“Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?''

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

On Monday, we honor the life and accomplishments of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Dr. King would have turned 91 years old on January 15. The above quote seems appropriate as we prepare to build the St. Francis Ministry Center. The parish continues our mission given by Jesus to welcome, support, and guide God's family through prayer, sacramental celebration, education, faith formation, and service. Through all that we do, Saint Anne’s is committed to addressing the spiritual, physical, and social needs of all people through service to individuals, families, and the greater community. The St. Francis Ministry Center will be home to the offices of Faith Formation and Parish Social Ministry, two of our largest ministries that do for others in all of their works. These ministries will have more contemporary space to carry out their mission.

It is not too late to make a pledge and be part of this exciting time in the life of the parish. Know that we continue to welcome anyone who would like to participate. Every gift helps and no gift is too small! For more information, please contact the parish office at 352-5904.

Did you know....

The school building is quite active beyond the hours of the academic school day. The classrooms, meeting rooms and gathering spaces are shared with many parish programs and ministries. The new building will allow the parish to move some of these programs out of the school building. Not only does this provide these ministries with more appropriate rooms, but also eliminates non-school activities and visitors in the school building during the times where the children are in session. This is a win-win for both. It provides a more secure and safe building for our students and staff as well as provides accessibility and contemporary meeting space for our programs.
Dear Parishioners,

I am on retreat this weekend in Gloucester, Massachusetts enjoying the quiet time that retreat provides along with the beautiful views of the Atlantic Ocean along this New England rocky coastline. During the past year and at Christmas time, I often found myself speaking at Mass about the need for worship. The high point of worship for Catholics is the celebration of the Eucharist at Mass.

We are all aware of the declining number of people who regularly attend Sunday Mass. The attendance at Sunday Mass has diminished by about 24% in the last two decades. In the late 1990’s, average Sunday Mass attendance was about 2200. Now that number is 1700 on a “good” Sunday. For those who have regularly attended Mass these past 20 years, this is not shocking news. The attendance decline is visible. This is true throughout the diocese, in parishes all over Long Island.

The reasons for the decline are many. The abuse scandal disgusted Catholics and has led some people to distance themselves from the Church. Others have experienced personal hurts or disagree strongly with some Church teachings or policies. Some report they find the worship of the parish Mass lacking in some way. I am sure there are additional reasons.

In some ways what is shared is the lack of the need to worship. People pray, have a spiritual life, participate in community activities, but do not feel the call to worship with the community on Sunday. We do need time for personal and private prayer and it is a blessed thing when people find time to pray. Participating in charitable acts of service is an important way of living the gospel. A person can have a dynamic spiritual life when they are very aware of the presence of God in their lives.

Still, I believe that worship is necessary for a fully human and healthy life. Without worship something is seriously lacking in our lives. We need prayer, ritual, and community to help us give appropriate praise and thanksgiving to God. For Catholics, this is the Sunday Eucharist at Mass. Jesus at the Last Supper gave us the Eucharist and commanded us, “Do this in remembrance of Me.”

How thrilled I was that in his homily for the Epiphany, Pope Francis preached on the need for worship. He told the faithful in St. Peter’s Basilica, “through worship we discover that the Christian life is a love story with God.” Throughout his Epiphany homily, in the spirit of the Magic, the Holy Father offers many comments on worship. I share some of these with you.

“In the gospel (Mt 2: 1-12), the Magi begin by stating the reason why they have come: ‘We have seen his star in the East, and have come to worship him’ (v.2). Worship is the end and goal of their journey....Once we lose the sense of worship, we lose our direction in the Christian life, which is a journey towards the Lord, not towards ourselves.

“It is not enough to be knowledgeable unless we step out of ourselves, unless we encounter others and worship, we cannot not know God. Theology and pastoral effectiveness mean little or nothing unless we bend the knee; unless we kneel down like the Magi who were not only knowledgeable about planning a journey, but also capable of setting out and bowing down in worship. Once we worship, we come to realize that faith is not simply a set of doctrines, but a relationship with a living person whom we are called to love. It is in encountering Jesus face to face that we come to see him as he is. Through worship, we discover that the Christian life is a love story with God, where what really matters is not our fine ideas but our ability to make him the center of our lives as lovers do with those whom they love. This is what the Church ought to be, a worshiper in love with Jesus her spouse.

“Worship means going to Jesus without a list of petitions but with one request alone: to abide with him. It is about discovering that joy and peace increase with praise and thanksgiving. In worship, we allow Jesus to heal and change us. In worship, we make it possible for the Lord to transform us by his love, to kindle light amid our darkness, to grant us strength in weakness and courage amid trials...In worship we learn to reject what should not be worshipped: the god of money, the god of consumerism, the god of pleasure, the god of success, the god of self. Worship means bending low before the Most High and to discover in his presence that life’s greatness does not consist in having but in loving. Worship means recognizing that we are all brothers and sisters before the mystery of a love that bridges every distance; it is to encounter goodness at the source; it is to find in the God of closeness the courage to draw near to others. Worship means being silent in the presence of the divine Word, and learning to use words that do not wound but console.

“Worship means putting the Lord at the center, not ourselves. It means giving things their rightful place, and giving the first place to God. Worship means making God’s plan more important than our personal time, our entitlements, and our spaces. Worship is an act of love that changes our lives.

Thank you, Pope Francis!

Sincerely in Christ,
PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY

LOAVES AND FISHES

I would like to recall the Seven Corporal Works of Mercy, because it will be good to hear them again: to feed the hungry; to give drink to the thirsty; to clothe the naked; to harbor the homeless; to visit the sick; to visit the imprisoned; to bury the dead. I encourage you to carry on your work with joy and to model it after Christ’s, allowing all who suffer to encounter you and count on you in time of need.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.”

What is interesting in John’s account of John the Baptist is that he approaches it differently than the other evangelists. Matthew, Mark and Luke tell the story as Jesus is baptized by John the Baptist. John the evangelist tells it as John testifying to the story of baptizing Jesus. He had seen and experienced Jesus and then testifies to the truth of what he saw and heard, Jesus is the Son of God. Like John, we do not know Jesus until our baptism initiates us into a lifelong encounter with “the Lamb of God.” If we are open to this lifelong encounter it will permeate every corner of our lives. Cardinal Tobin, the bishop of Newark, New Jersey has said that he feels the greatest challenge facing the church today is the chasm between life and faith. Let us each begin to close the chasm between life and faith in our own lives by praying each day the words of today’s psalm, “Here am I Lord, I come to do your will.”

Readings for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 8: 23-9:3
1 Corinthians 1: 1-13, 17
Matthew 4: 12-23

Each year at the Easter Vigil and on Pentecost we celebrate the sacraments with those who have journeyed with the RCIA process. It is always a blessing for our parish and for each of us individually to experience the faith and commitment of our catechumens and candidates. Perhaps you or someone you know would like to complete the Sacraments of Initiation (Communion and/or Confirmation), is of another Christian religion and would like to become a Catholic or is interested in becoming a Catholic through receiving the Sacrament of Baptism. Our RCIA sessions are on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 in the rectory meeting room. Contact S. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or at 352-5904 for info.

Children’s Sunday Mass – 10:30 in McCloskey Auditorium

Last Sunday we celebrated Antoine Joash Bienvil’s First Communion at Children’s Sunday Mass. His family and cousins were in attendance.

Congratulations to Joash and his family!

Saint Anne’s Children’s Choir

The Choir’s next rehearsal will be Monday, February 3rd in the school Music Room. All children from Grades 2 and older are welcome to join the choir. The Children’s Choir sings at one mass a month and on special occasions. For more information contact Sr. Judy at srjudy@stannesgc.org or at the Parish office 352-5904.

Called to Serve

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy reminds us that liturgy is “the primary and indispensable source from which the faithful are to derive the true Christian spirit.” Celebrating our liturgies here at St. Anne is a sacred work and takes many people to serve our community each week. Do you feel called to proclaim God’s Word as a lector or to be an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion? Perhaps you have a love for music and would be able to share your musical talent to praise God in song. As we begin this new season of Ordinary Time listen to how God is calling you to serve. If you would like to serve in any of our liturgical ministries please contact Sr. Judy – srjudy@stannesgc.org or at 352-5904 for more information.
On Sunday, January 12th, we celebrated the First Holy Communion of one of our 3rd grade students, Antoine Bienvil, at Family Mass. Congratulations to Antoine and the Bienvil Family!

On Monday morning, students in grades 3, 4, and 5 enjoyed a visit with children’s author Amy McCoy. Mrs. McCoy is the author of the children’s novel, Little Big Sister. The story tells what it’s like to be a 9-year-old, younger sister, who has an 11-year-old, older brother with autism and other special needs. Mrs. McCoy focused on character education, discussing how kids can make a positive difference in their schools, communities, including her parish here at St. Anne’s, and the world! The children enjoyed her presentation, her books are now available in the classroom and our school library, for all to enjoy. Thank you to the Home School Association for sponsoring the visit and the purchase of the books for the classrooms and library.

The books are for grades 3-5 independent reading and are a great read aloud for younger students. For more information, please visit www.littlebigsisterbook.com.

Diocese of Rockville Centre announces Morning Star Initiative
As you may have heard, the Diocese of Rockville Centre has decided to launch a bold plan, called the Morning Star Initiative, to revitalize Catholic elementary school education on Long Island. The goal of this initiative is to restore a robust Catholic culture to the DRVC schools, improve academics, and create a more fiscally sustainable model for schools. The Diocese will partner with the Marianists, who have two centuries of Catholic educational commitment and expertise. The Diocese has asked Brother Thomas Cleary, S.M., President of Chaminade High School, to serve as the Chief Revitalization Officer and to spearhead this effort. He will be assisted by his fellow Marianists, who will seek feedback and ideas from the full spectrum of those with a stake in a revitalized Catholic elementary education, including our parishioners. We value your input, so please share your thoughts. Please visit the Diocese of Rockville Centre’s website at Morningstarinitiative.org for more information, and email morningstar@drvc.org to give feedback or find out more ways to get involved.
January 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

It is with joy, enthusiasm, and purpose-driven mission, that I invite you to celebrate National Catholic Schools Week from January 26, 2020 through February 1, 2020. Together, we recognize the extraordinary contribution that our Catholic schools across Long Island make by forming young missionary disciples on fire with love for our Lord Jesus and the mission of the Catholic Church.

At the same time, we recognize our collective responsibility towards the future of Catholic education in our Diocese. Enrollment and investment in our Catholic schools depends on the leadership of each individual Catholic. Our willingness to witness to the transformative and destiny-changing experience of Catholic education to the families we meet makes all the difference.

Pope Saint John Paul II once said: "In order that the Catholic school and the Catholic teacher may truly make their irreplaceable contribution to the Church and to the world, the goal of Catholic education itself must be crystal clear. Catholic education is above all a question of communicating Christ, of helping to form Christ in the lives of others".

In Catholic Schools Week 2020, our Catholic schools recommit themselves to helping parents and extended families form successful, servant leaders who help drive dramatic missionary growth on Long Island and beyond.

Be assured of my prayers for our shared mission and gratitude for your efforts.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
Most Reverend John O. Barres
