All Are Welcome!

We welcome new members to join our parish family. Please contact the parish office. We also welcome any adult who was never baptized, baptized non-Catholics or those seeking to receive First Eucharist or Confirmation to become a full participant in the Catholic Church.
We have hit another milestone this week, surpassing 90% of our goal! In addition, the participation rate continues to grow. As previously stated, we are looking to reach our goal by July 1st. We are close to soliciting bids for the construction project and attainment of our goal impacts the fiscal planning for the coming years.

If you have not yet given you can help us achieve our goal by making your pledge or donation today! No gift is too small.

Did you know….

The large meeting rooms in the new Meeting and Ministry Building will be equipped with contemporary audio visual and computer technology that will enable our ministries to show presentations and movies with ease. In addition the large rooms can be divided to create smaller spaces based on the needs of the gathering. The rooms are easily accessible to all and air-conditioned. For these reasons we can envision more movies nights and Soup Suppers with Sr. Judy, more presentations such as the screening of Angst sponsored by Parish Social Ministry, and more Catholic Daughter Bridges in the future.

We thank you for your support and will continue to provide you with regular updates on the progress of the new building. If you have any questions please feel free to contact the parish office at 352-5904.
Dear Parishioners,

This coming Saturday, June 15, St. Anne’s Parish School will celebrate graduation. The Class of 2019 and their parents have offered a great deal to our parish school. The boys and girls graduated with many achievements, have expressed great community spirit, and have served the parish in many liturgical ways as altar servers and choir singers. Many of these young families have expressed their Catholic faith through consistent worship at Sunday Mass. I share with you the letter I wrote for their school yearbook.

Dear Class of 2019,

Congratulations as you are graduated from St. Anne’s Parish School! I hope these years at our school have been blessed and happy ones for you. As a class and as individual students, you have many achievements. Your parents, teachers, principal, and pastor are all very proud as you receive your St. Anne’s diploma on June 15.

You have many feelings as you complete your elementary and middle school years. I am sure gratitude is among them. Your parents have made many sacrifices to send you to Catholic school and have supported you through the years. Let them know of your gratitude and appreciation. You and your teachers have spent much time together. They have always wanted you to succeed. Always remember your teachers.

Thank you for the time that we have spent together, especially this spring as we prayed together at Mass all during the season. We prayed in the Chapel of St. Therese as you prepared for Confirmation on May 6 and for your graduation. We spoke often about the Holy Spirit and the Spirit’s ability to “shook” us. Stay close to the Holy Spirit. Pray at Sunday Mass each week. Let no one or anything prevent you from praying at Mass. As you grow in the years ahead, you will find Sunday Mass a wonderful hour you spend with others giving praise and thanks to God. Sunday Mass will keep you a strong and wise Catholic.

Congratulations and peace be to you!

PENTECOST

The Church today celebrates Pentecost and the life of the Holy Spirit. As the years pass and we work with eighth graders in preparation for Confirmation, I find myself paying increasing attention to the importance of the Holy Spirit. During this past week on Tuesday, the Liturgy of the Hours Office of Readings, offered a reflection on the Holy Spirit. It is lengthy and some of the language is very different than the language of our day. I offer you parts of this reading and summarize other sections. The reflection comes from St. Basil the Great.

In the opening lines of his reflection, St. Basil suggests the Holy Spirit “must surely stir the soul.” The Holy Spirit brings life. As today’s gospel says the Risen Lord “breathed on them and said, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit.’” The Holy Spirit is a source of life for us. The Holy Spirit shares divine life with us. St. Basil writes this: “To the spirit all creatures turn in their need for sanctification; all living things seek him according to their ability. His breath empowers each to achieve its own natural end.”

The following paragraph of St. Basil is meant to be a source of reflection and meditation for us: “The Spirit is the source of holiness, a spiritual light, and he offers his own light to every mind to help in its search for truth. By nature the Spirit is beyond the reach of our mind, but we can know him by his goodness. The power of the Spirit fills the whole universe, but he gives himself only to those who are worthy, acting in each according to the measure of his faith.”

An important and cherished teaching of our faith is the Communion of Saints. We believe that those who have entered eternal life and heaven are part of the community that enjoys the forever presence of God. We hope one day to share in that community. While we mourn and miss those who have gone before us, “The spirit raises our hearts to heaven, guides the steps of the weak, and brings to perfection those who are making progress.”

St. Basil ends his reflection on a most promising and hopeful note: “Through the Spirit we become citizens of heaven, we are admitted to the company of angels, we enter into eternal happiness, and abide in God. Through the Spirit we acquire a likeness to God.”

We have a lot to celebrate today, Pentecost. The life of the Holy Spirit offers us so much.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fa. Tom

DRY MASS

An opportunity to ask questions

Come join Fr. Johnny for a “Dry Mass” as he explains the complete Order of the Mass, including topics such as the reasoning behind the structure, why we stand or sit at certain time during the Mass, the importance of the gifts, and many other elements you may be curious about!

ON: TUESDAY, JUNE 11 AT 7:00 PM
The very word “breath” means life. In the Genesis account of creation God breathed over the waters, giving it life. In the account of Pentecost in the Acts of the Apostles that we hear in the first reading, it was the strong wind, the breath of the Spirit, that filled the house where they were. This breath of God brings life to the Body of Christ, the church. It brings us to forgiveness, to community, to the spread of the gospel. Each day can be the “birthday” of the church if we live breathing in the breath of God, giving us life to be disciples.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful...

IRA CHARITABLE ROLLOVER

Whether you itemize or not in 2019, this unique opportunity allows you to make a charitable contribution through a direct IRA transfer while reducing your adjusted gross income.

If you would like to make a gift using your IRA and if:

- You are at least 70 1/2 years old on the date you make your gift
- Your IRA is a traditional (some Roth IRA’s may qualify)
- You don’t exceed your personal maximum of $100,000 per year in qualified charitable distributions

You will not have to report your distribution as income. It will be free of federal and New York State income tax, and it will count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD).

The best way for you to start is with your IRA custodian. Tell them you want to make a "qualified charitable distribution". In most cases you will only have to fill out a simple form.

VERY IMPORTANT!! Your gift must go directly from your IRA to the Parish. If you receive the money first then you’ll be taxed on it like any other distribution.

Bill has a $125,000 in a traditional IRA and would like to contribute $5,000 to the Parish. Upon hearing of the Charitable IRA Rollover opportunity, he directs the custodian of his IRA to transfer this amount not later than December 31, 2019 directly to the Parish as the family’s 2019 gift. He will not be subject to income tax on the $5,000 donation.

The team is looking to expand its numbers by asking young couples to consider joining this important and joyful ministry. If you are interested, please contact Deacon Jim O’Brien at the rectory (516 352 5904)

Ordination to the Deaconate
Deacon Michael Boldizar

Last Saturday, June 1st at St. Agnes Cathedral, Michael Boldizar was ordained as deacon for the Diocese of Rockville Centre by Bishop Barres. Michael’s ministry will be here at St. Anne’s where he and his wife, Karen, have been parishioners. This is a blessing for our parish and our prayers and best wishes are with Mike as he begins his ministry.

O God, who have taught this minister of your Church to seek not to be served but to serve his brothers and sisters, grant, we pray, that he, whom you graciously choose today for the office of Deacon, may be effective in action, gentle in ministry and constant in prayer.

Boy Scout Troop #134 News

On Saturday, June 1st, Boy Scouts Troop 134 honored two of our parishioners, Thomas S. Breslin and Jack Ryan as they have achieved scouting's highest rank – Eagle Scout.

For his Eagle Project, Thomas identified a need for an ADA accessible curb cut in the rear parking lot of the church and developed a plan to install the curb cut with the help of Drexler Construction. Thomas raised funds for his project through family, friends, St. Anne’s parishioners and generous donations from Drexler Construction and local businesses. The Eagle Board was impressed with Thomas’ leadership of the project and his motivation to achieve this notable rank at the age of fifteen.

Jack’s project benefited the Garden City Challenger Lacrosse Program. The Challenger athletic program offers children and young adults with special needs the opportunity to participate in lacrosse and many other sports. Jack spearheaded the design, construction and build-out of a portable cart that stores and carries lacrosse equipment and gear for these Challenger athletes from their storage trailer to the playing fields of St. Paul's. He also designed and implemented the new website for the program.
