Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.

This past Friday, on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, ground was broken for the parish’s new building. The offices for Faith Formation and Parish Social Ministry will be located in the new building. This new space will provide appropriate and accessible space for those involved in these and many other parish ministries to live out the words of St. Francis, consoling families who have lost a loved one, helping children and adults along their faith journey, listening and responding to those in need.

Each week we continue to receive donations and pledges. We are grateful for the tremendous support. This is truly a parish endeavor and we invite ALL parish families to be a part of it. If you have not yet made your gift or pledge perhaps you can do so today and help us increase our participation rate. Feel free to contact the parish office for a pledge form.

This is the time for your family to be a part of St. Anne’s history and help perpetuate the legacy of giving that St. Anne’s is known for. Every gift helps and no gift is too small.
Dear Parishioners,

Our Faith Formation program will get into full swing this week. About 1,000 students from grades one through eight will meet on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Wednesday classes all met this past week. The Jewish holy days delayed the beginning of Monday and Tuesday classes until this week. It has taken great organization to assign each child their catechist and classroom and all our Faith Formation staff has succeeded with great patience and care. Thank you especially to Vivian Flood and Tricia Brodersen for registering, scheduling, and making sure each child has an assigned spot.

Many thanks also to the volunteer catechists. Many experienced catechists have returned and we welcome several new catechists. Special thanks to those parents and new volunteers who so generously responded to the call for additional catechists. We are now able to meet the demand. Of course, additional volunteers are always welcome.

Already I have been able to meet with all our eighth grade confirmation candidates, both in our school and in our Faith Formation program. The students have been very cooperative and during the course of the next five months, we will create a strong Confirmation Class 2020. I look forward to our future meetings.

GROUNDBREAKING

This past Friday we had our groundbreaking for the new parish ministry center. More than 500 persons attended, including all our St. Anne’s School children. We topped the day off with a pizza and Oreo cookie lunch. It was fun.

Monday is another important day with our project. We will have a meeting with the diocesan building office, our parishioners leading the project, and our architect. At this meeting, we will begin the process of reviewing our plans so that the building will be built to our budget needs. As I reported last week, the bids for the project far exceeded the initial estimates we received when we began the effort. We will rectify the problem and hopefully find an acceptable contractor before Thanksgiving.

As we had our groundbreaking on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, we can trust in his intercession and help in getting this building “off the ground.”

Many have heard of the tradition of burying a St. Joseph’s statue or medal when trying to sell a home. Well, we are asking St. Anne and St. Francis to help us with this project. As part of our groundbreaking, statues of St. Anne and St. Francis have been placed in the ground where the foundation of the building will be. They will help us in all our efforts!

TODAY’S GOSPEL

“Increase our faith” is the opening prayer of today’s gospel. I’m sure we all share in that prayer as well all desire more faith. The parable that follows and the words from Habakkuk in the first reading suggest that growth in faith often takes time. Habakkuk intimates a relationship between faith and patience. The Lord’s words to the prophet:

“Write down the vision clearly upon the tablet, so that one can read it readily. For the vision still has its time, presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint; if it delays, wait for it, it will surely come, it will not be late. The rash one has no integrity; but the just one, because of his faith, shall live.”

Could it be said that “waiting is a lost art?” People have waited all through history and certainly we still wait for the most important and sacred events in life. Parents wait for the birth of their first child. Second graders wait for their First Holy Communion. Senior students wait for graduation. Young couples wait for their marriage date. People injured and those who are ill wait for healing and to feel better. We realize at times that we must wait.

Often we do not like waiting and for some, waiting becomes a waste of time. Waiting on line for the cashier at Key Food. Remember waiting for gasoline after Superstorm Sandy. Waiting to see the doctor when the appointment was 45 minutes earlier. Waiting for the train or a school bus. Technology seeks to limit waiting.

Google. Purchase a faster phone or tablet.

Our faith tradition and Sacred Scripture teach us that waiting is an integral part of the life of faith. Strangely, ironically, we can miss a lot if we fail to wait. The gifts of faith require waiting. Waiting invites patience; waiting teaches patience. St. Ignatius of Loyola would tell us to find God in the waiting.

Funny, sometimes I am very good at waiting; other times, not so good.

Peace be with you!

LOAVES AND FISHES

“If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and no food for the day and one of you says to them, ‘Go in peace, keep warm and eat well,’ but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also, faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead.” ~ James 2: 15-17

Resilience … Support for Parents

Meeting on Tuesday, October 8th at 7:30PM in the Rectory Meeting Room

Many parents choose not to discuss concerns about their children’s mental health with anyone due to fear of the stigma that is often attached. If you have a son or daughter who is experiencing psychological or emotional challenges, do you hesitate to speak with trusted friends or relatives because of the concern that at best they would not understand or perhaps they would be critical or judgmental? Do you often feel isolated, as if you are alone in dealing with this issue? Do you wonder at times where God is in the midst of your child’s struggles?

Saint Anne’s Resilience group offers support to parents of teens and young adults who are experiencing challenges, either psychological, emotional or both. We respect the confidentiality of each person and offer a safe environment to meet with other parents who are facing similar challenges. You are not alone! We will be meeting on Tuesday, October 8th at 7:30PM in the rectory. For more information, please contact Linda Leone at lindaleone@stannesgc.org

The event is in response to an invitation made for all Catholics worldwide to spiritually unite in prayer for peace in our respective nations. We pray, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary, to heal our country and return it to holiness.

When the disciples were asking Jesus to “Increase our faith” they were not concerned with the content of faith but rather the quality of their relationship with Jesus. It is not the quantity of faith. It is the quality of the faith relationship. Jesus tells them that even faith the size of a mustard seed can move a tree. Genuine faith, that deep relationship with Jesus, enables us to do what may seem to be impossible.

This past week the RCIA began to meet. We have 6 adults who are seeking a relationship with Jesus in our Catholic faith. Keep them in your prayer as they journey toward the Easter sacraments.

Respect Life Sunday

There will be a second collection this weekend for Respect Life Sunday. As we celebrate Respect Life Sunday, we are reminded that the assaults on human dignity come in many forms. The Respect Life Office is charged with deepening our already strong commitment to pro-life activities and parish education. Please support this vital work through participation in the special Respect Life envelope collection. Your prayers and assistance are greatly appreciated.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR PARISH
You can make a difference in the lives of those around us by making a gift to this year’s Catholic Ministries Appeal

Every Gift Counts!

A gift of $25 may help pay the gas for a Meals-On-Wheels van to deliver food for a day.

A gift of $50 from an emergency fund may help pay the electric bill in a cold winter month for a family in need.

A gift of $100 may help care for a newborn infant in Catholic Charities Regina Residence.

A gift of $250 may help subsidize a home for an adult who is developmentally disabled.

A gift of $1,000 may help support a Seminarian’s education.

Because of you, every year we are able to serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island Community. This support enables our children to continue to receive the gift of spiritual formation, sacramental preparation, and quality education. It allows seminarians and lay leaders to fulfill their calling to serve the community. With your support Catholic Charities can maintain its services for the poor and disadvantaged, and we can continue to reach out to our young people and others to find the best ways to guide and pass on our faith from generation to generation.

For more information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal, please visit CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5800 ext. 296.

IRA CHARITABLE ROLLOVER

Whether you itemize or not in 2019, this unique opportunity allows you to make a charitable contribution through a direct IRA transfer while reducing your adjusted gross income. If you would like to make a gift using your IRA and if:

• You are at least 70 1/2 years old on the date you make your gift
• Your IRA is a traditional (some Roth IRA’s may qualify)
• You don’t exceed your personal maximum of $100,000 per year in qualified charitable distributions

You will not have to report your distribution as income. It will be free of federal and New York State income tax, and it will count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD).

The best way for you to start is with your IRA custodian. Tell them you want to make a "qualified charitable distribution". In most cases you will only have to fill out a simple form. VERY IMPORTANT!! Your gift must go directly from your IRA to the Parish. If you receive the money first then you’ll be taxed on it like any other distribution.
