consider:

Monday, October 29: “Work and Leisure”
Monday, November 5: “Science, the Knowledge of God’s Creation”
Monday, November 12: “Art, the Reflection of God’s Beauty”
Monday, November 19: “Ethics and the Unique Dignity of Human Existence”

We will meet for exactly one hour in the Church, from 9:30-10:30 AM and again from 7-8 PM. If a funeral is scheduled for a Monday morning, however, we will break by 10:15 AM. No advanced preparation or reading is required.

Please come ready to participate in a lively discussion!
Liturgical Ministers’ Mass and Morning of Reflection

On Saturday, October 20th, eucharistic ministers, lectors, and ushers gathered for the 8:30 Mass followed by a morning of reflection in the cafeteria. Sister Elaine Jahrsdoerfer, OP spoke on the importance of liturgical ministry and how these ministries can transform us and the people we serve. We come to liturgy with one Spirit, bringing many gifts for one Mission – the Kingdom of God!
