Dear Parishioners,

As I write this column on Thursday morning, the humidity hangs heavy in the air but the clouds are starting to give way to some sun. Hopefully, by Saturday the sun will have broken through, the humidity dissipated, and we will have a beautiful Spirit Day Saturday. That is the weather forecast and I hope Craig Allen and crew are correct.

In the meantime we are concerned for those living in the Carolinas. With all those good people, we hope that Florence loses her strength quickly. If we are called upon to help with some sort of collection or assistance, we will do our best to be generous.

I think what Spirit Day means and signifies is very important for us this year. Most, if not all, of us are quite aware of the stories of sin and abuse that have been part of our Church experience these past several weeks. I reflect on this experience daily and one of the most important learnings for me is how most of us live our faith in the context of our families and parish community. As I like to say, the parish is the heart and soul of the Church. It is not chanceries, offices, or diocesan departments. Those entities are meant to support parish life where the Church’s mission is exercised and lived on a daily basis. So what a gift and grace it is that despite the scandal that has affected so many, our parish has been able to maintain a vibrant and dynamic faith life. St. Anne’s experienced much pain and suffering back in 2002 when the diocese and parish learned of abuse among the clergy. We are mindful of those whose experiences as victims now unfold all over our country.

Spirit Day celebrates the strength of St. Anne’s. Most specifically, that strength rests in the persons and families of the parish. Recent conversations with some parishioners about the scandal events have allowed us to identify our faith lived locally in daily life is very different than the loss of confidence in the institutional leadership of the Church. I believe that the institution has distanced itself, even separated itself from the People of God in the parish. The institutional Church will need to find its way back to the people.

So Spirit Day celebrates our family faith made evident in all sorts of ways. I hear almost daily how families have experienced illness, death, or hardship and find great consolation and help among their neighbors and friends who share in the life of St. Anne’s. I see each day now with the new school year how happy are the 508 children who come to our classrooms each day. I am so grateful to that group of moms and dads who give dozens and hundreds of hours of service so that the young people of our community might thrive. CYO coaches, Faith Formation catechists, HSA parents, Parish Social Ministry volunteers, Respite volunteers, liturgical ministers, hundreds of parishioners who volunteer so much service. It is not too early to be mindful of the outpouring of generosity we see as a parish during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Seasons. All this vibrancy and vitality is what we celebrate at Spirit Day.

Today’s Gospel is a wonderful one for Spirit Day. At the conclusion of the gospel, Jesus says, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.”

For some people, living this gospel might be a very individual experience. And when that happens, it can be most difficult and heroic. Yet, taking up one’s cross, and losing one’s life, as Jesus suggests, is more often learned and experienced in the context of family and community. In the context of faith, we gain insight and support for living this gospel truth in our parish community, in the Eucharist and in prayer.

I believe St. Anne’s is a gift to us all. I know it is for me. We are surrounded with good people who love and support one another. It is this experience that we celebrate more than anything else at Spirit Day.

FAITH FORMATION

One of our most pressing needs at this time is our need for more catechists. We anticipate more than 1000 students coming to us for faith formation this year. New registrations and requests for transfer into our program come every day. We do not have enough catechists to meet the need. Our faith is meant to be shared. Our children need examples of parishioners who are dedicated to their faith and their parish. Many come from families where both parents are working and it is difficult for them to volunteer. Happily, we have had many grandparents volunteers and do a great job. We also have had high school students teach the younger children. As of today, we have 43 catechists for grades one through six and we need 21 additional. We are also recruiting seventh and eighth grade catechists. Please consider helping us with this critical ministry. You can speak to Vivian Flood or me.

BEING CATHOLIC AT ST. ANNE’S:
OUR FAMILIES, OUR MISSION, OUR FUTURE!

After Spirit Day, I will share with the parish a progress report about where we are with our building project. The above statement:

“Being Catholic at St. Anne’s:
Our Families, Our Mission, Our Future!”

is our campaign theme for fundraising. At Spirit day, renderings of the building were made available. We will soon share the renderings via the website and the bulletin. We will keep you informed.

Please consider volunteering as a catechist.

Enjoy a peace-filled week!

Words of Pope Francis

“Our whole life is an encounter with Jesus: in prayer, when we go to Mass, and when we do good works, when we visit the sick, when we help the poor, when we think of others, when we are not selfish, when we are loving… in these things, we always meet Jesus. And the journey of life is precisely this: journeying in order to meet Jesus.”

Today’s gospel brings to mind a story from the US civil rights era when a person said that he admired Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. When invited to join and march with him, the person said, “I am an admirer, not a follower.” It is easier to be just an admirer of Jesus rather than a follower. Even Peter found Jesus’ teaching about his suffering and death hard to accept. We are called to take up our cross each day – that’s how we follow Jesus. What does taking up our cross entail, what does it mean to die to self? We bear our crosses when we live the Works of Mercy, when we tend to the sick, shelter the homeless, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, give drink to the thirsty and more. This is how we show who Jesus is. Has “knowing” Jesus ever pose a serious challenge to you?

Feast of St. Matthew – September 21st

The gospels tell us that Matthew was a tax collector who invited Jesus to dine with him. His encounter with Jesus was life changing for him. Matthew became one of the twelve apostles and authored the first of the four accounts of the Gospel in the Bible. The Gospel of Matthew was written for a largely Jewish-Christian community and it seeks to portray Christianity as consistent with Jewish tradition. Oftentimes in the gospel Matthew refers back to the Old Testament. The gospel is written in the pattern of narrative and discourse. It is believed that Matthew’s journeys took him to Ethiopia where he was martyred. He is the patron saint of accountants and customs officers.

St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility for Retired Priests
September 23, 2018

Next weekend there will be a collection for St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility. The Diocese of Rockville Centre is blessed and privileged to be able to care for its senior priests, men who have dedicated their lives to serving God and Community. Often devoting more than 60 years to ensuring that Christ could be present daily in all of our lives, priests have witnessed and celebrated with us life’s great joys and its inevitable sorrows. They have been Christ’s presence during our weddings, and our children’s Baptisms and Confirmations. They have held our hands and prayed with us during our greatest challenges. They have helped us to see God in these moments and have always shared His love with us. Caring for those who cared for use.

Remembering and Caring for our Senior Priests

Do you ever think about a favorite Pastor or Parish Priest and wonder how they are and where they may be living?

Well, for our Senior Priests who are living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility in Amityville, life is good and sometimes very busy.

“We are very happy that more and more of our Priests are taking advantage of this wonderful facility. We thank you for your support, we depend on it, especially now with the increasing costs we are experiencing. We couldn’t do it without you!”

- Rev. Msgr. Thomas Costa, Vicar for Senior Priests

“Since I arrived at St. Pius X, I have found living here like being at home. I have found much happiness with my fellow priests and in the entire community, and I especially appreciate the support I receive. Thank you for helping to make this home possible.”

- Rev. Msgr. T Peter Ryan

Even in retirement our senior priests retain roles as our shepherds, and St. Pius X enables these dedicated men who live there to be fully engaged members of the community. “Still on duty,” they serve as our teachers, counselors, and spiritual leaders.

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible! Thank You!
